DIRECTORS' REPORT 30 JUNE 2016

4. Operating results

The Group has incurred an operating loss of $6,060,558.

5. Distributions paid or declared

No distributions were declared or paid in the current year.

6. Review of operations and financial results

The Group is a participant in the financial services market in Australia.

DomaCom Limited (formerly known as DomaCom Holdings) was incorporated on 23 February 2015 as a holding company and on 27 March 2015 combined with DomaCom Australia Limited and DomaCom Singapore Private Limited to form the DomaCom Group.

DomaCom Australia Limited, a 100% owned subsidiary, is the investment manager of the DomaCom Fund (Managed Investment Scheme). The Fund is unique in that it allows investors to hold fractional interests in properties, that they themselves or their advisers on their behalf have selected. Their interests are held as separate classes of units or separate sub-funds within a managed investment scheme. The investors receive the specific returns related to that particular sub-fund holding the underlying property. This is very different to a traditional property trust, where the investment manager selects the properties on behalf of the investor and investors receive a blended return from a range of properties. In our platform the adviser and their clients determine which property or properties they wish to invest in which meets their asset allocation and risk profile.

The DomaCom Fund is primarily targeted to advisers, accountants and other intermediaries that are working with clients holding assets in Superannuation and in particular Self-managed Superannuation Funds. This area of the Australian superannuation market is one of the fastest growing areas and now has assets of $621 billion as at 30 June 2016*. The total pool of Superannuation assets is now in excess of $2.1 trillion*, making Australia one of the largest pension funds in the world.

The Group continues to make solid progress into its primary distribution channel Licensed Financial Advisory firms. The Group has now been approved by over 37 different Licensed Financial Planning groups, which represents over 850 advisers in total, in relation to this the number of advisers we have now accredited is over 365 advisers with a further 170 advisers to be accredited. At the time of writing the DomaCom fund now holds 21 different properties, each held within their own sub-fund on behalf of investors. A further 13 book builds with active bids have been established including the Kidman Property representing the potential for further growth in Funds under Management. In addition to this there are a further 40 book builds currently with no active bids that are just in the process of being marketed.

The Group continues to work on product enhancements to our existing products and one area of note has been the work to allow applications to be completed by the adviser and/or investors online, with a digital signature. This new development has been important particularly as the company has embarked upon the public crowd funding of some high profile assets, such as the Kidman Agricultural property, the largest landholding of cattle farms in Australia representing 100,000 square kilometers and over 150,000 head of cattle. Also we are currently involved in the high profile Channel 9 Block television show and will allow the public to purchase a fractional interest in one or more of the apartments that are currently under construction.

We have also been working on new product developments and in particular our Equity Release product, that is subject to obtaining relief from the Australian Securities and Investment Committee and are also in the process of varying our Australian Financial Services Licence, so that we are able to offer a new product in the form of fractional Corporate Bonds.

AASB 9 Financial Instruments (December 2014)

AASB 9 introduces new requirements for the classification and measurement of financial assets and liabilities and includes a forward-looking 'expected loss' impairment model and a substantially-changed approach to hedge accounting. These requirements improve and simplify the approach for classification and measurement of financial assets compared with the requirements of AASB 139. The main changes are:

a) Financial assets that are debt instruments will be classified based on: (i) the objective of the entity's business model for managing the financial assets; and (ii) the characteristics of the contractual cash flows.

b) Allows an irrevocable election on initial recognition to present gains and losses on investments in equity instruments that are not held for trading in other comprehensive income (instead of in profit or loss). Dividends in respect of these investments that are a return on investment can be recognised in profit or loss and there is no impairment or recycling on disposal of the instrument.

c) Introduces a 'fair value through other comprehensive income' measurement category for particular simple debt instruments.

d) Financial assets can be designated and measured at fair value through profit or loss at initial recognition if doing so eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would arise from measuring assets or liabilities, or recognising the gains and losses on them, on different bases.

e) Where the fair value option is used for financial liabilities the change in fair value is to be accounted for as follows:

- the change attributable to changes in credit risk are presented in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI)
- the remaining change is presented in profit or loss If this approach creates or enlarges an accounting
 mismatch in the profit or loss, the effect of the changes in credit risk are also presented in profit or loss.

NOTE 2: ACCOUNTING STANDARDS ISSUED BUT NOT YET EFFECTIVE AND NOT BEEN ADOPTED EARLY BY THE GROUP (CONTINUED)

Otherwise, the following requirements have generally been carried forward unchanged from AASB 139 into AASB 9:

· classification and measurement of financial liabilities; and

• derecognition requirements for financial assets and liabilities.

AASB 9 requirements regarding hedge accounting represent a substantial overhaul of hedge accounting that enable entities to better reflect their risk management activities in the financial statements. Furthermore, AASB 9 introduces a new impairment model based on expected credit losses. This model makes use of more forward-looking information and applies to all financial instruments that are subject to impairment accounting.

The entity is yet to undertake a detailed assessment of the impact of AASB 9. However, based on the entity's preliminary assessment, the Standard is not expected to have a material impact on the transactions and balances recognised in the financial statements when it is first adopted for the year ending 30 June 2019.

AASB 1057 Application of Australian Accounting Standards

In May 2015, the AASB decided to revise Australian Accounting Standards that incorporate IFRSs to minimise Australian-specific wording even further. The AASB noted that IFRSs do not contain application paragraphs that identify the entities and financial reports to which the Standards (and Interpretations) apply. As a result, the AASB decided to move the application paragraphs previously contained in each Australian Accounting Standard (or Interpretation), unchanged, into a new Standard AASB 1057 Application of Australian Accounting Standards.

When this standard is adopted for the year ending 30 June 2017, there will be no impact on the financial statements.

AASB 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

AASB 15 replaces AASB 118 Revenue, AASB 111 Construction Contracts and some revenue-related Interpretations: AASB 15

- establishes a new revenue recognition model
- changes the basis for deciding whether revenue is to be recognised over time or at a point in time
- provides new and more detailed guidance on specific topics (e.g. multiple element arrangements, variable pricing, rights of return, warranties and licensing)
- expands and improves disclosures about revenue

In May 2015, the AASB issued ED 260 Income of Not-for-Profit Entities, proposing to replace the income recognition requirements of AASB 1004 Contributions and provide guidance to assist not-for-profit entities to apply the principles of AASB 15. The ED was open for comment until 14 August 2015 and the AASB is currently in the process of redeliberating its proposals with the aim of releasing the final amendments in late 2016.

The entity is yet to undertake a detailed assessment of the impact of AASB 15. However, based on the entity's preliminary assessment, the Standard is not expected to have a material impact on the transactions and balances recognised in the financial statements when it is first adopted for the year ending 30 June 2019.

AASB 16 Leases

AASB 16 replaces AASB 117 Leases and some lease-related Interpretations. AASB 16

- requires all leases to be accounted for 'on-balance sheet' by lessees, other than short-term and low value asset leases
- · provides new guidance on the application of the definition of lease and on sale and lease back accounting
- largely retains the existing lessor accounting requirements in AASB 117
- requires new and different disclosures about leases

The entity is yet to undertake a detailed assessment of the impact of AASB 16. However, based on the entity's preliminary assessment, the Standard is not expected to have a material impact on the transactions and balances recognised in the financial statements when it is first adopted for the year ending 30 June 2020.

AASB 2014-4 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Clarification of Acceptable Methods of Depreciation and Amortisation

The amendments to AASB 116 prohibit the use of a revenue based depreciation method for property, plant and equipment. Additionally, the amendments provide guidance in the application of the diminishing balance method for property, plant and equipment.

The amendments to AASB 138 present a rebuttable presumption that a revenue-based amortisation method for intangible assets is inappropriate. This rebuttable presumption can be overcome (i.e. a revenue-based amortisation method might be appropriate) only in two (2) limited circumstances:

1) The intangible asset is expressed as a measure of revenue, for example when the predominant limiting factor inherent in an intangible asset is the achievement of a revenue threshold (for instance, the right to operate a toll road could be based on a fixed total amount of revenue to be generated from cumulative tolls charged); or

2) When it can be demonstrated that revenue and the consumption of the economic benefits of the intangible asset are highly correlated.

When these amendments are first adopted for the year ending 30 June 2017, there will be no material impact on the transactions and balances recognised in the financial statements.

NOTE 3: SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Period of account

The period of account is for the 12 month period ended 30 June 2016. DomaCom Limited was incorporated on 23 February 2015 as a holding company and on 27 March 2015 combined with DomaCom Australia Limited and DomaCom Singapore Private Limited to form the Group. As such the comparative period of account is for 23 February 2015 to 30 June 2015, including the results of the consolidated subsidiaries from 27 March 2015 to 30 June 2015.

(b) Overall considerations

The significant accounting policies that have been used in the preparation of these financial statements are summarised below.

The financial statements have been prepared using the measurement bases specified by Australian Accounting Standards for each type of asset, liability, income and expense. The measurement bases are more fully described in the accounting policies below.

(c) Basis of consolidation

The Group financial statements consolidate those of the Parent Company and all of its subsidiaries as of 30 June 2016. The Parent controls a subsidiary if it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the subsidiary and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the subsidiary. All subsidiaries have a reporting date of 30 June.

All transactions and balances between Group companies are eliminated on consolidation, including unrealised gains and losses on transactions between Group Companies. Where unrealised losses on intra-group asset sales are reversed on consolidation, the underlying asset is also tested for impairment from a Group perspective. Amounts reported in the financial statements of Subsidiaries have been adjusted where necessary to ensure consistency with the accounting policies adopted by the Group.

Profit or loss and other comprehensive income of subsidiaries acquired or disposed of during the period are recognised from the effective date of acquisition, or up to the effective date of disposal, as applicable. Non-controlling interests, presented as part of equity, represent the portion of a subsidiary's profit or loss and net assets that is not held by the Group. The Group attributes total comprehensive income or loss of subsidiaries between the owners of the Parent and the non-controlling interests based on their respective ownership interests.

(d) Business Combination

The Group applies the acquisition method in accounting for business combinations. The consideration transferred by the Group to obtain control of a subsidiary is calculated as the sum of the acquisition-date fair values of assets transferred, liabilities incurred and the equity interests issued by the Group, which includes the fair value of any asset or liability arising from a contingent consideration arrangement. Acquisition costs are expensed as incurred.

The Group recognises identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination regardless of whether they have been previously recognised in the acquiree's financial statements prior to the acquisition. Assets acquired and liabilities assumed are generally measured at their acquisition-date fair values.

Goodwill is stated after separate recognition of identifiable intangible assets. It is calculated as the excess of the sum of: (a) fair value of consideration transferred; (b) the recognised amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree; and (c) acquisition-date fair value of any existing equity interest in the acquiree, over the acquisition-date fair values of identifiable net assets. If the fair values of identifiable net assets exceed the sum calculated above, the excess amount (ie gain on a bargain purchase) is recognised in profit or loss immediately.

NOTE 3: SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(e) Foreign currency translation

Functional and presentation currency

The consolidated financial statements are presented in Australian Dollars ($AUD), which is also the functional currency of the Parent Company.

Foreign currency transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency of the respective Group entity, using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions (spot exchange rate). Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the re-measurement of monetary items at year end exchange rates are recognised in profit or loss.

Non-monetary items are not retranslated at year-end and are measured at historical cost (translated using the exchange rates at the date of the transaction), except for non-monetary items measured at fair value which are translated using the exchange rates at the date when fair value was determined.

Foreign operations

In the Group's financial statements, all assets, liabilities and transactions of Group entities with a functional currency other than the $AUD are translated into $AUD upon consolidation. The functional currency of the Entities in the Group has remained unchanged during the reporting period.

On consolidation, assets and liabilities have been translated into $AUD at the closing rate at the reporting date. Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign entity have been treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign entity and translated into $AUD at the closing rate. Income and expenses have been translated into $AUD at the average rate over the reporting period. Exchange differences are charged / credited to other comprehensive income and recognised in the currency translation reserve in equity. On disposal of a foreign operation the cumulative translation differences recognised in equity are reclassified to profit or loss and recognised as part of the gain or loss on disposal.

(f) Revenue

Revenue arises from the investment management services provided to the DomaCom Fund and recognised on an accruals basis. Interest income and expense are reported on an accruals basis.

The DomaCom Group may be entitled to claim a refundable tax credit for eligible research and development expenditure (eg the Research and Development Tax Incentive regime in Australia or other investment allowances). The DomaCom Group accounts for a claim as an offset against eligible capitalised R&D expenditure. To the extent the claim relates to costs that were expensed as they did not meet the capitalisation criteria under AASB 138 Intangible Assets, this amount is recognised as Other Income.

(g) Operating expenses

Operating expenses are recognised in profit or loss upon utilisation of the service or at the date of their origin.

NOTE 3: SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(h) Intangible assets

Recognition of other intangible assets

Acquired intangible assets

Acquired computer software is capitalised on the basis of the costs incurred to acquire and install the specific software.

Internally developed intangibles

Expenditure on the research phase of projects to develop the software platform is recognised as an expense as incurred.

Costs that are directly attributable to a project's development phase are recognised as intangible assets, provided they meet the following recognition requirements:

- the development costs can be measured reliably
- the project is technically and commercially feasible
- the Group intends to and has sufficient resources to complete the project
- the Group has the ability to use or sell the asset
- · the software will generate probable future economic benefits

Development costs not meeting these criteria for capitalisation are expensed as incurred.

Subsequent measurement

All intangible assets, including the internally developed software platform, are accounted for using the cost model whereby capitalised costs are amortised on a systematic basis over their estimated useful lives, as these assets are considered finite. Residual values and useful lives are reviewed at each reporting date. In addition, they are subject to impairment testing. Any capitalised internally developed asset that is not yet complete is not amortised but is subject to impairment testing. The following useful lives are applied:

- Software: 5 years
- Software platform costs: 10 years

The DomaCom Group may be entitled to claim a refundable tax credit for eligible research and development expenditure (eg the Research and Development Tax Incentive regime in Australia or other investment allowances). The DomaCom Group accounts for a claim as an offset against eligible capitalised R&D expenditure to the extent the claim relates to capitalised expenditure.

Subsequent expenditures on the maintenance of computer software and the software platform will be expensed as incurred.

When an intangible asset is disposed of, the gain or loss on disposal is determined as the difference between the proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, and is recognised in profit or loss within other income or other expenses.

NOTE 3: SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(i) Property, plant and equipment

Plant and equipment is initially recognised at acquisition cost, including any costs directly attributable to bringing the assets to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by the Group's management.

Plant and equipment is subsequently measured using the cost model, cost less subsequent depreciation and impairment losses.

Depreciation is recognised on a straight-line basis to write down the cost less estimated residual value of plant and equipment. The following useful lives are applied:

- Furniture & fittings: 5 years
- Plant & office equipment: 5 years
- Computer equipment: 3 years

Material residual value estimates and estimates of useful life are updated as required, but at least annually. Gains or losses arising on the disposal of property, plant and equipment are determined as the difference between the disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the assets and are recognised in profit or loss within other income or other expenses.

(j) Leased assets

Operating leases

Where the Group is a lessee, payments on operating lease agreements are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Associated costs, such as maintenance and insurance, are expensed as incurred.

(k) Impairment testing of intangible assets and property, plant and equipment

For impairment assessment purposes, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are largely independent cash inflows (cash-generating units). As a result, some assets are tested individually for impairment and some are tested at cash-generating unit level.

Individual assets or cash-generating units are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable.

An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's or cash-generating unit's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount, which is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value-in-use. To determine the value-in-use, management estimates expected future cash flows from each cash-generating unit and determines a suitable interest rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows. The data used for impairment testing procedures are directly linked to the Group's latest approved budget, adjusted as necessary to exclude the effects of future reorganisations and asset enhancements. Discount factors are determined individually for each cash-generating unit and reflect management's assessment of respective risk profiles, such as market and asset-specific risks factors.

Impairment losses for cash-generating units reduce first the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to that cashgenerating unit. Any remaining impairment loss is charged pro rata to the other assets in the cash-generating unit. With the exception of goodwill, all assets are subsequently reassessed for indications that an impairment loss previously recognised may no longer exist.

An impairment charge is reversed if the cash-generating unit's recoverable amount exceeds its carrying amount.

(I) Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument, and are measured initially at fair value adjusted by transactions costs, except for those carried at fair value through profit or loss, which are measured initially at fair value. Subsequent measurement of financial assets and financial liabilities are described below.

Financial assets are derecognised when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire, or when the financial asset and all substantial risks and rewards are transferred. A financial liability is derecognised when it is extinguished, discharged, cancelled or expires.

Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. After initial recognition, these are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment. Discounting is omitted where the effect of discounting is immaterial. The Group's cash and cash equivalents, trade and most other receivables fall into this category of financial instruments.

Individually significant receivables are considered for impairment when they are past due or when other objective evidence is received that a specific counterparty will default. Receivables that are not considered to be individually impaired are reviewed for impairment in Companies, which are determined by reference to the industry and region of a counterparty and other shared credit risk characteristics. The impairment loss estimate is then based on recent historical counterparty default rates for each identified company.

Classification and subsequent measurement of financial liabilities

The Group's financial liabilities include trade and other payables, and related party loans

Financial Liabilities

Financial liabilities are measured subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

All interest-related charges and, if applicable, changes in an instrument's fair value that are reported in profit or loss are included within finance costs or finance income.

(m) Income taxes

Tax expense recognised in profit or loss comprises the sum of deferred tax and current tax not recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current income tax assets and/or liabilities comprise those obligations to, or claims from, the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) and other fiscal authorities relating to the current or prior reporting periods, that are unpaid at the reporting date. Current tax is payable on taxable profit, which differs from profit or loss in the financial statements. Calculation of current tax is based on tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred income taxes are calculated using the liability method on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases. However, deferred tax is not provided on the initial recognition of goodwill, or on the initial recognition of an asset or liability unless the related transaction is a business combination or affects tax or accounting profit. Deferred tax on temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and joint ventures is not provided if reversal of these temporary differences can be controlled by the Group and it is probable that reversal will not occur in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are calculated, without discounting, at tax rates that are expected to apply to their respective period of realisation, provided they are enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

(m) Income taxes (continued)

Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that they will be able to be utilised against future taxable income, based on the Group's forecast of future operating results which is adjusted for significant non-taxable income and expenses and specific limits to the use of any unused tax loss or credit. Deferred tax liabilities are always provided for in full.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset only when the Group has a right and intention to set off current tax assets and liabilities from the same taxation authority.

Changes in deferred tax assets or liabilities are recognised as a component of tax income or expense in profit or loss, except where they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income (such as the revaluation of land) or directly in equity, in which case the related deferred tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or equity, respectively.

(n) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and demand deposits, together with other short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

(o) Equity, reserves and dividend payments

Share capital represents the fair value of shares that have been issued. Any transaction costs associated with the issuing of shares are deducted from share capital, net of any related income tax benefits.

Retained earnings includes all current and prior period retained profits.

Dividend distributions payable to equity shareholders are included in other liabilities when the dividends have been approved in a general meeting prior to the reporting date.

All transactions with owners of the parent are recorded separately within equity.

(p) Employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits, including annual leave entitlement, are current liabilities included in employee benefits, measured at the undiscounted amount that the Group expects to pay as a result of the unused entitlement.

Share-based payments

Share-based compensation benefits are provided to employees via the Group or Shareholders for no cash consideration.

The fair value of shares granted is recognised as an employee benefit expense with a corresponding increase in equity. The fair value is measured at grant date and recognised over the period during which the employees become unconditionally entitled to the shares.

(q) Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provisions for legal disputes, onerous contracts or other claims are recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic resources will be required from the Group and amounts can be estimated reliably. Timing or amount of the outflow may still be uncertain.

Provisions are measured at the estimated expenditure required to settle the present obligation, based on the most reliable evidence available at the reporting date, including the risks and uncertainties associated with the present obligation. Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. Provisions are discounted to their present values, where the time value of money is material.

Any reimbursement that the Group can be virtually certain to collect from a third party with respect to the obligation is recognised as a separate asset. However, this asset may not exceed the amount of the related provision.

In those cases where the possible outflow of economic resources as a result of present obligations is considered improbable or remote, no liability is recognised.

(r) Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST, except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Tax Office. In these circumstances the GST is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of an item of the expense. Receivables and payables in the statement of financial position are shown inclusive of GST.

Cash flows are presented in the statement of cash flows on a gross basis, except for the GST components of investing and financing activities, which are disclosed as operating cash flows.

(s) Going Concern

As a developing business the Group has experienced a loss of $6,060,558. The Group has net working capital of $2,434,624.

The continuing viability of the Group and its ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon the Group being successful in its continuing efforts in accessing additional sources of capital.

In particular significant matters considered by the Directors in determining that it is appropriate for the financial report to be prepared on a going concern basis include:

- The Group's Research and Development tax incentive claim was lodged with AusIndustry on 16 September 2016 for an amount of $1,286,823.
- The Group is currently going through the process of seeking further capital through a listing on the Australian Stock Exchange.

If these matters are not achieved, there may be significant uncertainty as to whether the Group will continue as a going concern and, therefore, whether it will realise its assets and settle its liabilities in the normal course of business and at the amounts stated in the financial report. The Directors believe that the Group will be able to access sufficient sources of funds and, accordingly, have prepared the financial report on a going concern basis.

Accordingly, no adjustments have been made to the financial report relating to the recoverability and classification of the asset carrying amounts or the amount and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Group not continue as a going concern.

(t) Significant management judgement in applying accounting policies and estimation uncertainty

When preparing the financial statements, management undertakes a number of judgments, estimates and assumptions about the recognition and measurement of assets, liabilities, income and expenses.

Significant management judgments

The following are significant management judgements in applying the accounting policies of the Group that have the most significant effect on the financial statements.

Capitalisation of internally developed software platform

Distinguishing the research and development phases of the internally developed software platform and determining whether the recognition requirements for the capitalisation of development costs are met requires judgment. After capitalisation, management monitors whether the recognition requirements continue to be met and whether there are any indicators that capitalised costs may be impaired.

Useful economic life of internally developed software platform

Management reviews its estimate of the useful lives of depreciable assets at each reporting date, based on the expected utility of the assets. Uncertainties in these estimates relate to technical obsolescence that may change the utility of software. During the year management determined that the internally developed Fractional Property software should be depreciated and the useful economic life was assessed as 10 years.

Recognition of deferred tax assets

The extent to which deferred tax assets can be recognised is based on an assessment of the probability of the Group's future taxable income against which the deferred tax assets can be utilised. In addition, significant judgement is required in assessing the impact of any legal or economic limits or uncertainties in various tax jurisdictions. No deferred tax assets were recognized due to uncertainty of recoverability.

The DomaCom Group has made a change to its accounting policy in respect to R&D claims. Under the previous accounting policy any claims submitted to AusIndustry and the ATO would be recognised in full as a tax credit in the period for which the claim was made. Under the revised accounting policy, the claim is offset against eligible capitalised R&D expenditure. To the extent the claim relates to costs that were expensed as they did not meet the capitalisation criteria under AASB 138 Intangible Assets, this amount is recognised as Other Income. The purpose of the change in accounting policy is to match the treatment of the claims with the underlying expenditure. The revised treatment is consistent with best practice and provides a clearer representation of the linked transactions. The change in accounting policy requires the restatement of prior year financial statements as summarised above.

With the change in accounting policy resulting in a deferred tax liability no longer being recognised, an adjustment has also been made to remove the deferred tax asset of $125,585 at 30 June 2015 from the Statement of Financial Position as it is not considered appropriate to recognise this asset in the absence of a corresponding deferred tax liability due to uncertainty of recoverability.

The Director Long Term Incentive Plan and Employee Long Term Incentive Plan (LTIP) was established as a retention strategy and an incentive for staff and directors to continue to work hard for the DomaCom Group. Through obtaining equity, staff are motivated to strive to make the DomaCom Group successful as they will ultimately share in the success.

All Directors (excluding the CEO) and employees who were employed on 14th of December 2015 have been granted performance rights. Mr Naoumidis, who is the key founder of DomaCom and as at the Prospectus Date is its largest shareholder did not participate in the LTIP.

The Performance Rights granted to the non-executive Directors and employees (other than CFO/COO Ross Laidlaw) in December 2015 will vest if the Company lists on the ASX. Vesting gives the holder of a Performance Right the right to convert some or all of their Performance Rights into ordinary shares. Each Performance Right entitles its owner to one ordinary share in the Company on conversion. The performance rights expire on 30 November 2018 and may be exercised at any time after the Company is listed up to that date.

The performance rights under the employee and non-executive director and executive director programs have an exercise price of $nil.

The Performance Rights granted to the Company's Chief Operating Officer, Executive Director Ross Laidlaw, will vest following achievement of each of the following milestones:

- the Company is admitted to the official list of ASX;
- FUM in the DomaCom Fund has reached $100 million; and
- the price at which ordinary shares in the Company have traded has reached $1.00.

Risk management objectives and policies

The Group is exposed to various risks in relation to financial instruments. The Group's financial assets and liabilities by category are summarised above. The main types of risks are liquidity risk, credit risk and market risk.

The Company's risk management is coordinated through the Chief Compliance and Risk Officer, in close cooperation with the Board of Directors (the "Board") and the Financial Controller.

Liquidity risk analysis

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group might be unable to meet its obligations. The Group manages its liquidity needs by monitoring forecast cash inflows and outflows due in day-to-day business. Net cash requirements are compared to available cash in order to maintain a cash surplus. Funding for long-term liquidity needs sourced through additional capital raising.

The Group's financial liabilities have contractual maturities (including interest payments where applicable) of less than 6 months.

Credit Risk Analysis

Credit risk is the risk that a counterparty fails to discharge an obligation to the Group. The Group's maximum exposure to credit risk is limited to the carrying amount of financial assets recognised at the reporting date, as summarised in Note 7.

The Group continuously monitors defaults of customers and other counterparties, identified either by individual or group and incorporates this information into its credit risk controls. The Group's policy is to deal only with creditworthy counterparties.

The Group's management considers that all the above financial assets that are not impaired or past due for each of the reporting dates under review are of good credit quality.

In respect of trade and other receivables, the Group is not exposed to any significant credit risk exposure to any single counterparty or any group of counterparties having similar characteristics.

The credit risk for cash and cash equivalents is considered negligible, since the counterparties are reputable banks with high quality external credit ratings.

Market risk analysis

The Group is exposed to market risk through currency and interest rate risk.

Foreign Currency Sensitivity	Note	2016 $	2015 $
SGD
Financial assets		11,837	64,276
Financial liabilities		-	-
Total Exposure		11,837	64,276

The following table illustrates the sensitivity of profit and equity in regards to the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities and the $SGD/$AUD exchange rate 'all other things being equal'. It includes only outstanding foreign currency denominated monetary items and adjusts their translation at the year end for a change in foreign currency rates. It assumes a +/- 10% change of the $SGD/$AUD exchange rate for the year ended at 30 June 2016 (2015: 10%).

If the $SGD had strengthened against the $AUD by 10% (2015: 10%) this would have had the following impact through an increase in the Foreign Currency Translation Reserve:

Equity	1,187	6,867

Interest Rate Sensitivity

The Company's policy is to minimise interest rate risk exposures. Interest income is earned on deposits held. The rate is reviewed on a regular basis to ensure it remains in line with the expected rate of return. Interest expense incurred on any short term borrowings is assessed to ensure it is in line with market expectations. The Company's policy is not to enter into any long term borrowing.

The following table illustrates the sensitivity of profit and equity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates of +/- 1% (2015: +/- 1%). These changes are considered to be reasonably possible based on observation of current market conditions. The calculations are based on a change in the average market interest rate for each period, and the financial instruments held at each reporting date that are sensitive to changes in interest rates. All other variables are held constant.

DIRECTORS' REPORT 30 JUNE 2016

4. Operating results

The Group has incurred an operating loss of $6,060,558.

5. Distributions paid or declared

No distributions were declared or paid in the current year.

6. Review of operations and financial results

The Group is a participant in the financial services market in Australia.

DomaCom Limited (formerly known as DomaCom Holdings) was incorporated on 23 February 2015 as a holding company and on 27 March 2015 combined with DomaCom Australia Limited and DomaCom Singapore Private Limited to form the DomaCom Group.

DomaCom Australia Limited, a 100% owned subsidiary, is the investment manager of the DomaCom Fund (Managed Investment Scheme). The Fund is unique in that it allows investors to hold fractional interests in properties, that they themselves or their advisers on their behalf have selected. Their interests are held as separate classes of units or separate sub-funds within a managed investment scheme. The investors receive the specific returns related to that particular sub-fund holding the underlying property. This is very different to a traditional property trust, where the investment manager selects the properties on behalf of the investor and investors receive a blended return from a range of properties. In our platform the adviser and their clients determine which property or properties they wish to invest in which meets their asset allocation and risk profile.

The DomaCom Fund is primarily targeted to advisers, accountants and other intermediaries that are working with clients holding assets in Superannuation and in particular Self-managed Superannuation Funds. This area of the Australian superannuation market is one of the fastest growing areas and now has assets of $621 billion as at 30 June 2016*. The total pool of Superannuation assets is now in excess of $2.1 trillion*, making Australia one of the largest pension funds in the world.

The Group continues to make solid progress into its primary distribution channel Licensed Financial Advisory firms. The Group has now been approved by over 37 different Licensed Financial Planning groups, which represents over 850 advisers in total, in relation to this the number of advisers we have now accredited is over 365 advisers with a further 170 advisers to be accredited. At the time of writing the DomaCom fund now holds 21 different properties, each held within their own sub-fund on behalf of investors. A further 13 book builds with active bids have been established including the Kidman Property representing the potential for further growth in Funds under Management. In addition to this there are a further 40 book builds currently with no active bids that are just in the process of being marketed.

The Group continues to work on product enhancements to our existing products and one area of note has been the work to allow applications to be completed by the adviser and/or investors online, with a digital signature. This new development has been important particularly as the company has embarked upon the public crowd funding of some high profile assets, such as the Kidman Agricultural property, the largest landholding of cattle farms in Australia representing 100,000 square kilometers and over 150,000 head of cattle. Also we are currently involved in the high profile Channel 9 Block television show and will allow the public to purchase a fractional interest in one or more of the apartments that are currently under construction.

We have also been working on new product developments and in particular our Equity Release product, that is subject to obtaining relief from the Australian Securities and Investment Committee and are also in the process of varying our Australian Financial Services Licence, so that we are able to offer a new product in the form of fractional Corporate Bonds.

NOTE 1: GENERAL INFORMATION AND STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE

The financial report includes the financial statements and notes of DomaCom Limited (the "Company") and its Controlled Entities (the "Group"). DomaCom Limited (formerly known as DomaCom Holdings) was incorporated on 23 February 2015 as a holding company and on 27 March 2015 combined with DomaCom Australia Limited and DomaCom Singapore Private Limited to form the Group.

The consolidated general purpose financial statements of the Group have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Corporations Act 2001, Australian Accounting Standards and other authoritative pronouncements of the Australian Accounting Standards Board. Compliance with Australian Accounting Standards results in full compliance with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB). DomaCom Limited is a for-profit entity for the purpose of preparing the financial statements.

The financial statements for the year ended 30 June 2016 were approved and authorised for issue by the Board of Directors on 23rd September 2016.

NOTE 2: ACCOUNTING STANDARDS ISSUED BUT NOT YET EFFECTIVE AND NOT BEEN ADOPTED EARLY BY THE GROUP

The following standards and interpretations have been recently issued or amended but are not yet effective, and have not been early adopted by the Group for the year ended 30 June 2016.

AASB 9 Financial Instruments (December 2014)

AASB 9 introduces new requirements for the classification and measurement of financial assets and liabilities and includes a forward-looking 'expected loss' impairment model and a substantially-changed approach to hedge accounting. These requirements improve and simplify the approach for classification and measurement of financial assets compared with the requirements of AASB 139. The main changes are:

a) Financial assets that are debt instruments will be classified based on: (i) the objective of the entity's business model for managing the financial assets; and (ii) the characteristics of the contractual cash flows.

b) Allows an irrevocable election on initial recognition to present gains and losses on investments in equity instruments that are not held for trading in other comprehensive income (instead of in profit or loss). Dividends in respect of these investments that are a return on investment can be recognised in profit or loss and there is no impairment or recycling on disposal of the instrument.

c) Introduces a 'fair value through other comprehensive income' measurement category for particular simple debt instruments.

d) Financial assets can be designated and measured at fair value through profit or loss at initial recognition if doing so eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would arise from measuring assets or liabilities, or recognising the gains and losses on them, on different bases.

e) Where the fair value option is used for financial liabilities the change in fair value is to be accounted for as follows:

- the change attributable to changes in credit risk are presented in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI)
- the remaining change is presented in profit or loss If this approach creates or enlarges an accounting
 mismatch in the profit or loss, the effect of the changes in credit risk are also presented in profit or loss.

NOTE 2: ACCOUNTING STANDARDS ISSUED BUT NOT YET EFFECTIVE AND NOT BEEN ADOPTED EARLY BY THE GROUP (CONTINUED)

Otherwise, the following requirements have generally been carried forward unchanged from AASB 139 into AASB 9:

· classification and measurement of financial liabilities; and

• derecognition requirements for financial assets and liabilities.

AASB 9 requirements regarding hedge accounting represent a substantial overhaul of hedge accounting that enable entities to better reflect their risk management activities in the financial statements. Furthermore, AASB 9 introduces a new impairment model based on expected credit losses. This model makes use of more forward-looking information and applies to all financial instruments that are subject to impairment accounting.

The entity is yet to undertake a detailed assessment of the impact of AASB 9. However, based on the entity's preliminary assessment, the Standard is not expected to have a material impact on the transactions and balances recognised in the financial statements when it is first adopted for the year ending 30 June 2019.

AASB 1057 Application of Australian Accounting Standards

In May 2015, the AASB decided to revise Australian Accounting Standards that incorporate IFRSs to minimise Australian-specific wording even further. The AASB noted that IFRSs do not contain application paragraphs that identify the entities and financial reports to which the Standards (and Interpretations) apply. As a result, the AASB decided to move the application paragraphs previously contained in each Australian Accounting Standard (or Interpretation), unchanged, into a new Standard AASB 1057 Application of Australian Accounting Standards.

When this standard is adopted for the year ending 30 June 2017, there will be no impact on the financial statements.

AASB 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

AASB 15 replaces AASB 118 Revenue, AASB 111 Construction Contracts and some revenue-related Interpretations: AASB 15

- establishes a new revenue recognition model
- changes the basis for deciding whether revenue is to be recognised over time or at a point in time
- provides new and more detailed guidance on specific topics (e.g. multiple element arrangements, variable pricing, rights of return, warranties and licensing)
- expands and improves disclosures about revenue

In May 2015, the AASB issued ED 260 Income of Not-for-Profit Entities, proposing to replace the income recognition requirements of AASB 1004 Contributions and provide guidance to assist not-for-profit entities to apply the principles of AASB 15. The ED was open for comment until 14 August 2015 and the AASB is currently in the process of redeliberating its proposals with the aim of releasing the final amendments in late 2016.

The entity is yet to undertake a detailed assessment of the impact of AASB 15. However, based on the entity's preliminary assessment, the Standard is not expected to have a material impact on the transactions and balances recognised in the financial statements when it is first adopted for the year ending 30 June 2019.

NOTE 2: ACCOUNTING STANDARDS ISSUED BUT NOT YET EFFECTIVE AND NOT BEEN ADOPTED EARLY BY THE GROUP (CONTINUED)

AASB 16 Leases

AASB 16 replaces AASB 117 Leases and some lease-related Interpretations. AASB 16

- requires all leases to be accounted for 'on-balance sheet' by lessees, other than short-term and low value asset leases
- · provides new guidance on the application of the definition of lease and on sale and lease back accounting
- largely retains the existing lessor accounting requirements in AASB 117
- requires new and different disclosures about leases

The entity is yet to undertake a detailed assessment of the impact of AASB 16. However, based on the entity's preliminary assessment, the Standard is not expected to have a material impact on the transactions and balances recognised in the financial statements when it is first adopted for the year ending 30 June 2020.

AASB 2014-4 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Clarification of Acceptable Methods of Depreciation and Amortisation

The amendments to AASB 116 prohibit the use of a revenue based depreciation method for property, plant and equipment. Additionally, the amendments provide guidance in the application of the diminishing balance method for property, plant and equipment.

The amendments to AASB 138 present a rebuttable presumption that a revenue-based amortisation method for intangible assets is inappropriate. This rebuttable presumption can be overcome (i.e. a revenue-based amortisation method might be appropriate) only in two (2) limited circumstances:

1) The intangible asset is expressed as a measure of revenue, for example when the predominant limiting factor inherent in an intangible asset is the achievement of a revenue threshold (for instance, the right to operate a toll road could be based on a fixed total amount of revenue to be generated from cumulative tolls charged); or

2) When it can be demonstrated that revenue and the consumption of the economic benefits of the intangible asset are highly correlated.

When these amendments are first adopted for the year ending 30 June 2017, there will be no material impact on the transactions and balances recognised in the financial statements.

NOTE 3: SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Period of account

The period of account is for the 12 month period ended 30 June 2016. DomaCom Limited was incorporated on 23 February 2015 as a holding company and on 27 March 2015 combined with DomaCom Australia Limited and DomaCom Singapore Private Limited to form the Group. As such the comparative period of account is for 23 February 2015 to 30 June 2015, including the results of the consolidated subsidiaries from 27 March 2015 to 30 June 2015.

(b) Overall considerations

The significant accounting policies that have been used in the preparation of these financial statements are summarised below.

The financial statements have been prepared using the measurement bases specified by Australian Accounting Standards for each type of asset, liability, income and expense. The measurement bases are more fully described in the accounting policies below.

(c) Basis of consolidation

The Group financial statements consolidate those of the Parent Company and all of its subsidiaries as of 30 June 2016. The Parent controls a subsidiary if it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the subsidiary and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the subsidiary. All subsidiaries have a reporting date of 30 June.

All transactions and balances between Group companies are eliminated on consolidation, including unrealised gains and losses on transactions between Group Companies. Where unrealised losses on intra-group asset sales are reversed on consolidation, the underlying asset is also tested for impairment from a Group perspective. Amounts reported in the financial statements of Subsidiaries have been adjusted where necessary to ensure consistency with the accounting policies adopted by the Group.

Profit or loss and other comprehensive income of subsidiaries acquired or disposed of during the period are recognised from the effective date of acquisition, or up to the effective date of disposal, as applicable. Non-controlling interests, presented as part of equity, represent the portion of a subsidiary's profit or loss and net assets that is not held by the Group. The Group attributes total comprehensive income or loss of subsidiaries between the owners of the Parent and the non-controlling interests based on their respective ownership interests.

(d) Business Combination

The Group applies the acquisition method in accounting for business combinations. The consideration transferred by the Group to obtain control of a subsidiary is calculated as the sum of the acquisition-date fair values of assets transferred, liabilities incurred and the equity interests issued by the Group, which includes the fair value of any asset or liability arising from a contingent consideration arrangement. Acquisition costs are expensed as incurred.

The Group recognises identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination regardless of whether they have been previously recognised in the acquiree's financial statements prior to the acquisition. Assets acquired and liabilities assumed are generally measured at their acquisition-date fair values.

Goodwill is stated after separate recognition of identifiable intangible assets. It is calculated as the excess of the sum of: (a) fair value of consideration transferred; (b) the recognised amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree; and (c) acquisition-date fair value of any existing equity interest in the acquiree, over the acquisition-date fair values of identifiable net assets. If the fair values of identifiable net assets exceed the sum calculated above, the excess amount (ie gain on a bargain purchase) is recognised in profit or loss immediately.

NOTE 3: SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(e) Foreign currency translation

Functional and presentation currency

The consolidated financial statements are presented in Australian Dollars ($AUD), which is also the functional currency of the Parent Company.

Foreign currency transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency of the respective Group entity, using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions (spot exchange rate). Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the re-measurement of monetary items at year end exchange rates are recognised in profit or loss.

Non-monetary items are not retranslated at year-end and are measured at historical cost (translated using the exchange rates at the date of the transaction), except for non-monetary items measured at fair value which are translated using the exchange rates at the date when fair value was determined.

Foreign operations

In the Group's financial statements, all assets, liabilities and transactions of Group entities with a functional currency other than the $AUD are translated into $AUD upon consolidation. The functional currency of the Entities in the Group has remained unchanged during the reporting period.

On consolidation, assets and liabilities have been translated into $AUD at the closing rate at the reporting date. Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign entity have been treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign entity and translated into $AUD at the closing rate. Income and expenses have been translated into $AUD at the average rate over the reporting period. Exchange differences are charged / credited to other comprehensive income and recognised in the currency translation reserve in equity. On disposal of a foreign operation the cumulative translation differences recognised in equity are reclassified to profit or loss and recognised as part of the gain or loss on disposal.

(f) Revenue

Revenue arises from the investment management services provided to the DomaCom Fund and recognised on an accruals basis. Interest income and expense are reported on an accruals basis.

The DomaCom Group may be entitled to claim a refundable tax credit for eligible research and development expenditure (eg the Research and Development Tax Incentive regime in Australia or other investment allowances). The DomaCom Group accounts for a claim as an offset against eligible capitalised R&D expenditure. To the extent the claim relates to costs that were expensed as they did not meet the capitalisation criteria under AASB 138 Intangible Assets, this amount is recognised as Other Income.

(g) Operating expenses

Operating expenses are recognised in profit or loss upon utilisation of the service or at the date of their origin.

NOTE 3: SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(h) Intangible assets

Recognition of other intangible assets

Acquired intangible assets

Acquired computer software is capitalised on the basis of the costs incurred to acquire and install the specific software.

Internally developed intangibles

Expenditure on the research phase of projects to develop the software platform is recognised as an expense as incurred.

Costs that are directly attributable to a project's development phase are recognised as intangible assets, provided they meet the following recognition requirements:

- the development costs can be measured reliably
- the project is technically and commercially feasible
- the Group intends to and has sufficient resources to complete the project
- the Group has the ability to use or sell the asset
- · the software will generate probable future economic benefits

Development costs not meeting these criteria for capitalisation are expensed as incurred.

Subsequent measurement

All intangible assets, including the internally developed software platform, are accounted for using the cost model whereby capitalised costs are amortised on a systematic basis over their estimated useful lives, as these assets are considered finite. Residual values and useful lives are reviewed at each reporting date. In addition, they are subject to impairment testing. Any capitalised internally developed asset that is not yet complete is not amortised but is subject to impairment testing. The following useful lives are applied:

- Software: 5 years
- Software platform costs: 10 years

The DomaCom Group may be entitled to claim a refundable tax credit for eligible research and development expenditure (eg the Research and Development Tax Incentive regime in Australia or other investment allowances). The DomaCom Group accounts for a claim as an offset against eligible capitalised R&D expenditure to the extent the claim relates to capitalised expenditure.

Subsequent expenditures on the maintenance of computer software and the software platform will be expensed as incurred.

When an intangible asset is disposed of, the gain or loss on disposal is determined as the difference between the proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, and is recognised in profit or loss within other income or other expenses.

NOTE 3: SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(i) Property, plant and equipment

Plant and equipment is initially recognised at acquisition cost, including any costs directly attributable to bringing the assets to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by the Group's management.

Plant and equipment is subsequently measured using the cost model, cost less subsequent depreciation and impairment losses.

Depreciation is recognised on a straight-line basis to write down the cost less estimated residual value of plant and equipment. The following useful lives are applied:

- Furniture & fittings: 5 years
- Plant & office equipment: 5 years
- Computer equipment: 3 years

Material residual value estimates and estimates of useful life are updated as required, but at least annually. Gains or losses arising on the disposal of property, plant and equipment are determined as the difference between the disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the assets and are recognised in profit or loss within other income or other expenses.

(j) Leased assets

Operating leases

Where the Group is a lessee, payments on operating lease agreements are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Associated costs, such as maintenance and insurance, are expensed as incurred.

(k) Impairment testing of intangible assets and property, plant and equipment

For impairment assessment purposes, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are largely independent cash inflows (cash-generating units). As a result, some assets are tested individually for impairment and some are tested at cash-generating unit level.

Individual assets or cash-generating units are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable.

An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's or cash-generating unit's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount, which is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value-in-use. To determine the value-in-use, management estimates expected future cash flows from each cash-generating unit and determines a suitable interest rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows. The data used for impairment testing procedures are directly linked to the Group's latest approved budget, adjusted as necessary to exclude the effects of future reorganisations and asset enhancements. Discount factors are determined individually for each cash-generating unit and reflect management's assessment of respective risk profiles, such as market and asset-specific risks factors.

Impairment losses for cash-generating units reduce first the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to that cashgenerating unit. Any remaining impairment loss is charged pro rata to the other assets in the cash-generating unit. With the exception of goodwill, all assets are subsequently reassessed for indications that an impairment loss previously recognised may no longer exist.

An impairment charge is reversed if the cash-generating unit's recoverable amount exceeds its carrying amount.

(I) Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument, and are measured initially at fair value adjusted by transactions costs, except for those carried at fair value through profit or loss, which are measured initially at fair value. Subsequent measurement of financial assets and financial liabilities are described below.

Financial assets are derecognised when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire, or when the financial asset and all substantial risks and rewards are transferred. A financial liability is derecognised when it is extinguished, discharged, cancelled or expires.

Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. After initial recognition, these are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment. Discounting is omitted where the effect of discounting is immaterial. The Group's cash and cash equivalents, trade and most other receivables fall into this category of financial instruments.

Individually significant receivables are considered for impairment when they are past due or when other objective evidence is received that a specific counterparty will default. Receivables that are not considered to be individually impaired are reviewed for impairment in Companies, which are determined by reference to the industry and region of a counterparty and other shared credit risk characteristics. The impairment loss estimate is then based on recent historical counterparty default rates for each identified company.

Classification and subsequent measurement of financial liabilities

The Group's financial liabilities include trade and other payables, and related party loans

Financial Liabilities

Financial liabilities are measured subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

All interest-related charges and, if applicable, changes in an instrument's fair value that are reported in profit or loss are included within finance costs or finance income.

(m) Income taxes

Tax expense recognised in profit or loss comprises the sum of deferred tax and current tax not recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current income tax assets and/or liabilities comprise those obligations to, or claims from, the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) and other fiscal authorities relating to the current or prior reporting periods, that are unpaid at the reporting date. Current tax is payable on taxable profit, which differs from profit or loss in the financial statements. Calculation of current tax is based on tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred income taxes are calculated using the liability method on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases. However, deferred tax is not provided on the initial recognition of goodwill, or on the initial recognition of an asset or liability unless the related transaction is a business combination or affects tax or accounting profit. Deferred tax on temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and joint ventures is not provided if reversal of these temporary differences can be controlled by the Group and it is probable that reversal will not occur in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are calculated, without discounting, at tax rates that are expected to apply to their respective period of realisation, provided they are enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

(m) Income taxes (continued)

Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that they will be able to be utilised against future taxable income, based on the Group's forecast of future operating results which is adjusted for significant non-taxable income and expenses and specific limits to the use of any unused tax loss or credit. Deferred tax liabilities are always provided for in full.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset only when the Group has a right and intention to set off current tax assets and liabilities from the same taxation authority.

Changes in deferred tax assets or liabilities are recognised as a component of tax income or expense in profit or loss, except where they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income (such as the revaluation of land) or directly in equity, in which case the related deferred tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or equity, respectively.

(n) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and demand deposits, together with other short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

(o) Equity, reserves and dividend payments

Share capital represents the fair value of shares that have been issued. Any transaction costs associated with the issuing of shares are deducted from share capital, net of any related income tax benefits.

Retained earnings includes all current and prior period retained profits.

Dividend distributions payable to equity shareholders are included in other liabilities when the dividends have been approved in a general meeting prior to the reporting date.

All transactions with owners of the parent are recorded separately within equity.

(p) Employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits, including annual leave entitlement, are current liabilities included in employee benefits, measured at the undiscounted amount that the Group expects to pay as a result of the unused entitlement.

Share-based payments

Share-based compensation benefits are provided to employees via the Group or Shareholders for no cash consideration.

The fair value of shares granted is recognised as an employee benefit expense with a corresponding increase in equity. The fair value is measured at grant date and recognised over the period during which the employees become unconditionally entitled to the shares.

(q) Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provisions for legal disputes, onerous contracts or other claims are recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic resources will be required from the Group and amounts can be estimated reliably. Timing or amount of the outflow may still be uncertain.

Provisions are measured at the estimated expenditure required to settle the present obligation, based on the most reliable evidence available at the reporting date, including the risks and uncertainties associated with the present obligation. Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. Provisions are discounted to their present values, where the time value of money is material.

Any reimbursement that the Group can be virtually certain to collect from a third party with respect to the obligation is recognised as a separate asset. However, this asset may not exceed the amount of the related provision.

In those cases where the possible outflow of economic resources as a result of present obligations is considered improbable or remote, no liability is recognised.

(r) Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST, except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Tax Office. In these circumstances the GST is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of an item of the expense. Receivables and payables in the statement of financial position are shown inclusive of GST.

Cash flows are presented in the statement of cash flows on a gross basis, except for the GST components of investing and financing activities, which are disclosed as operating cash flows.

(s) Going Concern

As a developing business the Group has experienced a loss of $6,060,558. The Group has net working capital of $2,434,624.

The continuing viability of the Group and its ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon the Group being successful in its continuing efforts in accessing additional sources of capital.

In particular significant matters considered by the Directors in determining that it is appropriate for the financial report to be prepared on a going concern basis include:

- The Group's Research and Development tax incentive claim was lodged with AusIndustry on 16 September 2016 for an amount of $1,286,823.
- The Group is currently going through the process of seeking further capital through a listing on the Australian Stock Exchange.

If these matters are not achieved, there may be significant uncertainty as to whether the Group will continue as a going concern and, therefore, whether it will realise its assets and settle its liabilities in the normal course of business and at the amounts stated in the financial report. The Directors believe that the Group will be able to access sufficient sources of funds and, accordingly, have prepared the financial report on a going concern basis.

Accordingly, no adjustments have been made to the financial report relating to the recoverability and classification of the asset carrying amounts or the amount and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Group not continue as a going concern.

(t) Significant management judgement in applying accounting policies and estimation uncertainty

When preparing the financial statements, management undertakes a number of judgments, estimates and assumptions about the recognition and measurement of assets, liabilities, income and expenses.

Significant management judgments

The following are significant management judgements in applying the accounting policies of the Group that have the most significant effect on the financial statements.

Capitalisation of internally developed software platform

Distinguishing the research and development phases of the internally developed software platform and determining whether the recognition requirements for the capitalisation of development costs are met requires judgment. After capitalisation, management monitors whether the recognition requirements continue to be met and whether there are any indicators that capitalised costs may be impaired.

Useful economic life of internally developed software platform

Management reviews its estimate of the useful lives of depreciable assets at each reporting date, based on the expected utility of the assets. Uncertainties in these estimates relate to technical obsolescence that may change the utility of software. During the year management determined that the internally developed Fractional Property software should be depreciated and the useful economic life was assessed as 10 years.

Recognition of deferred tax assets

The extent to which deferred tax assets can be recognised is based on an assessment of the probability of the Group's future taxable income against which the deferred tax assets can be utilised. In addition, significant judgement is required in assessing the impact of any legal or economic limits or uncertainties in various tax jurisdictions. No deferred tax assets were recognized due to uncertainty of recoverability.

The DomaCom Group has made a change to its accounting policy in respect to R&D claims. Under the previous accounting policy any claims submitted to AusIndustry and the ATO would be recognised in full as a tax credit in the period for which the claim was made. Under the revised accounting policy, the claim is offset against eligible capitalised R&D expenditure. To the extent the claim relates to costs that were expensed as they did not meet the capitalisation criteria under AASB 138 Intangible Assets, this amount is recognised as Other Income. The purpose of the change in accounting policy is to match the treatment of the claims with the underlying expenditure. The revised treatment is consistent with best practice and provides a clearer representation of the linked transactions. The change in accounting policy requires the restatement of prior year financial statements as summarised above.

With the change in accounting policy resulting in a deferred tax liability no longer being recognised, an adjustment has also been made to remove the deferred tax asset of $125,585 at 30 June 2015 from the Statement of Financial Position as it is not considered appropriate to recognise this asset in the absence of a corresponding deferred tax liability due to uncertainty of recoverability.

The Director Long Term Incentive Plan and Employee Long Term Incentive Plan (LTIP) was established as a retention strategy and an incentive for staff and directors to continue to work hard for the DomaCom Group. Through obtaining equity, staff are motivated to strive to make the DomaCom Group successful as they will ultimately share in the success.

All Directors (excluding the CEO) and employees who were employed on 14th of December 2015 have been granted performance rights. Mr Naoumidis, who is the key founder of DomaCom and as at the Prospectus Date is its largest shareholder did not participate in the LTIP.

The Performance Rights granted to the non-executive Directors and employees (other than CFO/COO Ross Laidlaw) in December 2015 will vest if the Company lists on the ASX. Vesting gives the holder of a Performance Right the right to convert some or all of their Performance Rights into ordinary shares. Each Performance Right entitles its owner to one ordinary share in the Company on conversion. The performance rights expire on 30 November 2018 and may be exercised at any time after the Company is listed up to that date.

The performance rights under the employee and non-executive director and executive director programs have an exercise price of $nil.

The Performance Rights granted to the Company's Chief Operating Officer, Executive Director Ross Laidlaw, will vest following achievement of each of the following milestones:

- the Company is admitted to the official list of ASX;
- FUM in the DomaCom Fund has reached $100 million; and
- the price at which ordinary shares in the Company have traded has reached $1.00.

The fair value of performance rights granted under the employee and non-executive director program was based on the estimated share price at grant date. The following principal assumptions were used in the valuations:

	Employee & non-executive director program	Executive director program

Risk management objectives and policies

The Group is exposed to various risks in relation to financial instruments. The Group's financial assets and liabilities by category are summarised above. The main types of risks are liquidity risk, credit risk and market risk.

The Company's risk management is coordinated through the Chief Compliance and Risk Officer, in close cooperation with the Board of Directors (the "Board") and the Financial Controller.

Liquidity risk analysis

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group might be unable to meet its obligations. The Group manages its liquidity needs by monitoring forecast cash inflows and outflows due in day-to-day business. Net cash requirements are compared to available cash in order to maintain a cash surplus. Funding for long-term liquidity needs sourced through additional capital raising.

The Group's financial liabilities have contractual maturities (including interest payments where applicable) of less than 6 months.

Credit Risk Analysis

Credit risk is the risk that a counterparty fails to discharge an obligation to the Group. The Group's maximum exposure to credit risk is limited to the carrying amount of financial assets recognised at the reporting date, as summarised in Note 7.

The Group continuously monitors defaults of customers and other counterparties, identified either by individual or group and incorporates this information into its credit risk controls. The Group's policy is to deal only with creditworthy counterparties.

The Group's management considers that all the above financial assets that are not impaired or past due for each of the reporting dates under review are of good credit quality.

In respect of trade and other receivables, the Group is not exposed to any significant credit risk exposure to any single counterparty or any group of counterparties having similar characteristics.

The credit risk for cash and cash equivalents is considered negligible, since the counterparties are reputable banks with high quality external credit ratings.

Market risk analysis

The Group is exposed to market risk through currency and interest rate risk.

Foreign Currency Sensitivity	Note	2016 $	2015 $
SGD
Financial assets		11,837	64,276
Financial liabilities		-	-
Total Exposure		11,837	64,276

The following table illustrates the sensitivity of profit and equity in regards to the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities and the $SGD/$AUD exchange rate 'all other things being equal'. It includes only outstanding foreign currency denominated monetary items and adjusts their translation at the year end for a change in foreign currency rates. It assumes a +/- 10% change of the $SGD/$AUD exchange rate for the year ended at 30 June 2016 (2015: 10%).

If the $SGD had strengthened against the $AUD by 10% (2015: 10%) this would have had the following impact through an increase in the Foreign Currency Translation Reserve:

	2016	2015
Equity	1,187	6,867

Interest Rate Sensitivity

The Company's policy is to minimise interest rate risk exposures. Interest income is earned on deposits held. The rate is reviewed on a regular basis to ensure it remains in line with the expected rate of return. Interest expense incurred on any short term borrowings is assessed to ensure it is in line with market expectations. The Company's policy is not to enter into any long term borrowing.

The following table illustrates the sensitivity of profit and equity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates of +/- 1% (2015: +/- 1%). These changes are considered to be reasonably possible based on observation of current market conditions. The calculations are based on a change in the average market interest rate for each period, and the financial instruments held at each reporting date that are sensitive to changes in interest rates. All other variables are held constant.

DomaCom IPO Third Supplementary Prospectus

Dear Investor

Please find attached the third supplementary prospectus that was lodged with ASIC today. As previously disclosed, we have been asked by the ASX to prepare an Independent Expert Report(IER) which is expected to be completed early next week. At that time, we will issue another Supplementary Prospectus which will include details of this IER along with an update on the business.

The reason why we are required to issue an interim Third Supplementary Prospectus is that we need to refresh the time period allowed for our IPO which we need to do today. This refresh also requires the company to reopen the offer for a period of 30 days which we have done. This has shifted the anticipated listing date which we now expect to be late October however we will update you on this as we continue to progress our listing application.

The IPO has raised approximately $7.35 million and we will recommence the marketing of this IPO during this open period with a view to completing the targeted $10 million raising.

As stated above, we will be providing a detailed update on the business next week and I thank you for your patience.

Best Regards

Arthur Naoumidis | CEO | DomaCom Ltd

DomaCom Limited

Third Supplementary Prospectus

This supplementary prospectus is issued under section 719 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Corporations Act) (Third Supplementary Prospectus) and was lodged by DomaCom Limited ACN 604 384 885 (Company) with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC). This Third Supplementary Prospectus supplements:

- (a) the replacement prospectus dated 8 July 2016 (Replacement Prospectus);
- (b) the first supplementary prospectus dated 2 August 2016; and
- (c) the second supplementary prospectus dated 12 August 2016 (Second Supplementary Prospectus).

This Third Supplementary Prospectus must be read together with the Replacement Prospectus and the other two Supplementary Prospectuses.

As set out below, since the date of the Replacement Prospectus the Company has refined its key business objective and revised its assessment of its "breakeven" level of FUM. Also as set out below, the Company has engaged an independent expert at the request of ASX to prepare a report (IER) on the adequacy of the Company's working capital to achieve its key business objective as now refined. The Company expects that the IER will be finalised early next week and at that time the Company will issue a further supplementary prospectus.

This Third Supplementary Prospectus is dated 23 September 2016 and was lodged with ASIC on that date. Neither ASIC nor ASX takes any responsibility for the contents of this Third Supplementary Prospectus.

Words and expressions defined in the Replacement Prospectus have the same meaning in this Third Supplementary Prospectus.

Reasons for this Third Supplementary Prospectus

The purpose of this Third Supplementary Prospectus is to:

- provide an update on the status of the Offer
- reopen the Offer;
- provide an update on the status of the ASX listing application and the preparation of an independent expert's report;
- inform investors of the refinement of the Company's key business objective and change in its assessment of "breakeven" level of FUM;
- refresh the time period within which the quotation condition should be satisfied; and
- update the table of key dates.

Status of the Offer and Reopening of the Offer to rely on ASIC LI 2016/70

The Offer under the Replacement Prospectus had a minimum subscription of $5,000,000 which was subsequently increased to $6,000,000 under the Second Supplementary Prospectus. The Offer closed on 19 August 2016. As of the date of this Third Supplementary Prospectus, the Company has received 504 Applications totalling approximately $7.35 million of Application Monies (Initial Capital Raising) to satisfy the minimum subscription condition.

For the reasons stated below, the Company is unlikely to comply with all the conditions required to achieve listing under the ASX Listing Rules (Listing Rules) within the statutory period of 3 months from the date of the original prospectus lodged with ASIC on 24 June 2016. Section 723(3) of the Corporations Act requires a person offering securities under a disclosure document which states or implies that the securities are to be quoted on a financial market, to refund any application monies if those securities are not quoted within three (3) months of the date of the disclosure document (Quotation Condition). The strict application of section 723(3) means that the Company must be listed on ASX by 24 September 2016 and if not, the Application Monies should be refunded. Section 723(3) has been, however, modified by ASIC Corporations (Minimum Subscription and Quotation Conditions) Instrument 2016/70 (ASIC LI 2016/70) which allows an issuer of a disclosure document to refresh the relevant statutory time periods (i.e, 3 months) subject to certain conditions being met. The Company intends to rely on ASIC LI 2016/70 to extend the period within which the Quotation Condition is required to be met.

One of the conditions under ASIC LI 2016/70 is to give applicants who have previously submitted an Application Form one (1) month to withdraw their application and be repaid, should they wish to do so. ASIC LI 2016/70 also requires the Offer to remain open until the end of this withdrawal period. In light of these requirements, the Company reopens the Offer to obtain further applications to replace any applications that may be withdrawn and to satisfy the condition to leave the Offer open until the end of the one month withdrawal period. The reopening and closing dates, as well as other updated key dates, are set out below.

Status of the Listing Application with ASX and Independent Expert's Report

As disclosed in the Second Supplementary Prospectus, ASX indicated that it would not accept the minimum subscription amount of $5 million as meeting ASX listing requirements. The Company subsequently increased the minimum subscription to $6 million. Notwithstanding this increased minimum subscription amount and receipt of the Initial Capital Raising, ASX is of the view that the Company may not be in compliance with Listing Rule 1.3.3(a). Listing Rule 1.3.3(a) requires a statement in a disclosure document that "the entity has enough working capital to carry out its stated objectives" and if such a statement is not included, an independent expert's report should be prepared. In order to address ASX's concerns, ASX has requested the Company to engage an independent expert to prepare an independent expert's report (IER). The IER is required to express an opinion, subject only to qualifications acceptable to ASX that, having received the Initial Capital Raising, the Company has enough working capital to achieve its stated objectives.

The Company has accordingly engaged an independent expert to prepare an IER. We expect that the IER will be finalised early next week and at that time the Company will issue a further supplementary prospectus.

Refinement of key business objective and change to "breakeven" level of FUM

The Replacement Prospectus provided information in respect of the projected level of FUM of the DomaCom Fund required to be achieved in order to generate sufficient revenues to support its operating costs. The projected level of required FUM is stated in the Replacement Prospectus to be "at least $600 million to $700 million, depending on the underlying makeup of the assets (property, bonds or cash) and assuming a base level of expenditure" (on page 31 of the Replacement Prospectus).

The Company has considered further the formulation of its key business objective and its core operating level of expenditure required to achieve its stated objective – that objective is now stated to be: "to achieve a sustainable business model and "breakeven" level of FUM within 3 years".

Over this period, in order to seek to achieve this objective the Company will:

- continue to operate its existing product (Fractional Property Investment Product) which (as described in the Replacement Prospectus) facilitates the fractionalisation of property interests; and
- pursue the completion of its DomaCom Corporate Bond and Equity Release products from a development and regulatory perspective.

If the Company has not been successful in achieving budgeted FUM by the end of 2017, the Company will move within a 2-month timeframe to maintaining only the Fractional Property Investment Product and reduce its cost structure in line with running and maintaining only one product – the Company's modelling shows that this "core operating cost" is $2.2 million per annum. If this was to occur, the Company would not look to further commercialise the DomaCom Corporate Bond and Equity Release products until such time as the FUM can support development of these products.

Based on the Company's analysis, total funds under management of $275 million in the DomaCom Fund offering the Fractional Property Investment Product (with core operating costs of $2.2 million per annum), would allow the Company to achieve its stated objective within 3 years, whereby the Company has sufficient FUM to generate sufficient revenues to cover the costs of operating and maintaining the Fractional Property Investment Product.

As a result of these changes to the Company's assessment of required "breakeven" level of FUM and related asset make-up, the references in the Replacement Prospectus to "$600 million to $ 700 million of FUM, depending on the underlying make-up of the assets (property, bonds or cash)" (in particular, on page 10 (in the Letter from the Chairman section); on page 31 (section 6.3.1 Revenues); and on page 37 (section 7.1.3 Failure to increase FUM and revenues)) are to be replaced by "$275 million, offering and operating its single product being the Fractional Property Investment Product"

As noted above, the Company has engaged an independent expert to prepare an IER on the adequacy of the Company's working capital to achieve its key business objective as restated above. The Company expects that the IER will be finalised early next week and at that time the Company will issue a further supplementary prospectus.

Refreshment of Time Period to satisfy the Quotation Condition

As stated above, the Company intends to refresh the time period within which the Quotation Condition must be met in reliance on ASIC LI 2016/70. As a result of this refreshment the Quotation Condition can be met within 3 months from the date of this Third Supplementary Prospectus. In order to rely on ASIC LI 2016/70, the Company is required to disclose the following information under section 724(3H) as notionally inserted by ASIC LI 2016/70:

- the listing application for admission to ASX was made within 7 days after the date of the original prospectus dated 24 June 2016;
- the Shares of the Company have not been admitted to quotation on ASX as at the date of this Third Supplementary Prospectus;
- ASX has indicated that it would not accept the minimum subscription of $6 million as meeting ASX listing requirements and requested that the Company engage an independent expert to prepare an independent expert's report, details of which are summarised above;
- the Quotation Condition must be met by 23 December 2016; and
- 504 Applications have been received as at the date of this Third Supplementary Prospectus.

Any Applicants who have submitted the Applications can withdraw their Applications and have their Application Monies refunded (without interest) if their applications for withdrawal are made within one (1) month of the date of this Third Supplementary Prospectus. If you wish to withdraw your application, you can do so by contacting the Company Secretary on +61 3 8609 7077 or by email at philip.chard@domacom.com.au.

The Offer will remain open until the end of this withdrawal period which is 23 October 2016.

Second Supplementary Prospectus

This document is a supplementary prospectus issued under section 719 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Second Supplementary Prospectus), which supplements the replacement prospectus dated 8 July 2016 (Replacement Prospectus) as modified by the supplementary prospectus dated 2 August 2016 (First Supplementary Prospectus) lodged by DomaCom Limited ACN 604 384 885 (Company) with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC). This Second Supplementary Prospectus must be read together with the Replacement Prospectus and the First Supplementary Prospectus.

The Second Supplementary Prospectus is dated 12 August 2016 and was lodged with ASIC on that date. Neither ASIC nor ASX takes any responsibility for the contents of this Second Supplementary Prospectus.

Words and expressions defined in the Replacement Prospectus have the same meaning in this Second Supplementary Prospectus.

Listing Application with ASX and Corporate Updates

As ASX has indicated that it would not accept the minimum subscription amount of $5 million as meeting ASX listing requirements, the Company has increased the minimum subscription amount to $6 million. The underwriting commitments have also been increased to $6 million so that the minimum subscription amount is fully underwritten.

The increased minimum subscription amount remains subject to ASX approval. If the Shares are not admitted to quotation within three months from the date of the original prospectus (24 June 2016) or any longer period permitted by law, all application monies received will be refunded (without interest).

Since the date of the Replacement Prospectus, the Company has continued to pursue its various initiatives to grow the FUM of the DomaCom Fund. These include discussions with a retail superannuation fund to participate in the Kidman Station crowdfunding campaign and discussions with a national charity organisation to crowdfund the purchase of affordable housing. As previously outlined, there can be no assurance that these initiatives will be completed.

With the increased minimum capital raising and (in the Company's assessment) an improving outlook for significant transactions to grow FUM, the Company's modelling does not show any need to raise further capital within two years from listing. Specifically, the Company confirms that it will have sufficient capital to carry out its stated objectives.

2 LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Dear Investor,

On behalf of the Board, it is with great pleasure that I invite you to consider becoming a shareholder in DomaCom Limited.

What is DomaCom?

DomaCom is at the forefront of change occurring within global financial services coupled with innovations occurring in technology. We are seeing rapid development in new companies like DomaCom using the power of technology to disrupt the traditional methods of delivering financial services.

The DomaCom Group has pioneered, through a combination of a familiar legal structure, business processes and a technology platform, a fractional investment product (the DomaCom Fund) that allows retail investors to obtain access to investments in asset classes, such as (at present) direct property and (subject to regulatory approvals if required) corporate bonds, that are relatively difficult for retail investors to access due to their investment size and/ or illiquidity or are not available for sale to retail investors.

Business model and operations

DomaCom is the parent company of the entities that together make up the DomaCom Group. DomaCom Australia Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of DomaCom, is the Australian Financial Services Licence holder (AFSL holder) and investment manager of the DomaCom Fund, which is the first fractional online crowdfunding investment platform available to retail investors in Australia.

DomaCom Australia, as the investment manager of the DomaCom Fund, derives revenues from the management and platform services that it provides to the DomaCom Fund.

DomaCom Group's core business is the delivery of management and operation of the DomaCom Fund. DomaCom's primary source of competitive advantage is its business model which combines a proprietary online technology platform with a tailored managed investment scheme structure, with benefits for distribution and scalability.

At 31 March 2016, the DomaCom Fund comprised 16 Sub-Funds with a total FUM of $12.4 million. This was comprised of 2 Cash Pools that represented $9.6 million in FUM and earning a management fee of 0.22% p.a. (inclusive of GST) and 14 Property Sub-Funds representing $2.8 million in FUM and earning a management fee of 0.88% p.a. (inclusive of GST). The total revenue generated by these Sub-Funds between 1 July 2015 and 31 March 2016 is $11,016.

DomaCom estimates that in order to achieve a breakeven position the DomaCom Fund is required to achieve at least $600 million to $700 million of FUM, depending on the underlying makeup of the assets (property, bonds or cash) and assuming a base level of expenditure. DomaCom can provide no assurance as to whether (or when) this level of FUM may be achieved.

DomaCom is targeting the growing SMSF market

DomaCom's primary target market for the DomaCom Fund is the Australian Self-Managed Superannuation Fund (SMSF) sector, which has been growing significantly and is now estimated to represent approximately $600 billion in assets (as at 31 December 2015), comprising approximately 29% of total Australian superannuation assets, which have grown to over $2 trillion in assets (as at 31 December 2015 - APRA Quarterly Statistics, 31 December 2015 www.apra.gov.au).

DomaCom believes it is well placed to grow the DomaCom Fund's market share in this sector, as selfmanaged superannuants wish to have control and direction, transparency, simplicity and competitive fee structures in their superannuation arrangements. DomaCom believes that the DomaCom Fund delivers these features to clients of the DomaCom Fund and their advisers.

What is the Offer?

DomaCom is seeking to raise $10,000,000 with a minimum of $5,000,000. A number of Existing Shareholders and new investors have agreed (severally) to underwrite up to the maximum amount of $5 million to raise the minimum subscription amount of $5 million. If one of the Underwriters defaults on its commitment, the minimum subscription will not be met, the Offer will not proceed and all Application Monies will be returned (without interest). Oversubscriptions will be allowed up to a maximum of $23,707,475 (before Offer costs). DomaCom will issue a minimum of 6.67 million and up to 24 million new ordinary Shares and facilitate the sale by Existing Shareholders of 7.6 million Sale Shares at $0.75 cents a Share.

The capital raising and ASX listing will allow DomaCom to:

- increase its marketing efforts into both the intermediary and direct consumer channels for its products;
- support the planned development and launch of new products, such as the DomaCom Equity Release and DomaCom Corporate Bond products;
- improve the financial strength of the DomaCom Group;
- provide a liquid market for DomaCom shares and allow new shareholders to invest in DomaCom;
- assist in retaining and attracting employees to DomaCom; and
- subject to receipt of Applications having an aggregate value of $10 million or greater, provide a mechanism for some Existing Shareholders to realise all or part of their investment.

Current financial position

DomaCom's businesses have been operating at a loss and its revenues are directly connected to the growth of FUM in the DomaCom Fund. DomaCom has historically been reliant on equity raisings and has raised funds through the issue of shares at $0.50 per share with a total of $8 million raised in the nine months until 31 March 2016. If only the minimum amount of the capital raising is achieved (being $5 million), this will curtail the amount of activity DomaCom could undertake in sales and marketing programs to grow FUM and build brand awareness in the direct consumer market. It is likely to lead to the need for a further capital raising after 18 months to meet working capital requirements.

DomaCom is a young and developing company and is still in its early stages of development. This has given rise to the situation where the expenses of establishing and building the business are currently exceeding the revenue. A certain level of expenditure is required to retain key personnel and administer financial products within the financial services industry which is highly regulated. The Offer is undertaken to provide working capital for the company to be able to execute its growth strategy and also to improve the financial strength of the business.

Please read this Prospectus in its entirety

This Prospectus sets out an overview of DomaCom Group's business, the industry in which it operates and market trends impacting that industry. It also sets out financial information about the Group and the key people involved at DomaCom.

This Prospectus also sets out some of the key risks that could impact DomaCom's ability to realise its objectives and achieve financial success. These risks include the potential for it to fail to grow funds under management in the DomaCom Fund, which would result in a reduction in its revenues and have an adverse impact on its financial position. Other risks include the potential for a competitor to duplicate DomaCom's business and technology model, pressure of fees and pricing or the termination of the investment management agreement under which it provides its platform and funds management services to the DomaCom Fund. These risks are summarised in Section 4 in the section entitled "What are the Key Risks" and set out in much more detail in Section 7. I strongly recommend that you read those sections carefully.

Please take the time to read through this document before making your decision to invest. On behalf of the Directors, I look forward to welcoming you as a shareholder of DomaCom.

Yours sincerely

Grahame Evans

Chairman

3 CEO'S LETTER

Dear Investor,

DomaCom began the journey to create what it believes to be one of the world's most innovative asset securitisation platforms – the DomaCom Fund – nearly 5 years ago. Whilst the DomaCom Fund provides a bespoke platform that has the potential to `fractionalise' any asset, the first asset class we chose to focus on was `direct property' (that is, investments in real property selected by the investor).

It is well known that direct property as an asset class provides some key challenges for the investment adviser community. Given the large transaction size in direct property relative to many investor portfolios, and that it is not a regulated financial product, it is often not included in a financial adviser's advice process. By the same token, if advisers do not provide a direct property solution to their clients, then someone else outside the investment adviser community may do so.

The DomaCom Fund

The DomaCom Fund is structured as a combination of a managed fund and an online crowdfunding platform. The underlying managed fund structure of the Fund can best be described as a segregated property trust, where one sub-fund is created for each property crowdfunded by investors. In order to create this structure, DomaCom obtained necessary regulatory relief and a 'make a market' authorisation for the Fund's liquidity functionality. DomaCom provides liquidity functionality by acting as principal buyer and seller of units in the Fund (not as a market operator). However, DomaCom will only enter into a market transaction where there is a corresponding buyer for a sale of units. To date, there have been three buy and sell transactions since November 2014 and the total value of these transactions has been $84,232 (89,239 units in the DomaCom Fund).

Our proprietary cloud-based technology platform includes a number of key innovations such as:

- Book Build functions that enable investors to pool together to acquire any asset this is also known as "crowdfunding";
- Trading screens that allow investors to sell, and DomaCom to purchase, an investor's units in the Fund, which DomaCom will only do if there is a buyer willing to purchase the units at the same price from DomaCom; and
- Intra-day fund registry that underpins the liquidity facility that promotes trading within the DomaCom Fund.

DomaCom Australia, as the investment manager, receives revenues for the provision of management and platform services to the DomaCom Fund.

Key objective and target market

The key objective for us is for the DomaCom Fund to become a preferred solution for independent financial advisers (IFAs) when including direct property within their client's asset allocation strategies. We are particularly targeting the burgeoning SMSF sector within the financial services market for these reasons:

- SMSFs like transparency and control, and the DomaCom Fund through its platform allows SMSFs to choose specific property investments;
- SMSFs like property as evidenced by the growth of limited recourse borrowing arrangements for SMSFs; and
- the SMSF sector is approaching $600 Billion in size.

37 IFA dealer groups, which together represent more than 850 advisers, have included the DomaCom Fund on their approved product list (APL). This is a very pleasing result as this provides DomaCom with access to approximately 5% of the IFA market.

More importantly, over 500 IFAs have also completed or are in the process of completing the DomaCom Fund accreditation course, which is a pre-requisite to IFAs being able to recommend or advise their clients on investment in the DomaCom Fund. These are all great "lead indicators" for the Fund and its opportunities in the year ahead.

The outlook

We believe that the DomaCom Fund is on the cusp of significant growth which should lead to improvement in funds under management. As at the date of this Prospectus, there are 16 sub-funds in the DomaCom Fund (each with an underlying property or deposit for a selected investment) and another 8 Book Builds in progress. We also have another 31 Book Builds for residential properties currently being structured and several $20 million - $100 million development Book Builds being negotiated. These development Book Builds add up to over $200 million in potential FUM and are currently in the process of completing feasibility studies including ascertaining investor interest. At this stage, we have no way of determining the likelihood of success of any of these Book Builds.

Additionally, over the past few months DomaCom has been running a well publicised crowdfunding campaign to acquire the iconic Kidman Station. DomaCom is seeking to raise approximately $210 million to acquire the land assets of Kidman Station and has engaged Lloyds Business Brokers who are seeking to raise the capital to acquire the operating business. This is a very competitive process and there are hurdles to overcome in order to achieve a successful purchase.

In a global context, DomaCom is part of a property crowdfunding phenomenon – a sector showing rapid growth (US$19 million in 2012, US$1 billion in 2014 to an estimated US$2.5 billion of transactions in 2015). To our knowledge, there are now more than 100 property crowdfunding platforms in the UK and US with a number of new entrants now in Australia and DomaCom is the only platform using a registered managed investment scheme legal structure that enables the participation of retail investors to simulate an investment in direct property and (potentially) other asset classes. Additionally, we believe that the DomaCom Fund is the only crowdfunding platform that has a "make a market" authorisation which allows DomaCom to act as principal purchaser and seller of units in the Fund and as a consequence provide potential liquidity to uniholders.

We are now in the process of extending the Fund's legal structure and the platform's functionality to cater for other asset classes, with the next key asset class being corporate bonds. We believe corporate bonds are appropriate for the DomaCom business model as:

- they generally have large minimum transaction size of $500,000; and
- the offer of corporate bonds is often restricted to sophisticated or institutional investors.

In the current low interest rate environment, there is a demand for higher yielding assets and we believe that the successful development and launch of the DomaCom Corporate Bond product currently under development will accelerate the take up of the DomaCom Fund within the investment community.

I look forward to sharing this journey with you.

Arthur Naoumidis

4 INVESTMENT AND BUSINESS OVERVIEW

TOPIC	SUMMARY	FOR MORE INFORMATION
What is DomaCom?	DomaCom is the parent company of the entities that together make up the DomaCom Group.	Section 6
	DomaCom Australia Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of DomaCom, is the Australian Financial Services Licence holder (AFSL holder) and investment manager of the DomaCom Fund, which is the first fractional online crowdfunding investment platform available to retail investors in Australia.
	DomaCom Australia, as the investment manager of the DomaCom Fund, derives revenues from the management and platform services that it provides to the DomaCom Fund.
	DomaCom Group's core business is the delivery of management and operation of the DomaCom Fund. DomaCom's primary source of competitive advantage is its business model which combines a proprietary online technology platform with a tailored managed investment scheme structure, with benefits for distribution and scalability. DomaCom Australia's AFSL also authorises it to 'make a market'. This means that it can provide a liquidity facility which allows holders of fractional property interests to trade their interests. This occurs by DomaCom acting as principal buyer and seller of units in the Fund (not as a market operator). DomaCom can create a market for the trading of units in the Fund by buying units from those unitholders wishing to sell their units and then selling those units to other investors wishing to buy units in the Fund. To date, there have been three buy and sell transactions since November 2014 and the total value of these transactions has been $84,232 (89,239 units in the DomaCom Fund). However, DomaCom will only enter into these transactions if for a sale of units there is a corresponding buyer for those units. Any trade is contingent on there being both a buyer and seller of the same number of units at the same price from whom DomaCom can buy and sell units. Therefore, an investor's ability to trade units in the Fund is reliant on there being sufficient investment and investors to create liquidity.
What Industry does DomaCom operate in?	The DomaCom Group operates in the financial services industry, primarily targeting the Self-Managed Superannuation Fund (SMSF) category.	Section 5.1
What is the market for DomaCom's products?	SMSF is a large and growing sector of the Australian investment market, with total assets of approximately $600 billion in assets and represents the largest single component of the Australian superannuation market, which is now in excess of $2 trillion.	Section 5.2

TOPIC	SUMMARY	FOR MORE INFORMATION
What geographies do we operate in?	The DomaCom Group has offices in Melbourne, Sydney, Adelaide and Singapore. Currently the DomaCom Fund only invests in properties in	Section 6.2
	Australia and accepts investors from Australia and Singapore.
What is the DomaCom Fund?	The DomaCom Fund is a registered managed investment scheme which is designed to simulate investment in direct property. The DomaCom Fund facilitates investment in fractional interests in property, being the underlying property held by a Sub-Fund of the DomaCom Fund. The DomaCom Fund's fractional investment platform breaks down high value, illiquid assets into smaller fractions that are available for retail investment. In this way, it enables SMSFs and other retail investors to access investment opportunities	Section 6.5
	in property (and potentially other asset classes, such as corporate bonds) that otherwise may not be available to them. The DomaCom Fund enables investors and their IFAs entirely online to identify properties, initiate and participate in Book Builds for those properties, deposit and withdraw cash, trade their investments in a market created by DomaCom (subject to there being sufficient investment and investors to create liquidity) and otherwise manage their investments in the DomaCom Fund.
	Any investor in the DomaCom Fund can select a property listed on the DomaCom Platform and initiate a Book Build for the purchase of that property. Provided that sufficient capital is raised and the property is successfully purchased, each investor who invests in that specific property will be issued units in the Sub-Fund which acquires and holds the underlying property.
What is DomaCom's strategy for growth?	 DomaCom's strategy for growth is based on increasing the value of funds under management (FUM) in the DomaCom Fund, which in turn will increase DomaCom Australia's revenue base, through the following growth initiatives: growing the number of IFA dealer groups which include the DomaCom Fund on their approved product lists (APLs), thereby increasing the number of fingnesial advisore 	Section 6.4
	 (APLs), thereby increasing the number of financial advisers who are authorised to recommend and advise on investment in the DomaCom Fund's products; increasing DomaCom Australia's sales and marketing efforts both to intermediaries such as IFAs and directly to retail investors to increase their awareness of the DomaCom brand and the DomaCom Fund and in turn increase the number of retail investors (and value of FUM) and accordingly DomaCom Australia's revenues; identifying exciting and interesting opportunities for the crowdfunding model that allows retail investors to obtain access to assets which might otherwise be outside their reach and lead to an increase in FUM (and accordingly revenues), for example the campaign to crowd fund the acquisition of Kidman Station; continuing to innovate our product offerings by launching new products designed to cater for the needs of SMSF investors and their advisers; continuing to develop and enhance the DomaCom Platform functionality and provide tools that assist IFAs to provide efficient, transparent and cost effective services to their clients; creating opportunities for IFAs to benefit from the growth of the DomaCom Fund and in particular the public crowdfunding opportunities; and obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals under the laws of Singapore, to enable offering investments in the DomaCom Fund is only available for investment to Singapore's equivalent of wholesale investors).

What is the key product offered on the DomaCom Fund?	There is currently one product available for investment, the DomaCom Fractional Property Investment – a product designed for the investment market which allows retail investors to select and invest in fractions of specific properties online without having to purchase the whole property themselves.	Section 6.5
What products does DomaCom currently have in development?	Other products currently under development (expected to be launched in the 2017 Financial Year) include the DomaCom Corporate Bonds Product and DomaCom Equity Release Product (subject to regulatory approval if required). DomaCom currently operates with a restricted ASIC relief instrument and there is no guarantee that DomaCom will be granted regulatory approval by ASIC to launch these products, or granted regulatory approval on terms satisfactory to DomaCom. DomaCom expects over time (subject to regulatory approvals if required) to be able to fractionalise other asset classes in addition to property and bonds, for example collectables, precious metals (gold, platinum etc.) and even crowdfund new business ventures, thereby further expanding the product base and diversifying DomaCom's revenue streams. However, at this time, no such future developments have commenced.	Section 6.5.2 and Section 6.5.3

Who are DomaCom's customers?	DomaCom's customers are primarily retail investors, the trustees of SMSFs and the IFAs and accountants who advise them.	Section 6.6
Why will investors and their advisers select DomaCom's products?	In DomaCom's experience, investors generally, and SMSF investors in particular, seek to build their investment portfolios around asset classes (targeting specific percentages in a range of classes/sub-classes with a view to achieving diversification and minimising risk). DomaCom believes that property and corporate bonds are key asset classes which provide opportunities for fractional ownership by retail investors utilizing the DomaCom Fund.	Section 6.5 and Section 6.6
How do we generate revenue and what are our key expenses?	DomaCom Australia is the investment manager of the omaCom Fund which is operated through the DomaCom Platform developed by the DomaCom Group. For providing the DomaCom Platform and the administrative and management support required to manage the DomaCom Fund, DomaCom Australia receives a management fee based on the value of the Fund's underlying assets. To invest in the DomaCom Fund, an investor must first complete an application form and place a cash investment in the Fund. The investor can then place bids against properties. If the property is successfully acquired by the DomaCom Fund, the investor receives units in relation to that Sub-Fund in proportion to the amount of its investment relative to other investors. For example if the investor contributes 10% of the amount required to acquire the property, they will hold 10% of the units of that specific Sub-Fund. DomaCom Australia receives a fee of 0.20% plus GST (0.22% p.a.) on the value of investments held in the Cash Pool and when the money is transferred into a property Sub-Fund, the management fee is 80 basis points, plus GST (0.88% p.a.). DomaCom Group's primary costs are employee expenses and costs of product development. Other expenses include office premises, marketing, information technology costs including costs relating to cloud based storage, professional fees and general administration. As at 31 March 2016, DomaCom employed 26 staff and employee related expenses represented 54% of total operating costs.	Section 6.3 and Section 8.5

	Following the Offer, DomaCom will have sufficient working capital to meet its stated objectives. Working capital is required to fund the ongoing operational costs and employee expenses to retain key personnel in sales, marketing and technology to the extent these costs exceed the revenue set out in Section 8.4.
	Additional funds raised beyond the minimum subscription will increase the final strength and stability of the business which enhances the ability of the business to win more sales distributions and grow the business revenues.
When will I receive dividends?	The Directors intend to use DomaCom's cash reserves and any surplus cash flow to fund the business, rather than distributing these funds as dividends. The Directors can give no assurance as to the amount, timing, franking or payment of any future dividends by DomaCom.	Section 11.2
What are the Key Risks?	 There are risks associated with an investment in DomaCom. Some are specific to DomaCom and others are general risks that are associated with investments generally. The specific risks include risks associated with: failing to attract customers and grow assets under management efficiently enough to become profitable; failing to increase FUM and revenue which may result in the need for a further capital raising after 18 months as DomaCom has been operating at a loss and a significant portion of the funds raised under the Offer will be allocated to working capital; having only one product in the market place and deriving revenue from this product only; the DomaCom Fund not being included in the approved product lists of IFAs; competition – in particular the risk that competitors duplicate our asset fractionalisation technology and our legal structure, which provide our competitive advantage; pressure on fees and pricing which could result in reduced margins and profitability; the termination of the investment management agreement which would result in DomaCom Australia being replaced as the investment manager of the DomaCom Fund in circumstance where the investment management agreement agreement is DomaCom's only source of revenue; 	Section 7

What is the current status of the DomaCom fund?	At 31 March 2016, the DomaCom Fund comprised 16 Sub- Funds with a total FUM of $12.4 million. There are currently 37 active Book Builds taking place on the platform at various stages. Of those 9 have reached the stage where investors have committed funds to undertaking due diligence. If those 9 are all successful, then the FUM will increase by approximately $2.5 million. There are currently a number of large crowdfunding campaigns taking place, for example, the campaign to Crowdfund the acquisition of the land assets comprising the Kidman Station (being undertaken in collaboration with another group who are seeking to raise capital to fund the purchase of the operating business). At this stage, the DomaCom Group has no way of determining the likelihood of success of that, or any other, book build or campaign.	Section 8.4

The proceeds of the Offer will be applied to: provide further capital for the business to fund further growth of the DomaCom Fund and significantly increase its funds under management, which it in turn generates revenue for DomaCom in the form of management fees; allow DomaCom the ability to increase its sales and marketing efforts into both the intermediary and direct consumer channels for its products; support the launch and development of the DomaCom Equity Release and Corporate Bond products; continue to develop and enhance the Platform functionality and provide tools that assist intermediaries to provide efficient, transparent and cost effective services to their clients; improve the financial strength of the Company, in turn increasing the confidence of intermediaries in DomaCom's products and longevity; and subject to Applications having an aggregate value of $10 million or greater, provide a mechanism for Selling Shareholders to realise all or a portion of their investment. All of the proceeds received by SellerCo Limited for the sale of the Sale Shares less brokerage will be paid to Selling Shareholders. If only the minimum amount of the capital raising is achieved (being $5 million), this will curtail the amount of activity DomaCom could undertake in sales and marketing programs to grow FUM and building brand awareness in the direct consumer market. It is likely to lead to the need for a further capital raising after 18 months to meet working capital requirements. 	Section 11.2

5 INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

5.1 Trends influencing DomaCom's market entry

The DomaCom Group has identified a number of emerging trends within the financial services industry generally (and the superannuation industry in particular) and the convergence with developments occurring in the technological space. DomaCom has developed the DomaCom Fund in response to those trends.

Each of the following trends are described in more detail below:

- SMSFs are a growing and significant component of the superannuation market and will continue to grow as more Australians look to take responsibility for their own retirement savings (See Section 5.2).
- Financial services disruption and the continued growth of digital technology, including the development of cloud computing and digitalisation of the real estate industry, has allowed DomaCom to deliver its services efficiently, securely and totally online. (See section 5.3).
- There is an increasing appetite for SMSF and other investors to utilise the internet to buy and transact financial services due to its ease of use. (See section 5.3).
- Growth and expansion in crowdfunding and in particular property crowdfunding provides opportunities for innovative offerings. (See section 5.3).
- Innovative products available to the retail market to offer further choice and diversification in the current low interest rate environment. (See Section 5.4).
- Australia's ageing population and their retirement options are issues at front of mind for many Australians and their financial advisers (See section 5.5).
- Recent regulatory reforms reflect a greater appetite for the use of "fee for service" advisers rather than "commission based" advisers (See Section 5.6).

5.2 Growth in Superannuation market and the dynamics of SMSF market in particular

5.2.1 Size of the market

Funds under management in Australian superannuation funds as at 31 December 2015 represented over $2 trillion in assets. The market has continued to grow since 1992 when compulsory superannuation was first introduced. The government-imposed mandatory contributions as a proportion of each individual's total salary package or wage have progressively increased over time. The mandatory contribution rate at the inception of the system was 3% and it was raised most recently to 9.5% from 9.25% on 1 July 2014. This rate is expected to increase to 12% over the next decade.¹

5.2.2 Sectors of the superannuation market

The Superannuation market can be further broken down into its various sectors. The SMSF sector is the largest sector of the superannuation market, representing approximately $600 billion as at 31 December 2015. There are now more than one million Australians who have superannuation in SMSF and FUM held in SMSF represents 29% of the total assets held in superannuation as at 30 June 2015. The retail and industry fund sectors represent 26% and 21% respectively, followed by the public, corporate and statutory fund sectors. As at July 2015, the average value of funds invested in SMSF was estimated to be in the order of $1million with the median assets held in SMSF being just over $600,000.

5.2.3 Continued Growth in SMSF

We believe that SMSFs will continue to grow both in number and FUM. Key reasons for our view are as follows:

- Control and direction individuals can control their retirement savings within an SMSF and direct the funds to investments of their choice;
- Transparency individuals are able to see and control all transactions, including the impact of taxation such as franking credits and capital gains tax;
- Fees many individuals believe the fund management costs for externally managed funds are too high;
- Ability to impact and control investment performance many individuals believe that SMSF's give them more control over investment decisions that suit their personal objectives and often at a lower cost;
- Retirement and Estate planning SMSFs allow flexibility for individuals to move from accumulation phase to the pension phase relatively easily and to establish appropriate estate planning mechanisms to transfer wealth to the next generation.

Deloitte Actuaries & Consultants Limited in its research paper "Dynamics of the Australian Superannuation System The next 20 years: 2015-2035" published in November 2015 show in base projections from their superannuation model that total superannuation assets in Australia are expected to increase steadily to $9.5 trillion by 2035. They believe the industry will be dominated by the SMSF, retail and Industry sectors, with the SMSF sector to exceed $2.5 trillion in assets by 2035.

5.3 Financial Services disruption, cloud computing and crowdfunding

5.3.1 Digital disruption / FinTech

Like many industries, the financial services industry is seeing a rapid increase in the numbers of internet savvy investors willing to transact and obtain reports using smart phones, tablets and personal computers.

Within the financial services industry, we are seeing rapid development in new companies using the power of technology looking to disrupt the traditional methods of delivering financial services. This can be seen in the development of 'robo advice', 'peer to peer' lending, cloud computing and crowdfunding. These kinds of advances and disruptive business models are often loosely grouped together and referred to as 'Fintech'.

5.3.2 Cloud computing

Cloud computing allows individuals and organisations to store their data in offsite data centres supported by multiple redundancy and security systems rather than on their own desktops or servers located in the office environment.

DomaCom has been able to leverage this new technology with the significant growth in availability, reliability and security that cloud based infrastructure provides without the burden and cost of integrating legacy systems.

5.3.3 Crowdfunding

In the real estate industry new and disruptive digital technologies and business models have resulted in the creation of crowdfunding businesses.

Property crowdfunding is the process of multiple investors coming together to buy a property. Investors receive their returns through monthly rental income and movement in property prices. The properties are typically residential but can also be commercial, retail and agricultural.

Property crowdfunding falls within the wider 'Fintech' trend of using technology to simplify and streamline various financial payments and investment activities such as a property investment. Digital technology allows efficient delivery of information, provides scalability by allowing investors all over the world to be connected, and provides convenience as all financial, legal and administrative processes are delivered on a platform that can be accessed across any smart phone, tablet or other digital device.

Global Overview

Over the last few years there has been a growth in crowdfunding globally and in particular property crowdfunding platforms. In the US alone, there are over 100 providers, including companies such as RealtyMogul.com and FundRise.com. A similar development has occurred in the UK, where property crowdfunding firms include Property Partner, Property Crowd, Crowd Property, House Crowd and Property Moose.

Australian property crowdfunders

Property crowdfunding has also developed in Australia within the last few years and a number of companies operate in this area in addition to DomaCom. These include Venture Property Crowd (venturepropertycrowd.com.au) which offers wholesale investors a chance to invest in residential properties, CrowdfundUP (crowdfundup.com) which allows investors to invest in a range of commercial properties and projects and BrickX (brickx.com) which is focused on residential investments.

5.4 Appetite for new products in the retail market which offer further choice and diversification in a low interest rate environment

Australia, like the rest of the world, has historically low interest rates with the expectation that interest rates will remain low for some time. This has resulted in a search for access to fixed interest products offering a better rate than that available with bank deposits.

Consequently, there has been a shift of interest into corporate bonds so that investors can obtain better returns on their cash. This asset class is still considered a defensive asset class but is well suited for SMSFs who are looking for better yields than cash but without taking on the additional risk of equities. The corporate bonds are independently rated based on the quality of the issuer of the bond.

The DomaCom Corporate Bond product is currently under development in response to these factors and, subject to regulatory approvals and other factors, is expected to be launched during FY2017.

5.5 Ageing Society and the risk of outliving savings

As with most developed countries, Australia's population is ageing as a result of sustained low fertility and increasing life expectancy. This has resulted in proportionally fewer children under 15 years of age in the population, and a proportionally larger increase in those aged 65 and over and 85 and over respectively.

ABS statistics show that over the 20 years between 1994 and 2014, the proportion of the population aged 65 years and over increased from 11.8% to 14.7%². This proportion is projected to grow over the next decade, as further cohorts of baby boomers turn 65. By 2061, it is predicted that 25% of Australia's population will be aged over 65. Over the same 20 year period, the number of persons aged 85 years and over increased by 153%, compared with a total population growth of 32%. In the year ending 30 June 2014, the number of people aged 85 years and over increased by 19,200 people (4.4%) to reach 456,500.

The ageing of the population and the growth in the size of the cohort over 65 years of age has significant issues for retirement planning, in particular:

- Concerns about the adequacy of housing for the elderly;
- The risk of Australians outliving their retirement savings;
- Concerns about the extent to which financial requirements impact an elderly person's ability to choose whether to remain in the family home or move to aged care; and
- Levels and quality of health and other support services.

DomaCom believes that there is opportunity for it to lead the innovation required in product development for the retiree market to assist retirees to sustain quality of life in their final years. For this reason, DomaCom is in the process of developing the DomaCom Equity Release product, which is designed to enable retirees to draw on the equity in their homes while continuing to live there (for more information refer to section 6.5.3).

5.6 Regulatory reform (FOFA)

The implementation of the Future of Financial Advice reforms (also known as FOFA) in 2012 has resulted in significant changes in the ways in which Australian financial advisers can receive remuneration, in turn leading to an increase in the proportion of "fee for service" advisers. This is expected to drive more investors towards an asset allocation framework (and away from commission based product recommendations). The DomaCom Fund features have been developed from an asset allocation and risk mitigation mindset and DomaCom believes are therefore favourably placed in the new FOFA environment.

6 COMPANY OVERVIEW

6.1 About DomaCom

DomaCom has developed what it believes to be the first registered managed investment scheme in Australia offering a fractional investment product through a bespoke online platform. The DomaCom Fund currently provides Fractional Property Interests in real property. Its objective is to further develop this model so that additional asset classes may be fractionalised and offered to retail and SMSF investors (for more information see Section 6.5).

DomaCom Australia as the investment manager of the DomaCom Fund, derives an investment management fee based on the value of the assets held by the DomaCom Fund. This is the DomaCom Group's primary source of revenue.

6.2 Where does DomaCom operate?

The DomaCom Group has offices in Melbourne, Sydney, Adelaide and Singapore. Currently, the DomaCom Fund only invests in properties in Australia and markets to investors in Australia and Singapore.

The DomaCom Group believes that its platform has potential applications in other jurisdictions where collective investment schemes are available to retail investors and accordingly there is potential for further growth internationally. However, at this time, there are no developed plans for international expansion.

6.3 Our Business model

6.3.1 Revenues

The DomaCom Group's business model derives revenue for the services it provides to the DomaCom Fund. The fee it receives is based on the value of the underlying assets held within the DomaCom Fund. By growing FUM in the DomaCom Fund, DomaCom will grow its revenues.

To invest in the DomaCom Fund, an investor must first complete an application form and place a cash investment in the Fund. The investor can then place bids against properties. If the property is successfully acquired by the DomaCom fund, the investor receives units in relation to that Sub-Fund in proportion to the amount of its investment relative to other investors. For example if the investor contributes 10% of the amount required to acquire the property, they will hold 10% of the units of that specific Sub-Fund.

At 31 March 2016, the DomaCom Fund comprised 16 Sub-Funds with a total FUM of $12.4 million. This was comprised of 2 Cash Pools that represented $9.6 million in FUM and earning a management fee of 0.22% p.a. (inclusive of GST) and 14 Property Sub-Funds representing $2.8 million in FUM and earning a management fee of 0.88% p.a. (inclusive of GST).

DomaCom estimates that in order to achieve a breakeven position the DomaCom Fund is required to achieve at least $600 million to $700 million of FUM, depending on the underlying makeup of the assets (property, bonds or cash) and assuming a base level of expenditure. DomaCom can provide no assurance as to whether (or when) this level of FUM may be achieved.

6.3.2 Structure of the DomaCom Fund provides efficiency, scalability and a market leading proposition

We believe that there is currently nothing else available in the Australian market that enables investors to acquire fractional ownership of a specific property interest using a retail managed fund legal framework combined with an online and scalable platform. The current alternatives involve the creation of one-off property syndicates or unregistered trusts which come with a number of practical drawbacks such as high set up costs, no liquidity measures, difficulty in finding syndicate members and inability to access the financial planning distribution channel.

The DomaCom Fund structure is unique, as it combines a well understood legal structure that IFAs are able to advise on, with a proprietary technology platform.

In summary, the DomaCom Fund structure involves:

- Separating the ownership of the asset (real property) and the beneficial rights to ownership of income and capital growth (or losses) attributable to that property (which we refer to as the Fractional Property Interests);
- A legal structure that enables efficient fractionalisation of the property Interests. The structure provides for the income and capital rights in each Property acquired by the Fund to be owned by the investors of a distinct Sub-Fund within the DomaCom Fund. Each investor will hold separate classes of units in one or more Sub-Funds (each separate class of units is unique to a particular Sub-Fund and a particular Property) and the combination of the Sub-Funds and the cash pool together comprise the DomaCom Fund. Investors receive the specific returns from the Sub-Funds (and specific Properties) they have invested in and not a blended return from all Sub-Funds (and all Properties);
- DomaCom Australia has a "make a market" authorisation, allowing for the provision of a liquidity facility to the DomaCom Fund. This allows investors to trade their fractional interests. This occurs by DomaCom acting as principal buyer and seller of units in the Fund (not as a market operator). DomaCom can create a market for the trading of units in the Fund by buying units from those unitholders wishing to sell their units and then selling those units to other investors wishing to buy units in the Fund. However, DomaCom will only enter into these transactions if for a sale of units there is a corresponding buyer for those units. Any trade is contingent on there being both a buyer and seller of the same number of units at the same price from whom DomaCom can buy and sell units. Therefore, an investor's ability to trade units in the Fund is reliant on there being sufficient investment and investors to create liquidity. To date, there have been three buy and sell transactions since November 2014 and the total value of these transactions has been $84,232 (89,239 units in the DomaCom Fund).
- DomaCom Australia's online platform supports property listing management, a liquidity facility which facilitates trading, unit registry and Book Build processing for existing properties and proposed developments.
- An unlimited number of Sub-Funds or separate unit classes (each representing a separate Property) can be created within the DomaCom Fund. This, combined with the platform technology, results in the DomaCom Fund being potentially highly scalable.

6.4 Our Business strategy

The DomaCom Group's core strategy is built on developing and implementing innovative products. This strategy is executed through the DomaCom Fund and the activities of DomaCom Australia as the investment manager of the DomaCom Fund.

Our key strategy has been to identify specific problem areas for SMSF investors and their advisers and, using a combination of technology, business processes and legal structures, to provide innovative and useful ways of addressing those problems.

Fundamentally, the DomaCom Fund creates a mechanism whereby a high value asset (currently real property) can be fractionalised and invested in by numerous investors, thereby creating an opportunity for Australian retail investors.

Fractionalisation of assets also provides an opportunity to increase the liquidity of an investment that previously may have been characterised by low liquidity.

6.4.1 Strategies for growth

Our growth strategy is based on the following components:

- growing the number of APLs on which our products are listed, thereby increasing the number of IFAs who are authorised to recommend and advise on those products;
- increasing DomaCom Australia's sales and marketing efforts to increase awareness of the DomaCom brand and the DomaCom Fund and in turn increase number of retail investors (and value of FUM and accordingly revenues) through both intermediated and direct channels;
- continuing to innovate our product offerings by launching products designed to cater for the needs of SMSF investors and their advisers (see section 6.5);
- continuing to develop and enhance the Platform functionality and provide tools that assist IFAs to provide efficient, transparent and cost effective services to their clients so that ours is the platform of choice;

- continuing to offer Crowdfunding opportunities, an example of this is the crowdfunding opportunity that we are currently undertaking with the Kidman Station. We are giving investors the opportunity to acquire a fractional interest in one of the largest private agricultural landholdings with 101,411 square km of prime pastoral land across 12 properties, as well as a head office located in North Adelaide. The land is used for 10 cattle stations, a bull breeding stud farm and a feedlot covering regional South Australia, Western Australia, Northern Territory and Queensland. This campaign is being conducted in partnership with Lloyd Business Brokers which is seeking to raise the capital required to acquire the Kidman Station operating business and accordingly provide a yield to investors holding a fractional interest in the land. At this stage, we have no way of determining the likelihood of success of this campaign;
- creating opportunities for IFAs to benefit from the growth of the DomaCom Fund and in particular the public Crowdfunding opportunities;
- obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals under the laws of Singapore to expand our marketing there to include marketing investments in the DomaCom Fund to retail investors in Singapore (as we currently are only able to offer investments in the DomaCom Fund to Singapore's equivalent of wholesale investors); and
- exploring global opportunities to licence the DomaCom Platform in international markets. However, it is likely that this strategy will only be implemented if more than $10 million is raised under the Offer.

6.4.2 Growing intermediary network

In order to grow the number of Platform users and the value of FUM, DomaCom Australia has concentrated its sales and marketing efforts on growing the number of IFAs that can use the product.

This has involved seeking and obtaining independent research reports required by Dealer Groups before products can be listed on Dealer Group APLs, as well as creating a sales and marketing team well connected within the financial planning community.

As at 31 March 2016, 37 financial planning Dealer Groups have included the DomaCom Fund on their APL. Together, these firms represent more than 850 Financial Advisers or approximately 5% of the Australian financial planning market.

Investors who do not wish to seek full service advice from an IFA may also invest directly into the DomaCom Fund.

6.4.3 The business model and product offering have been built in response to FOFA changes

The Corporation Amendment (Future of Financial Advice) Act 2012 ("FOFA") and The Corporations Amendment (Further Future Financial Advice Measures) Act 2012 reforms required all Financial Advisers in Australia to cease accepting product commissions and rebates. These changes are aimed at transforming Australia's Financial Planning industry away from commission based sales to a fee for service based model.

The DomaCom Group believes these changes will drive an increase in the use of asset allocation models by Financial Planners which will in turn further drive a demand into the direct property asset class.

The DomaCom Group's business model, which simulates a direct investment in real property but does so utilising a registered managed investment scheme structure, provides an opportunity for Financial Planners to continue to advise their clients across all asset classes to which they are exposed without requiring the investor to 'give up' the ability to select the underlying investment property.

6.5 Our Products

6.5.1 Current Product -DomaCom Fractional Property Investment

The DomaCom Fund's initial offering allows investors the opportunity to build a property investment portfolio across a diverse range of residential, commercial and agricultural properties by geographic region (suburb, city, region and state), providing both a potential net income yield and possibility for capital growth.

Participating investors are exposed to an income stream and capital growth (or loss) of the underlying properties in direct proportion to the fractional interest purchased. For example, if an investor acquires 10% of the units in a Sub-Fund which is linked to a specific property investment, they will receive 10% of the net income yield and exposure to 10% of the capital value of that property.

6.5.2 Product in development - DomaCom Corporate Bonds

This product is designed to allow investors an opportunity to build a corporate bond investment portfolio that incorporates a diverse range of corporate bonds providing them with access to risk weighted interest rates. In this way, investors can construct a bond portfolio that gives them the more attractive yields whilst still managing their investment risk through diversification. Currently, retail investors are restricted to either ASX listed corporate bonds or to corporate bonds that have a retail prospectus. The majority of corporate bonds are not retail offerings and are not listed on the ASX which means that retail investors do not have access to much of the corporate bond market other than investing in exchange traded funds or investment funds which invest in wholesale corporate bonds.

The DomaCom Fund's structure will enable corporate bonds not otherwise available for investment by retail investors to be fractionalised and invested in by members of the DomaCom Fund. DomaCom also proposes to enable investors to select underlying assets and to provide a liquidity facility through which those fractional interests will be able to be traded between members of the DomaCom Fund (subject to there being sufficient investment and investors in the Fund to create liquidity - see 6.3.2 for further information on how this works).

The offering is expected to increase the value of assets in the DomaCom Fund and accordingly revenues that will be derived by DomaCom Australia for its services to the DomaCom Fund. It is intended that some of the proceeds of this capital raising will be used to fund the technology and legal development required to modify the DomaCom Platform and Fund to support the offering of corporate bonds in addition to our existing offer of properties.

6.5.3 Product in development - DomaCom Equity Release

It is estimated that $500 billion of home equity is held by Australians over the age of 65, with the total reverse mortgage loan book worth more than $3.66 billion at the end of 2014. This demonstrates that there is a significant market for products that allow older Australians to utilise their property assets, only a very small proportion of which is currently subject to reverse mortgage products.

The DomaCom Group is currently developing the DomaCom Equity Release product that will enable those who are seeking to obtain cash by releasing equity in their homes to be matched with investors who wish to make investments that are underpinned by those properties. If the DomaCom Equity Release product is approved and launched, it will provide an attractive solution to `asset rich/cash poor' retirees who may otherwise have difficulty funding their retirements whilst continuing to live in their own homes.

DomaCom is currently subject to a restricted ASIC relief instrument. DomaCom is in discussions with ASIC to extend its current regulatory relief to enable the launch of the DomaCom Equity Release Product. There is no guarantee that DomaCom will be granted the extension by ASIC to launch this product, or granted regulatory approval on terms satisfactory to DomaCom. The launch of this product is also subject to any additional Platform technology elements that may be required.

6.6 Our Customers

6.6.1 The DomaCom Group

DomaCom Australia derives revenues based on the FUM in the DomaCom Fund. Accordingly, the DomaCom Fund is regarded as DomaCom Australia's 'customer'. DomaCom Australia delivers platform and fund management services to the Fund's responsible entity and custodian.

DomaCom's revenues will increase in direct proportion to the value of FUM in the DomaCom Fund.

6.6.2 The DomaCom Fund

The DomaCom Fund's customers are retail investors who are introduced to the DomaCom Fund via DomaCom Australia's primary distribution channel which is through intermediaries - IFAs and accountants.

The DomaCom Fund also offers a range of crowdfunding opportunities to retail investors directly, such as the Kidman Station campaign.

6.7 Our Service Providers

The DomaCom Group has outsourced a number of functions to key service providers in order to ensure an efficient and compliant administration of the DomaCom Fund within a registered scheme environment.

- Perpetual Trust Services Limited ABN 48 000 142 049 and Perpetual Corporate Trust Limited ABN 42 000 001 007 act as the Responsible Entity (RE) and Custodian respectively for the DomaCom Fund. Perpetual is one of Australia's largest professional Responsible Entities and custodians and is an ASX listed company with capitalisation of around $1.95 billion.
- Fund BPO Pty Ltd ABN 81 118 902 891 a wholly owned subsidiary of the ASX listed company MainstreamBPO Limited provides the Fund Accounting and Unit Registry services for the Fund. Mainstream Group has seen exceptional growth over the last 10 years providing fund and superannuation administration services for a diverse client base of over 350 funds with in excess of $US 50 billion in funds under administration and was listed on the ASX in late 2015.
- Australia and New Zealand Banking Group ABN 11 005 357 522 (ANZ Bank) provides the DomaCom Fund cash account that gives investors an attractive return. ANZ Bank is also the banker for the DomaCom Group.

7 KEY RISKS

This Section describes some of the potential risks associated with the business undertakings of the DomaCom Group, the industries in which it operates and an investment in the Shares. Some risks are specific to DomaCom Group's business activities, while others are more general in nature.

This Section does not purport to list every risk that may be associated with the DomaCom Group or an investment in the Shares. The occurrence or consequence of some of the risks described in this Section is partially or completely outside the control of DomaCom, its Directors and senior management.

Prior to applying for Shares, investors should read this Prospectus carefully and in full and satisfy themselves that they have a sufficient understanding of the risks associated with DomaCom and an investment in the Shares before deciding whether the Shares are a suitable investment for them, having regard to their own investment objectives, financial circumstances and taxation position. If investors are unclear in relation to any matter associated with an investment in DomaCom, they should seek professional advice from their stockbroker, solicitor, accountant, financial adviser or other independent professional adviser before deciding whether to invest in DomaCom.

7.1 Risks specific to investing in DomaCom

7.1.1 Failure to attract customers and grow assets under management

DomaCom is dependent on growing its customer base, increasing the number and value of properties in the DomaCom Fund and in turn the assets under management based on which it derives a management fee in order to more than offset its running expenses. Failure to attract customers and grow funds under management will negatively impact the DomaCom Group's financial position and prospects.

Failure to attract customers to the DomaCom Fund may also impact the liquidity facility for which DomaCom Australia acts as the principal buyer and seller of units in the Fund. DomaCom's ability to buy and sell units in the Fund may depend on there being sufficient investment and investors to create liquidity. Failure to attract customers could have a negative impact on the ability of investors to trade Fractional Property Interests or the price achieved. The reputational consequences of this could negatively impact DomaCom Fund's growth and accordingly DomaCom Australia's revenues and financial position.

We are working with 37 Dealer Groups, representing more than 850 Financial Advisers. Over 350 Financial Advisers have been accredited by DomaCom in fractional property investing as at 31 March 2016 and at that date DomaCom Australia had FUM of $12.4 million. Revenue generated from the FUM is currently small and DomaCom needs to grow its FUM significantly to generate sufficient revenue to cover its cost base.

7.1.2 Failure to increase FUM and revenues

DomaCom has been operating at a loss and a significant portion of the funds raised under the Offer will be allocated to working capital. If DomaCom fails to grow FUM in the DomaCom Fund it will result in failing to increase its revenues and lead to the need for a further capital raising after 18 months.

DomaCom estimates that in order to achieve a breakeven position the DomaCom Fund is required to achieve at least $600 million to $700 million of FUM, depending on the underlying makeup of the assets (property, bonds or cash) and assuming a base level of expenditure. DomaCom can provide no assurance as to whether (or when) this level of FUM may be achieved.

7.1.3 Risk of having one product in the market place

DomaCom currently has only one product available in the market place, the DomaCom Fractional Property Investment. Therefore DomaCom's revenue is currently dependent upon the growth in FUM of this product and revenue that is derived from this product alone.

Although it is our intention to develop other products such as the DomaCom Corporate Bond product and DomaCom Equity Release product, there is no certainty as to when DomaCom will offer these new products.

7.1.4 Risk of DomaCom Fund not being included in the approved product list of IFAs

The DomaCom Fund is currently included in the approved product list of 37 IFA dealer groups. There is a risk that the DomaCom Fund may not remain on these lists or may not be added to any other approval product lists. This may have a negative impact of the growth of FUM.

7.1.5 Competition

While DomaCom Australia believes it is the first to operate a fractional investment platform in the form of a registered managed investment scheme in Australia, there is a risk that existing financial service providers or new players enter this market or duplicate DomaCom's technology and business model.

The key industries in which the DomaCom Group operates are all competitive markets which are expected to remain competitive. Examples of factors that may impact on DomaCom Group's competitive position include:

- level of innovation relative to that of competitors;
- commercial factors, including pricing and liability terms;
- ability to keep up with technological or regulatory change;
- ability to respond to client preferences for products and services; and
- ability to maintain strong relationships with existing clients by upholding the consistency and quality of its services.

In addition, the DomaCom Group needs to respond effectively to any changes in the competitive landscape, which may evolve as a result of a number of factors, including the entry of new competitors into the market and the consolidation of existing market participants.

Increased competition may adversely affect DomaCom's business, financial performance and financial condition. Increased competition may also result in pressure on the management fees charged by DomaCom Australia.

7.1.6 Termination of the Investment Management Agreement

DomaCom Australia is the investment manager appointed by the Responsible Entity of the DomaCom Fund under the Investment Management Agreement dated 4th February 2014. If the Responsible Entity as trustee of the DomaCom Fund terminates the Investment Management Agreement, DomaCom Australia would lose its primary source of income.

7.1.7 Reliance on platform technology

The DomaCom Fund relies on an online technology solution which is delivered by the DomaCom Platform to facilitate the application process, the on boarding of clients and properties and regular reporting.

ACN: 604384885

There is a risk of cyber-attacks which could lead to loss, theft or corruption of data. This could render the Platform unavailable for a period of time and the unauthorised disclosure of client data.

There is a risk of disruption of Platform services due to:

- an inability of the system to handle an increase in capacity of clients and transactions or errors or omissions that may occur in performing certain tasks and transactions; and
- a force majeure event that affects the systems and in turn the clients of or suppliers to DomaCom.

7.1.8 Reliance on third party suppliers

IT Suppliers

The DomaCom Group relies on certain contracts with third party suppliers to maintain and support its IT infrastructure and software, which underpins its core business activities. DomaCom's reliance on third parties to provide key services decreases its control over the delivery of these services and the quality and reliability of the services provided. DomaCom is also subject to the risk of any failures in each third party provider's systems or IT infrastructure, which may impact that third party's ability to deliver the services it is contracted to provide. Any delay, disruption or deterioration in the level of service by a third party provider could impair DomaCom's ability to provide services to its clients at all, or to the service levels DomaCom and its clients expect. In addition, if any such contracts are terminated for any reason and an alternative source of technology or systems is not found in a timely manner or on similar commercial terms, DomaCom's operations, earnings and financial condition could be adversely impacted.

Performance of third party infrastructure

DomaCom Australia and the DomaCom Fund are dependent on the effective performance, reliability and availability of DomaCom's Platform, third party data centres and communication systems.

While DomaCom's Platform is designed to appropriately and effectively service the DomaCom Fund, changes and developments in technology, including by its competitors, or the commercial and/or regulatory environment may require DomaCom to develop and maintain new and/or enhanced technology platforms. There is a risk that DomaCom may fail to successfully achieve the required development of its technology and systems, which may, in turn, adversely affect its operations, relationship with clients, financial performance and financial condition.

Further, DomaCom's core technologies may be exposed to damage or interruption from system failures, viruses, cyber-attacks, telecommunication provider failures, disasters from natural or human causes, or other unforeseen events which may cause the systems to be unavailable from time to time. This may affect the ability of DomaCom to deliver consistent, quality services to its clients and lead to reputational damage and may also adversely impact DomaCom's operations, financial performance and financial condition.

Risks associated with Third Party Suppliers

DomaCom Australia utilises a range of third party suppliers.

DomaCom Australia could face business interruption, brand and reputational risk, if any of the third parties failed to perform and undertake their obligations.

7.1.9 Product Development

DomaCom is required to bring new products to the market and continue to innovate and maintain its existing products.

If these products take longer to develop and/or obtain necessary regulatory approvals, this could result in further investment than anticipated and/or slower progress in development and sales.

7.1.10 Failure to be included on Approved Product Lists

DomaCom Australia's distribution strategy is an intermediated model. By providing features that SMSF investors are looking for, together with opportunities for Financial Planners to advise on and training for those advisers, DomaCom plans to leverage the networks of financial advisers to grow the DomaCom Fund. Most Australian Financial Planners are connected to Dealer Groups who provide the master AFSL through which the advisers are regulated. This means that Financial Planners can only recommend products that have been incorporated onto their Dealer Group's Approved Product List (APL). In order to qualify for inclusion on APLs DomaCom has commissioned independent research reports and will continue to need to commission such reports in the future. In the event that independent research reports are negative, the DomaCom Fund and its products may not be listed on APLs or may be removed from APLs. In such an event DomaCom's financial performance and financial condition may be negatively impacted.

7.1.11 Regulatory changes

DomaCom Australia operates within a registered managed investment scheme environment. Changes to laws, regulations, standards and practices applicable to the industry in which DomaCom Australia operates could adversely impact its business. For instance, there could be changes to legislation surrounding SMSFs that could positively or negatively impact the business.

7.1.12 Key personnel risk

DomaCom relies on a number of key personnel to conduct the business including certain personnel who are named as key persons on the DomaCom AFSL. If such key personnel were to leave the business or for other reasons could not perform their duties, and there was an inability to recruit suitable replacements, this could result in an inability to continue to promote or operate the DomaCom Group's business and the DomaCom Fund in accordance with DomaCom's business plan.

7.1.13 Trading and Liquidity in Shares and Escrowed Shareholders' Interests

There can be no guarantee that an active market for the Shares will develop. There may be relatively few potential buyers or sellers of the Shares on ASX at any given time. This may increase the volatility of the market price of the Shares. It may also impact the prevailing market price at which Shareholders are able to sell their Shares.

Depending on the number of Shares issued on Completion, Escrowed Shareholders will hold between 23 – 27% of all Shares on issue following listing. The inability of Escrowed Shareholders to sell any Shares during the two year restriction period may result in, or at least contribute to, limited liquidity in the market for the Shares during this time. This could impact the prevailing market price at which Shareholders are able to sell their Shares. It is important to recognise that, on a disposal, Shareholders may receive a market price for their Shares that is less than the price that they paid under the Offer.

Following the release from escrow, Shares held by the Escrowed Shareholders will be able to be freely traded on ASX. A significant sale of Shares by the Escrowed Shareholders, or the perception that such sales have occurred or might occur, could adversely impact the price of the Shares. The Escrowed Shareholders' shareholding may also allow them to, collectively, exert significant influence over the outcome of matters relating to the Company, including the election of Directors and the approval of transactions. The interests of the Escrowed Shareholders may be different from the interests of investors who acquire Shares in the Offer.

In the event that the amount raised pursuant to this Prospectus is less than $10 million and no Selling Shareholders are able to sell Shares prior to the listing, there may be a greater number of Shares in the market as those Selling Shareholders seek to realise some of their investment in DomaCom. This may have an adverse impact on the market price for Shares.

7.1.14 Significant holding retained by certain Existing Shareholders

Immediately after Completion, assuming that the Existing Shareholders and their associates do not subscribe for any Shares under the Offer and depending on the amount raised pursuant to this Prospectus, the Existing Shareholders will beneficially own between 75% and 94% of the Company's issued Shares.

The Existing Shareholders, if they act together, will be able to exert a significant degree of influence over the Company's management and affairs and over matters requiring Shareholder approval, including the election of Directors and approval of significant corporate transactions.

The interests of these Shareholders may differ from the interests of the Company and the interests of Shareholders who purchase Shares under the Offer. Also, while they hold a large stake in the Company, these Shareholders may be able to determine or influence whether a takeover or similar offer for the Shares is successful.

It should be noted that there are 200 Existing Shareholders, many of whom are sophisticated or professional investors who have had no prior relationship with the Company, its founders or staff prior to making their investments.

7.1.15 Risk of dilution

There is a risk that there will be additional equity raised in the future that could result in dilution for shareholders. While the Company will be subject to the constraints of the ASX Listing Rules regarding the percentage of its capital it is able to issue within a 12-month period (other than where exceptions apply), Shareholders may be diluted as a result of such issues of Shares and fundraising.

If only the minimum amount of funding is raised ($5 million) it is likely that a further capital raising will be required after 18 months.

7.1.16 Compliance with regulations

DomaCom Australia operates a registered Managed Investment Scheme that is subject to regulations, laws, standards and practices.

DomaCom Australia holds an AFSL required for the conduct of its regulated activities. Failure to comply with the terms of this licence could have significant consequences for DomaCom Australia, including removal of the AFSL resulting in DomaCom Australia no longer being able to operate or promote the DomaCom Fund. Failure to comply with the regulations could result in an inability of the business to operate, suspension of its licence and reputational damage to its brand.

DomaCom is subject to privacy laws in Australia. These laws regulate the handling of personal information and data collection. Such laws impact the way DomaCom can collect, use, analyse, transfer and share personal and other information. Any actual or perceived failure by DomaCom to comply with relevant laws and regulations may result in the imposition of fines or other penalties, client losses, a reduction in existing services, and limitations on the development of technology and services making use of such data. Any of these events could adversely impact DomaCom's business, financial condition and financial performance.

7.1.17 Impairment of Intangible Assets

DomaCom's balance sheet includes intangible assets. Under Australian Accounting Standards, goodwill and indefinite life intangible assets must be regularly tested for impairment. If impaired, DomaCom would need to write down the value of its intangible assets which would result in an expense in the income statement, thereby potentially materially impacting DomaCom's financial condition and reported earnings.

7.1.18 Reputational damage

DomaCom's brand is important in attracting and retaining clients to the DomaCom Fund. There is a risk that the brand may be tarnished by incidents such as negative publicity, data security breach or one-off unforeseen events that negatively impact DomaCom's operations. Even though the DomaCom Group is not involved in the selection of properties that the DomaCom Fund invests in, the failure of Crowdfunded investments could indirectly have a negative impact on DomaCom's brand and reputation. The occurrence of any such incidents may lead to client loss and the failure to attract new clients and grow FUM, which, in turn, may have an adverse impact on DomaCom's financial performance.

7.1.19 Litigation

DomaCom may in the ordinary course of business become involved in litigation and disputes, for example with its suppliers or clients. Any such litigation or dispute could involve significant economic costs and damage to relationships with suppliers, clients and/or other stakeholders. Any such outcomes may have an adverse impact on DomaCom's business, market reputation and financial condition and financial performance.

7.1.20 Failure to realise benefits from research and development investments

Developing software and technology is expensive and the investment in the development of these product and service offerings often involves an extended period of time to achieve a return on investment. For example, DomaCom estimates that it has invested approximately $3.1 million over the last five years in the development and implementation of its platform. An important element of DomaCom's corporate strategy is to continue to make investments in innovation and related product and service opportunities through internal investments and, potentially, the acquisition of intellectual property or businesses from third parties. DomaCom believes that it must continue to dedicate resources to its innovation efforts to develop its software and technology service offering and embed its competitive position. However, DomaCom may not receive significant revenues from these investments for several years, or may not realise such benefits at all.

7.1.21 Failure to protect IP rights

Third parties may knowingly or unknowingly infringe DomaCom's proprietary rights, and/or may challenge proprietary rights held by the DomaCom Group. In such cases, DomaCom may be required to expend significant time and expense in order to prevent infringement or to enforce its rights. If the protection of its proprietary rights is inadequate to prevent unauthorised use or appropriation by third parties, its competitors may be able to more effectively mimic its products, services, and methods of operation. Any of these events could have an adverse effect on its business, financial condition and financial performance.

7.1.22 Infringement of third party intellectual property rights

DomaCom may receive notices from third parties claiming infringement of their intellectual property rights and/or breach of its agreements with them. DomaCom cannot assure Applicants that such claims may not arise, including from its competitors, or that such claims may not require protracted negotiation, including litigation, to resolve, or the payment of monetary damages or the satisfaction of indemnification obligations in its agreements with suppliers. In addition, such claims may increase as DomaCom continues to grow and enter new markets. In such cases, if a determination was made that DomaCom had infringed such third party rights, DomaCom's business and financial condition may be adversely affected.

7.1.23 Failure to execute the planned growth strategy

DomaCom's growth strategy is focused on growing the number of members of the DomaCom Fund and the value of FUM. To the extent DomaCom is not able to execute its strategy, its business and growth prospects may be adversely impacted. In such cases, DomaCom may not be able to execute its growth strategy which could adversely impact its business and growth prospects.

7.2 General Risks

7.2.1 General Economic conditions

DomaCom business operates in the financial markets and within the general economy. Conditions which affect the economic conditions such as interest rates, inflation, level of unemployment and economic growth all may impact on DomaCom's ability to grow its business and be successful.

7.2.2 Force majeure

This is the occurrence of events which are beyond the Company's control. This could include the outbreak of war or acts of terrorism, natural disaster or events which occur inside or outside Australia which have a significant impact on DomaCom's business and its ability to achieve its goals and objectives.

7.2.3 Share market risks

The share market is subject to a wide range of factors which cause the share prices for company shares to rise and fall. The impact of both domestic and global economic factors, geopolitical factors, interest rates and level of inflation can all impact the local share market. This may cause the share price for DomaCom Shares to fall below their issue price.

7.2.4 Liquidity of shares

There can be no guarantees that there will be an active market in DomaCom Shares and therefore shareholders may have an inability to sell their shares at or above the issue price.

7.2.5 Changes to Regulations - accounting standards and taxation

There is always a risk that a change may occur in the applicable laws and regulations, across accounting standards and within the Australian taxation regime. These changes could have an impact on DomaCom's business and in turn impact its share price.

8.4 Revenue

To invest in the DomaCom Fund an investor must first complete an application form and place a cash investment in the Fund. The investor can then place bids against properties. If the property is successfully acquired by the DomaCom fund, the investor receives units in relation to that Sub-Fund in proportion to the amount of its investment relative to other investors. For example if the investor contributes 10% of the amount required to acquire the property, they will hold 10% of the units of that specific Sub-Fund. Management fees are charged on average FUM for Fractional Property Interests at a rate of 0.88% p.a. (inclusive of GST) and Cash Pool at a rate of 0.22% p.a. (inclusive of GST).

At 31 March 2016, the DomaCom Fund comprised 16 Sub-Funds with a total FUM of $12.4 million. This was comprised of 2 Cash Pools that represented $9.6 million in FUM and earning a management fee of 0.22% p.a. (inclusive of GST) and 14 Property Sub-Funds representing $2.8 million in FUM and earning a management fee of 0.88% p.a. (inclusive of GST).

The key driver of revenue is FUM in the DomaCom Fund. The growth in the properties on boarded is the key driver of revenue generated by DomaCom Australia.

Other revenue represents the portion of R&D grant monies received not eligible for set off against the capitalised R&D expenditure. See Section 8.6 for further details.

8.5 Expenses

8.5.1 Employee Expenses

Employment costs represent the largest expense of DomaCom and for the 9 months to 31 March 2016 represented 54% of the total expenses. As at 31 March 2016 there were a total of 26 full and part time employees. Since the business commenced there has been a gradual build up in the number of employees with increases being largely in the operational, Information Technology and sales areas.

8.5.2 Marketing Expenses

The expenditure relates to the marketing of our brand and the promotion of products to our targeted audience, the attendance at sales conferences of intermediaries (dealer groups and financial planners), and payment for research of the DomaCom Fund by research houses.

8.5.3 Other Expenses

Other key expenses include professional fees (that are paid to external legal firms and accounting and taxation advisers), rental expenses of office premises, and fund administration costs including the services of the Responsible Entity, Custodian and fund administrator.

8.6 Research and Development Grant

During the financial years ending 2013, 2014 and 2015 members of the DomaCom Group incurred expenditure that was eligible for the receipt of Research and Development Grants. This has arisen due to the research and development activities related to the DomaCom Platform.

Table 5 Analysis of R&D Claims

RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT	FY 2013	FY2014	FY2015	FY2016*
Amount	1,339,169	2,140,880	1,982,093	653,900
Cash Refund 45% of the claim	602,626	963,396	891,942	294,255

* Subsequent to 31 March 2016 an additional $294,255 has been received as a result of resubmitted R&D tax claims for FY2014 and FY2015. These reclaims have been included as Other Income in the period to 31 March 2016.

The originally submitted Research and Development claims were independently verified by our external R&D consultants. The resubmitted claims for FY2014 and FY2015 were also independently verified.

To the extent members of the DomaCom Group incur eligible expenditure, annual R&D claims will continue to be made. Claims are submitted based on expenditure incurred during the year and independently verified for eligibility. The accounting policy adopted by the DomaCom Group is to recognise the claims once reviewed by an independent expert and submitted to the ATO, therefore, no amount has been recorded for eligible expenditure incurred during the 9 month period ended 31 March 2016. The recognition of the claim for the year ended 30 June 2016 will have the impact of reducing the carrying value of the capitalised development expenditure which includes expenditure capitalised during the period ended 31 March 2016.

8.6.1 Change in accounting policy

The DomaCom Group has made a change to its accounting policy in respect of R&D claims. Under the previous accounting policy any claims submitted to AusIndustry and the ATO would be recognised in full as a tax credit in the period for which the claim was made. Under the revised accounting policy, the claim is offset against eligible capitalised R&D expenditure. To the extent the claim relates to costs that were expensed as they did not meet the capitalisation criteria under AASB 138 Intangible Assets, this amount is recognised as Other Income. The purpose of the change in accounting policy is to match the treatment of the claims with the underlying expenditure. The revised treatment is consistent with best practice and provides a clearer representation of the linked transactions. The change in accounting policy requires the restatement of prior year financial statements as summarised below (See Table 6 Analysis of the impact of change in accounting policy).

Table 6 Analysis of the impact of change in accounting policy

	FY2014	FY2014 RESTATED	FY2015	FY2015 RESTATED
Intangible Assets	2,938,908	1,636,398	3,996,819	2,224,141
Deferred tax liability	(868,340)	-	(1,181,785)	-
Accumulated Losses	(1,897,966)	(2,332,136)	(5,737,388)	(6,328,281)
Other Income	-	240,997	-	421,774
Income tax benefit /(expense)	392,112	(89,685)	601,897	23,400

The original accounting treatment of recognising the R&D claim as an immediate credit to income tax benefit caused a difference in the carrying value of the capitalised intangible asset and the tax base that resulted in the creation of a deferred tax liability. The change in accounting policy will have the impact of aligning accounting and tax carrying values.

With the change in accounting policy resulting in a deferred tax liability no longer being recognised, an adjustment has also been made to remove the deferred tax asset of $125,585 at 30 June 2015 from the Statement of Financial Position as it is not considered appropriate to recognise this asset in the absence of a corresponding deferred tax liability due to uncertainty of recoverability.

Costs directly attributable to issuing new Shares are deducted from Equity. Costs that relate to the ASX listing, or are otherwise not directly attributable to issuing new shares, are recorded in Profit & Loss.

8.11 Significant accounting policies

8.11.1 Basis of consolidation

The DomaCom Group financial statements consolidate those of the Parent Company and all of its subsidiaries. The Parent Company controls a subsidiary if it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the subsidiary and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the subsidiary. All subsidiaries have a reporting date of 30 June.

All transactions and balances between Group Companies are eliminated on consolidation, including unrealised gains and losses on transactions between Group Companies. Where unrealised losses on intra-group asset sales are reversed on consolidation, the underlying asset is also tested for impairment from a Group perspective. Amounts reported in the financial statements of subsidiaries have been adjusted where necessary to ensure consistency with the accounting policies adopted by the DomaCom Group.

Profit or loss and other comprehensive income of subsidiaries acquired or disposed of during the period are recognised from the effective date of acquisition, or up to the effective date of disposal, as applicable.

Non-controlling interests, presented as part of equity, represent the portion of a subsidiary's profit or loss and net assets that is not held by the DomaCom Group. The DomaCom Group attributes total comprehensive income or loss of subsidiaries between the owners of the Parent and the noncontrolling interests based on their respective ownership interests.

8.11.2 Revenue

Revenue arises from the investment management services provided to the DomaCom Fund and is recognised on an accruals basis. Interest income and expense are reported on an accruals basis. The DomaCom Group may be entitled to claim a refundable tax credit for eligible research and development expenditure (eg the Research and Development Tax Incentive regime in Australia or other investment allowances). The DomaCom Group accounts for a claim as an offset against eligible capitalised R&D expenditure. To the extent the claim relates to costs that were expensed as they did not meet the capitalisation criteria under AASB 138 Intangible Assets, this amount is recognised as Other Income.

8.11.3 Operating expenses

Operating expenses are recognised in profit or loss upon utilisation of the service or at the date of their origin.

8.11.4 Intangible assets

Recognition of Acquired intangible assets

Acquired computer software is capitalised on the basis of the costs incurred to acquire and install the specific software.

Internally developed intangibles

Expenditure on the research phase of projects to develop the software platform is recognised as an expense as incurred.

Costs that are directly attributable to a project's development phase are recognised as intangible assets, provided they meet the following recognition requirements:

- the development costs can be measured reliably;
- the project is technically and commercially feasible;
- the DomaCom Group intends to and has sufficient resources to complete the project;
- the DomaCom Group has the ability to use or sell the asset;
- the software will generate probable future economic benefits.

Development costs not meeting these criteria for capitalisation are expensed as incurred.

Subsequent measurement

All intangible assets, including the internally developed software platform, are accounted for using the cost model whereby capitalised costs are amortised on a systematic basis over their estimated useful lives, as these assets are considered finite. Residual values and useful lives are reviewed at each reporting date. In addition, they are subject to impairment testing.

Any capitalised internally developed asset that is not yet complete is not amortised but is subject to impairment testing.

The DomaCom Group may be entitled to claim a refundable tax credit for eligible research and development expenditure (eg the Research and Development Tax Incentive regime in Australia or other investment allowances). The DomaCom Group accounts for a claim as an offset against eligible capitalised R&D expenditure to the extent the claim relates to capitalised expenditure. Subsequent expenditures on the maintenance of computer software and the software platform will be expensed as incurred.

When an intangible asset is disposed of, the gain or loss on disposal is determined as the difference between the proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, and is recognised in profit or loss within other income or other expenses.

8.11.5 Income taxes

Tax expense recognised in profit or loss comprises the sum of deferred tax and current tax not recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current income tax assets and/or liabilities comprise those obligations to, or claims from, the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) and other fiscal authorities relating to the current or prior reporting periods, that are unpaid at the reporting date. Current tax is payable on taxable profit, which differs from profit or loss in the financial statements. Calculation of current tax is based on tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred income taxes are calculated using the liability method on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases. However, deferred tax is not provided on the initial recognition of goodwill, or on the initial recognition of an asset or liability unless the related transaction is a business combination or affects tax or accounting profit. Deferred tax on temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and joint ventures is not provided if reversal of these temporary differences can be controlled by the DomaCom Group and it is probable that reversal will not occur in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are calculated, without discounting, at tax rates that are expected to apply to their respective period of realisation, provided they are enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that they will be able to be utilised against future taxable income, based on the DomaCom Group's forecast of future operating results which is adjusted for significant non-taxable income and expenses and specific limits to the use of any unused tax loss or credit. Deferred tax liabilities are always provided for in full.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset only when the DomaCom Group has a right and intention to set off current tax assets and liabilities from the same taxation authority.

Changes in deferred tax assets or liabilities are recognised as a component of tax income or expense in profit or loss, except where they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income (such as the revaluation of land) or directly in equity, in which case the related deferred tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or equity, respectively.

8.11.6 Employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits, including annual leave entitlement, are current liabilities included in employee benefits, measured at the undiscounted amount that the DomaCom Group expects to pay as a result of the unused entitlement.

Share-based payments

Share-based compensation benefits are provided to employees for no cash consideration. The fair value of shares granted is recognised as an employee benefit expense with a corresponding increase in equity. The fair value is measured at grant date and recognised over the period during which the employees become unconditionally entitled to the shares. Performance Rights issued to Directors and Employees are described in Directors' Interest and Remuneration (Section 10.2).

8.11.7 Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provisions for legal disputes, onerous contracts or other claims are recognised when the DomaCom Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic resources will be required from the DomaCom Group and amounts can be estimated reliably. Timing or amount of the outflow may still be uncertain.

Provisions are measured at the estimated expenditure required to settle the present obligation, based on the most reliable evidence available at the reporting date, including the risks and uncertainties associated with the present obligation. Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. Provisions are discounted to their present values, where the time value of money is material.

Any reimbursement that the DomaCom Group can be virtually certain to collect from a third party with respect to the obligation is recognised as a separate asset. However, this asset may not exceed the amount of the related provision.

In those cases where the possible outflow of economic resources as a result of present obligations is considered improbable or remote, no liability is recognised.

- The audited consolidated historical statement of cash flows of the Group for FY2014 and FY2015, and the reviewed consolidated historical statement of cash flows for the nine months ending 31 March 2016;
- The audited consolidated historical statement of financial position of the Group as at 30 June 2014 and 30 June 2015, and the reviewed consolidated historical statement of financial position as at 31 March 2016; and
- The pro forma consolidated statement of financial position of the Group as at 31 March 2016, which assumes completion of the transactions outlined in Section 8.10 of the "Financial Information" section (which include the Offer) (the "Pro Forma Transactions") as though they had occurred on that date.

The Historical Financial Information other than the Pro Forma Transactions and the results of the associated adjustments to the consolidated pro forma statement of financial position has been extracted from the audited financial statements for FY2014 and FY2015 which were audited by Grant Thornton Audit Pty Ltd restated for the impact of change in accounting policy detail in Section 8.6.1. Grant Thornton Audit Pty Ltd issued unqualified audit opinions in respect of these periods with an emphasis of matter on going concern.

The stated basis of preparation is the recognition and measurement principles contained under Australian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("AGAAP") and the DomaCom adopted accounting principles applied to the Historical Financial Information.

The Historical Financial Information is presented in an abbreviated form insofar as it does not include all of the presentation and disclosures required and other mandatory professional reporting requirements applicable to general purpose financial reports prepared in Australia in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001.

This report has been prepared for inclusion in the Prospectus. Grant Thornton Corporate Finance disclaim any assumption of responsibility for any reliance on this report or on the Historical Financial Information to which this report relates for any purpose other than the purposes for which it was prepared. This report should be read in conjunction with the Prospectus.

Directors' Responsibility

The Directors of DomaCom are responsible for the preparation and presentation of the Historical Financial Information. The Directors are also responsible for the determination of the Pro Forma Transactions and the basis of preparation of the Historical Financial Information.

This responsibility also includes compliance with applicable laws and regulations and for such internal controls as the Directors determine necessary to enable the preparation of the Historical Financial Information that are free from material misstatement.

Our Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express a limited assurance conclusion on the Historical Financial Information based on the procedures performed and evidence we have obtained. We have conducted our engagement in accordance with the Standard on Assurance Engagements ASAE 3450: "Assurance Engagements involving Corporate Fundraisings and/ or Prospective Historical Financial Information" and ASAE 3420: "Assurance Engagements to Report on the Compilation of Pro Forma Historical Financial Information".

Our procedures consisted of making enquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and review procedures applied to the accounting records in support of the Historical Financial Information.

These procedures are substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards and consequently does not enable us to obtain reasonable assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. We have not performed an audit and, accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion on the Historical Financial Information.

Our engagement did not involve updating or reissuing any previously issued audit reports on any historical financial information used as a source of the Historical Financial Information.

Conclusion

Historical Financial Information

Based on our independent review, which is not an audit, nothing has come to our attention which causes us to believe that:

- The Historical Financial Information as described in the "Financial Information" section of the Prospectus does not present fairly:
 - The audited consolidated historical statement of comprehensive income of the Group for FY2014 and FY2015, and the reviewed consolidated historical statement of comprehensive income for the nine months ended 31 March 2016;
 - The audited consolidated historical statement of cash flows of the Group for FY2014 and FY2015, and the reviewed consolidated historical statement of cash flows for the nine months ended 31 March 2016;
 - The audited consolidated historical statement of financial position of the Group as at 30 June 2014 and 30 June 2015, and the reviewed consolidated historical statement of financial position as at 31 March 2016; or
 - The pro forma consolidated historical statement of financial position of the Group as at 31 March 2016; or

• The pro forma consolidated statement of financial position of the Group as at 31 March 2016 has not been properly prepared on the basis of the Pro Forma Transactions or the Pro Forma Transactions do not set out a reasonable basis for it;

in accordance with the measurement and recognition requirements (but not all of the presentation and disclosure requirements) of applicable Accounting Standards and other mandatory professional reporting requirements under AGAAP.

Restriction on Use

Without modifying our conclusion, we draw attention to the "Financial Information" section of the Propsectus, which describes the purpose of the Historical Financial Information, being for inclusion in the Prospectus. As a result, the Historical Financial Information may not be suitable for use for another purpose.

The Board is responsible for the overall corporate governance of the Company, including establishing and monitoring key performance goals. The Board monitors the operational and financial position and performance of the Company and oversees its business strategy, including approving the strategic goals of the Company and considering and approving an annual business plan (including a budget). The Board is committed to maximising performance, generating appropriate levels of Shareholder value and financial return and sustaining the growth and success of the Company. In conducting the Company's business with these objectives, the Board seeks to ensure that the Company is properly managed to protect and enhance Shareholder interests, and that the Company and its Directors, officers and personnel operate in an appropriate environment of corporate governance. Accordingly, the Board has created a framework for managing the Company, including adopting relevant internal controls, risk management processes and corporate governance policies and practices which it believes are appropriate for the Company's business and which are designed to promote the responsible management and conduct of the Company.

The ASX Corporate Governance Council has developed and released its third edition of the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations for Australian listed entities in order to promote investor confidence and to assist companies in meeting stakeholder expectations. The ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations are not prescriptions, but guidelines. However, under the ASX Listing Rules, the Company will be required to provide a statement in its annual report disclosing the extent to which it has followed the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations in the reporting period. Where the Company does not follow a recommendation, it must identify the recommendation that has not been followed and provide reasons for not following it. Section 10.3 sets out a brief summary of the approach currently adopted by the Company in relation to the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations.

The DomaCom Board meets monthly and is responsible for the overall governance of the DomaCom Group and oversees the management of the DomaCom business. The Board reviews the development of the Company including its operational and financial performance and ensures it is compliant within the various laws, regulations and guidelines within which it operates. In approaching the question of independence, the Board has adopted a definition of independence that is based on the definition set out in the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations. Accordingly, in considering independence any business or other relationship that could materially interfere with or reasonably be perceived to interfere with the independent and unfettered exercise of a Director's judgement are also taken into account. The Board will consider the materiality of any given relationship on a case-by-case basis. The Board assesses independence of directors upon appointment and annually through attestation from each director.

As such, this policy sets out certain procedures and measures which are designed to ensure that the Company complies with its continuous disclosure obligations.

Staff Trading policy

This policy is designed to maintain investor confidence in the integrity of the Company's internal controls and procedures and to provide guidance on avoiding any breach of insider trading laws. It addresses both trading in securities by staff and exercise of vested performance rights.

Conflicts Management policy

This policy provides a consistent approach when managing conflicts of interest impacting the Company.

The Diversity Policy sets out the Company's objectives for achieving diversity amongst its Board, management and employees. The aims of this policy are:

- to articulate commitment to diversity within the Company at all levels (including employee level, senior executive level and Board level); and
- to establish objectives and procedures which are designed to foster and promote diversity within the Company.

Risk Management Policy

This policy sets out how the Company evaluates the effectiveness of its risk management framework to ensure that its internal control systems and processes are monitored and updated on an ongoing basis.

10.4.1 ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations

The Board has evaluated the Company's current corporate governance policies and practices in light of the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations. A brief summary of the approach currently adopted by the Company is set out below.

Principle 1 - Lay solid foundations for management and oversight

The respective roles and responsibilities of the Board and executives are defined in the Board Charter, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.domacom.com.au/investor-relations

There is a clear delineation between the Board's responsibility for the Company's strategy and activities, and the day-to-day management of operations conferred upon the Company's officers.

The Company Secretary, Philip Chard, reports directly to the Chairman of the Board in his role as Company Secretary. In his role as Financial Controller he reports directly to the Chief Financial Officer. The role of the Company Secretary is outlined in the Board Charter.

The Chairman is responsible for advising the Board as a whole on the composition of the Board and its committees, reviewing the performance of the Board, its committees and the individual Directors and ensuring the proper succession plans are in place.

The Nominations Committee at present comprises the full Board.

The Company has adopted a Diversity Policy, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.domacom.com.au/investor-relations. The Company's Diversity Policy requires the Board to establish measurable objectives to assist the Company in achieving gender diversity and provides for the Board to review the Company's progress in meeting these objectives.

Principle 2 - Structure the Board to add value

The Board is comprised of two Executive and four Non-Executive Directors (each of whom is an independent non-executive) and the roles of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer are exercised by two separate individuals.

The majority of Directors are considered independent based on the independence requirements in the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations and the Company's Chairman is also considered to be an independent Director based on the independence requirements in the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations.

The Board believes that the size, composition and skills of the Board are appropriate for the Company's business and circumstances and are in the best interests of Shareholders as a whole. The Board is responsible for regularly reviewing its size, composition and skills to ensure that it is able to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively, and to identify any gaps in the skills or experience of the Board. The Company with the assistance of the Board provides continuing education for Directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their roles as Directors effectively.

Principle 3 – Act ethically and responsibly

The Company has adopted a Code of Conduct which applies to all directors, officers, employees, contractors or consultants of the Company as well as a Staff Trading Policy.

Each of these has been prepared having regard to the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations and is available on the Company's website at www.domacom.com.au/investor-relations

Principle 4 – Safeguard integrity in financial reporting

The Company has established an Audit Committee to oversee the management of financial and internal risks. It does not currently comply with all of the best practice recommendations contained in the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations, specifically in that one of its members is an executive director. When the Company is listed it will consider how best to reconstitute its Audit Committee and address the differences between the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations and its current practices.

The Audit Committee is governed by the Audit Committee Charter, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.domacom.com.au/investor-relations

Principle 5 - Make timely and balanced disclosure

The Company is committed to providing timely and balanced disclosure to the market in accordance with its Continuous Disclosure Policy, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.domacom.com.au/investor-relations

Principle 6 – Respect the rights of security holders

The Company has adopted a Shareholder Communications Policy which promotes two way communication between the Company and its Shareholders. The Company seeks to recognise numerous modes of communication, including electronic communication, to ensure that its communication with Shareholders is frequent, clear and accessible.

The Company will provide investors with comprehensive and timely access to information about itself and its governance website at www.domacom.com.au/investor-relations

All Shareholders will be invited to attend the Company's annual meeting, either in person or by representative. The Board regards the annual meeting as an excellent forum in which to discuss issues relevant to the Company and accordingly encourages full participation by Shareholders. Shareholders have an opportunity to submit questions to the Board and to the Company's independent auditor.

Principle 7 – Recognise and manage risk

In conjunction with the Company's other corporate governance policies, the Company has adopted a Risk Management Policy, which is designed to assist the Company to identify, evaluate and mitigate risks affecting the Company.

The Company's Board is responsible for reviewing whether the Company has any material exposure to any economic, environmental and social sustainability risks, and if so, to develop strategies to manage such risks.

Regular internal communication between the Company's management and Board supplements the Company's quality control system, complaint handling processes, employee policies and standard operating procedures which are all designed to address various forms of risks. The Company regularly evaluates the effectiveness of its risk management framework to ensure that its internal control systems and processes are monitored and updated on an ongoing basis. The Company's Board is responsible for providing an independent and objective assessment regarding the adequacy, effectiveness and efficiency of the Company's risk management and internal control process.

A copy of the Company's Risk Management Policy is available on the Company's website at www.domacom.com.au/investor-relations

Principle 8 - Remunerate fairly and responsibly

The Company's Board oversees the level and composition of remuneration of the Directors and DomaCom Group's executives. The Company will provide disclosure of its Directors' and executives' remuneration in its annual report.

11.1 The Offer

This Prospectus relates to an offer of between 6,666,667 and 31,609,966 ordinary shares in DomaCom at a price of $0.75 cents per Share. If Applications total more than $10 million but less than or equal to $15,707,475, up to $5,707,475 will be paid to the Selling Shareholders who are selling some or all of their Shares into this Offer. Any Applications received in excess of $15,707,475 and up to $23,707,475 will be applied to the issue of additional Shares.

The percentage of Shares which will be held by successful Applicants on Completion will depend on whether the Offer is closed on achieving the minimum subscription or a greater amount. The following table demonstrates some of the possible outcomes.

The Offer has been underwritten by the Underwriters (severally) up to the maximum number of $5 million to raise the minimum subscription amount of $5 million pursuant to the Underwriting Agreements. A summary of the Underwriting Agreements, including the events which would entitle the Underwriters (severally) to terminate their Underwriting Agreements, is set out in Section 12.5.5. If one of the Underwriters defaults on its commitment, the minimum subscription will not be met, the Offer will not proceed and all Application Monies will be returned (without interest).

$5million	6,666,667	-	107,462,308	6.20%
$10million	13,333,333	-	114,128,974	11.68%
$15.7million*	13,333,333	7,609,966	114,128,974	18.35%
$23.7million	24,000,000	7,609,966	124,795,641	25.33%

Table 15 Indicative numbers of Shares to be issued under the Offer

*In this scenario some, but not all, of the Existing Shares that can be transferred under the Offer will be sold. If less than $15.7 million and more than $10.0 million is raised then the amount allocated to Existing Shareholders selling down will be allocated on a proportional basis.

The Offer is made on the basis of the terms and conditions set out in this Prospectus.

11.2 The Purpose of the Offer and use of proceeds

The purpose of the Offer is to:

- provide further capital for the business to fund further growth of the DomaCom Fund and significantly increase its funds under management, which in turn generates revenue for DomaCom in the form of management fees;
- allow DomaCom the ability to increase its sales and marketing efforts into both the intermediary and direct consumer channels for its products;
- support the launch and development of the DomaCom Equity Release and Corporate Bond products;
- continuing to develop and enhance the Platform functionality and provide tools that assist intermediaries to provide efficient, transparent and cost effective services to our clients;

- to improve the financial strength of the DomaCom Group, in turn increasing the confidence of intermediaries in DomaCom's products and longevity;
- provide a liquid market for the DomaCom shares and allow new shareholders to invest in DomaCom;
- assist in retaining and attracting employees to the company through the ability to provide shares to them in a publicly listed company; and
- subject to Applications having an aggregate value of $10 million or greater, provide a mechanism for the Selling Shareholders to realise all or a portion of their investment.

If only the minimum amount of the capital raising is achieved (being $5 million), this will curtail the amount of activity DomaCom could undertake in sales and marketing programs to grow FUM and build brand awareness in the direct consumer market. It is likely to lead to the need for a further capital raising after 18 months to meet working capital requirements.

Increases in the amount of capital raised will allow DomaCom to accelerate its sales and marketing efforts both into the intermediated and direct consumer channels, increase the speed of the development and enhancement of the Platform and commence exploring opportunities for growing the DomaCom business globally.

Increases in capital raised will also improve the financial strength of the Company, which will support the accelerated use of the Platform by intermediaries.

The Directors intend to use DomaCom's cash reserves and any surplus cash flow to fund the business, rather than distributing these funds as dividends. The Directors can give no assurance as to the amount, timing, franking or payment of any future dividends by DomaCom.

Table 16 Use of Funds

Following the Offer, the Company will have sufficient working capital to meet its stated objectives. Additional funds raised beyond the minimum subscription will increase the final strength and stability of the business which enhances the ability of the business to win more sales distributors and grow the business revenues.

³ Working capital is required to fund the ongoing operational costs and employee expenses to retain key personnel in sales, marketing and technology to the extent these costs exceed the revenue set out in Section 8.4.

11.3 Capital Structure

The table below shows the impact of the issue of shares on the capital structure of the Company.

Table 17 Impact of share issue on capital structure

- The Company has committed to issuing 159,861 fully paid ordinary shares to persons who were early investors in the DomaCom Fund. The agreement to issue those Shares was subject to the Company becoming listed on the ASX.
- As noted in Sections 10.2.7 and 12.4 Performance Rights awarded to non-executive Directors and DomaCom Group Employees will vest on the listing of the Company, entitling the holders of those rights to have Shares issued to them.

As additional Shares are issued, the Company will lodge an Appendix 3B pursuant to the Listing Rules.

12.3 Rights and liabilities attaching to Shares

A summary of the rights attaching to the Shares under the Offer is detailed below. This summary is qualified by the full terms of the Constitution (a full copy of the Constitution is available from the Company on request free of charge) and does not purport to be exhaustive or to constitute a definitive statement of the rights and liabilities of Shareholders. These rights and liabilities can involve complex questions of law arising from an interaction of the Constitution with statutory and common law requirements. For a Shareholder to obtain a definitive assessment of the rights and liabilities which attach to the Shares in any specific circumstances, the Shareholder should seek legal advice.

Voting

At a general meeting, every Shareholder present in person has one vote on a show of hands and, on a poll, one vote for each Share held. If a person present at a general meeting represents personally or by proxy, attorney or representative more than one member, on a show of hands the person is entitled to one vote only even though he or she represents more than one member.

Meetings

A general meeting may only be called by directors' resolution or as otherwise provided under the Corporations Act. The Corporations Act allows members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast at a general meeting to call, and arrange to hold, a general meeting.

Subject to the provisions of the Corporations Act, the Company is required to give each person notice of a general meeting who is at the time of giving the notice a Shareholder, Director or auditor of the Company. The notice of a general meeting must state the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.

No business may be transacted at a general meeting, except the election of a chairperson and the adjournment of the meeting, unless a quorum of 5 Shareholders is present at the meeting.

Dividends

The Board may from time to time resolve to pay dividends to Shareholders and fix the amount of the dividend, the time for determining entitlements to the dividend and the timing and method of payment.

Transfer of Shares

Subject to the Constitution and to any restrictions attached to a member's Shares, a member may transfer any of the member's Shares by a Proper ASTC Transfer or a written transfer in any usual from or in any other form approved by the Directors.

The Board may refuse to register a transfer of Shares where permitted to do so under the Constitution, the Corporations Act and Listing Rules.

Issue of further Shares

Subject to the Constitution, the Board may:

- issue, allot or grant options for, or otherwise dispose of, Shares in the Company; and
 - decide the person to whom Shares are issued or options are granted and terms, rights and restrictions attached to those Shares or options.

Winding Up

Subject to the Constitution and the rights or restrictions attached to any Shares or class of Shares, if the Company is wound up and the property of the Company available for distribution is more than sufficient to pay all the debts and liabilities of the Company and the costs of the winding up, then the excess must be divided among the members in proportion to the number of Shares held by them, irrespective of the amounts paid or credited as paid on the Shares.

Variation of rights

The rights attached to any class of Shares may, unless their terms of issue state otherwise, be varied subject to:

- the written consent of the holders of 75% of the Shares of the class; or
- a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of those Shares of the class.

Directors - appointment and removal

The minimum number of Directors is three and the maximum number is to be fixed by the Board, but may not be more than nine unless the Company in a general meeting resolves otherwise.

At every annual general meeting if the number of Directors, after excluding a managing director and a director appointed as an addition to the existing Directors or to fill a casual vacancy, is:

- five or less, then 2 of the remaining Directors must retire from office; or
- more than five, one third of those Directors must retire from office.

Directors - remuneration

Each Director is entitled to such remuneration from the Company for his services as a director as the Board decides but the total amount provided to all Directors for their services as Directors must not exceed in aggregate in any financial year the amount fixed by the Company in a general meeting.

Indemnities

The Company, to the extent permitted by law, indemnifies each Director against all losses, liabilities, costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Directors as an officer of the Company or of a related body corporate but will not be required to indemnify a Director in respect of such liability where it arises from the fraudulent or wilful misconduct of that Officer.

Transactions requiring shareholder approval

The types of "transactions" that require shareholder approval are governed by the Corporations Act and the Constitution.

Generally speaking, the following types of transactions will require shareholder approval:

- amendments to the Constitution;
- amalgamations;
- disposing of substantially the whole of the company's property or undertaking;
- change of name of the company;
- reduction of share capital;
- winding up;
- share buy-back;
- removal of company auditors; and
- certain alteration of capital and variations of rights attaching to Shares.

This is not an exhaustive list but sets out common transactions which require shareholder approval.

12.4 Director and Employee Long Term Incentive Plan (LTIP)

12.4.1 Background

In 2014 the Company established a long term equity-based incentive plan for Directors and staff, in order to:

- reward directors and employees of the DomaCom Group;
- assist in the retention and motivation of directors and employees of the DomaCom Group; and
- provide an incentive to directors and employees of the Company to grow shareholder value by providing them with an opportunity to receive an ownership interest in the Company.

The Company's long term incentive plan (LTIP) provides for the award of both Employee Share Options and Employee Performance Rights under which Directors, executives, other employees, contractors and consultants of the DomaCom Group may be offered the opportunity to be granted Options or Performance Rights on terms set by the Board in its discretion.

The Board is of the view that to secure employees and Directors who can best assist the DomaCom Group in achieving its objectives, it is necessary to provide remuneration and incentives to such personnel. Accordingly, the LTIP was designed to provide such incentives and to recognise the contribution of personnel to the DomaCom Group's success. At the time the LTIP was prepared and the first awards were made under it the Board was of the view that Performance Rights were a more cost effective and efficient incentive for the DomaCom Group employees (as opposed to alternative forms of incentives such as increased cash based remuneration). Accordingly, the LTIP and the initial awards made under it were designed to achieve this objective, by encouraging continued improvement in performance over time and by encouraging personnel to acquire and retain shareholdings in the Company.

The Directors have the discretion to invite qualifying employees and consultants to apply for Options or Performance Rights as they consider appropriate. The exercise price of the Options will be the price determined by the Board in its absolute discretion prior to or on grant of the Options. The performance hurdles associated with any Performance Rights issued under the plan will also be determined by the Directors at the time an invitation is made.

When the first awards under the LTIP were made, in order that participants receive the full benefit of their LTIP, additional criteria for performance rights available to current employees including Directors were imposed. These are described in Section 10.2.7. The conditions imposed on the awards of performance rights made to staff are the same as those imposed on the awards made to non-executive Directors and performance rights awarded to staff and non-executive directors will vest (that is, they will be able to be converted into ordinary shares) when the Company is listed. It should be noted that the conditions imposed on Mr Ross Laidlaw's award are different to those imposed on staff and non-executive directors. Further, although eligible to participate, Mr Arthur Naoumidis (the Company's CEO and single largest shareholder) elected not to seek any performance rights in the initial award.

The Directors believe that the terms of the LTIP are consistent with schemes adopted by other Australian companies with similar risk/reward profiles.

12.4.2 Summary of terms of LTIP

Eligibility

The Board may, in its absolute discretion, invite an Eligible Employee to participate in an award of Performance Rights. An Eligible Employee includes a director, senior executive or employee of the Company or an associated body corporate of the Company.

Terms of Performance Rights

- Each Performance Right will be granted to Eligible Employees under the LTIP for nil consideration.
- Each Performance Right will entitle its holder to subscribe for and be issued, one fully paid ordinary share in the capital of the Company (upon vesting (where applicable) and exercise of that Performance Right).

- If the Company is admitted to the official list of the ASX (or another stock exchange) the Performance Rights will not be listed for quotation on that exchange, however, the Company will apply for official quotation of the Shares issued upon the exercise of any vested Performance Rights.
- The grant date and expiry date of a Performance Right shall be as determined by the Board when an invitation to participate in the LTIP is made.
- No payment is required for the exercise of a Performance Right, unless otherwise determined by the Board and advised to the Eligible Employee at the time the offer is made.
- A participant is not entitled to participate in or receive any dividend or other Shareholder benefits until its Performance Rights have vested and been exercised and Shares have been allocated to the participant as a result of the exercise of those Performance Rights.
- There are no participating rights or entitlements inherent in the Performance Rights and participants will not be entitled to participate in new issues of securities offered to Shareholders of the Company during the currency of the Performance Rights.
- Following the issue of Shares following exercise of vested Performance Rights, participants will be entitled to exercise all rights of a Shareholder attaching to the Shares, subject to any disposal restrictions advised to the participant at the time of the grant of the Performance Rights.

Performance conditions

When granting Performance Rights, the Board may make their vesting conditional on the satisfaction of a Performance Condition within a specified period. The Board may at any time waive or change a Performance Condition or performance period in accordance with the LTIP rules if the Board (acting reasonably) considers it appropriate to do so.

Vesting

The Performance Rights will vest following satisfaction of the Performance Conditions or such other date as determined by the Board in its discretion.

Subject to the LTIP rules, the Board may declare that all or a specified number of any unvested Performance Rights granted to a participant which have not lapsed immediately vest if, in the opinion of the Board a change of control in relation to the Company has occurred, or is likely to occur, having regard to the participant's pro rata performance in relation to the applicable Performance Conditions up to that date.

Subject to the LTIP rules, the Board may in its absolute discretion, declare the vesting of a Performance Right where the Company is wound up or passes a resolution to dispose of its main undertaking.

If there is any internal reconstruction or acquisition of the Company which does not involve a significant change in the identity of the ultimate Shareholders of the Company, the Board may declare in its sole discretion whether and to what extent Performance Rights, which have not vested by the day the reconstruction takes place, will vest.

Disposal restrictions

A participant may not assign, transfer, novate, or otherwise dispose of a Performance Right granted under the LTIP without the prior consent of the Board, or where such assignment or transfer occurs by force of law upon the death of a participant.

Overriding restrictions

No grant or issue of Performance Rights and/or Shares will be made to the extent that it would contravene the Constitution, any applicable Listing Rules, the Corporations Act or any other applicable law.

Lapse

A Performance Right will immediately lapse upon the first to occur of:

- its expiry date;
- the Performance Condition(s) (if any) not being satisfied prior to the end of the performance period(s);
- the transfer or purported transfer of the Performance Right in breach of the LTIP rules;
- if the Performance Right has not vested, the day that is 30 days following the date the participant voluntarily or for a bona fide reason ceases to be employed or engaged by the Company or an associated body corporate;
- termination of the participant's employment or engagement with the Company or an associated body corporate for cause; or
- unless another expiry date is stipulated in the invitation, 6 months after an event which gives rise to a vesting under the Performance Right rules established by the LTIP.

Where a participant ceases to be employed or engaged by the Company or an associated body corporate by reason of their death, disability, bona fide redundancy, and the Performance Rights have vested, they will remain exercisable by that participant's estate or legal representative until the Performance Rights lapse in accordance with the LTIP rules or if they have not vested, the Board will determine as soon as reasonably practicable after the date the participant ceases to be employed or engaged, how many (if any) of those participant's Performance Rights will be deemed to have vested and will be exercisable by that participant's estate or legal representative.

At the end of the month of allotment, CHESS, acting on behalf of the Company, will provide Shareholders with a holding statement that confirms the number of Shares held and any transactions executed by the Shareholder during that month.

A holding statement (whether issued by CHESS or the Company) will also provide details of a Shareholder's Holder Identification Number (HIN) in the case of a holding on the CHESS subregister or Shareholder Reference Number (SRN) in the case of a holding on the issuer-sponsored sub-register. Following distribution of these initial holding statements to all Shareholders, a holding statement will also be provided to each Shareholder at the end of any subsequent month during which the balance of that Shareholder's holding of Shares changes.

A Shareholder may request a holding statement at any other time. However, a charge may be made by the Share Registry for additional statements.

12.17 Australian taxation implications

The following comments provide a general summary of Australian tax issues for Applicants who are Australian tax resident investors who acquire Shares under this Prospectus.

The categories of investors considered in this summary are limited to individuals, certain companies, trusts, partnerships and complying superannuation funds, each of whom hold their Shares on capital account.

This summary does not consider the consequences for non-Australian tax resident investors, or Australian tax resident investors who are insurance companies, banks, investors that hold their Shares on revenue account or carry on a business of trading in Shares or investors who are exempt from Australian tax. This summary also does not cover the consequences for Australian tax resident investors who are subject to Division 230 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (the Taxation of Financial Arrangements or "TOFA" regime).

This summary is based on the law in Australia in force at the time of issue of this Prospectus. This summary does not take into account the tax law of countries other than Australia. This summary is general in nature and is not intended to be an authoritative or complete statement of the applicable law. The taxation laws of Australia or their interpretation may change. The precise implications of ownership or disposal of the Shares will depend upon each investor's specific circumstances.

Investors should obtain their own advice on the taxation implications of holding or disposing of the Shares, taking into account their specific circumstances.

12.17.1 Dividend on Shares

Individuals and complying superannuation entities

Where a dividend on a Share is distributed, that dividend should constitute assessable income of an Australian tax resident investor. Australian tax resident investors who are individuals or complying superannuation entities should include the dividend in their assessable income in the year they derive the dividend, together with any franking credit attached to that dividend if they are a "qualified person" (refer further comments below). Such investors should be entitled to a tax offset equal to the franking credit attached to the dividend subject to being a "qualified person" or where the investor receives less than $5,000 in franking credits from all sources for the income year. The tax offset exceeds the tax payable on the investor's taxable income. Where the tax offset exceeds the tax payable on the investor's taxable income year, such investors should be entitled to a tax refund.

Where a dividend paid is unfranked, the investor will generally be taxed at their prevailing tax rate on the dividend received with no tax offset.

It is important to note that there is no short term expectation that DomaCom will pay any dividend.

Corporate Investors

Corporate investors are required to include both the dividend and associated franking credit in their assessable income subject to being a "qualified person". A tax offset is then allowed up to the amount of the franking credit on the dividend.

An Australian resident corporate investor should be entitled to a credit in its own franking account to the extent of the franking credit attached to the dividend received. Such corporate investors can then pass on the benefit of the franking credits to their own investor(s) on the payment of dividends.

Excess franking credits received cannot give rise to a refund, but may be able to be converted into carry forward tax losses.

Trusts and partnerships

Investors who are trustees (other than trustees of complying superannuation entities) or partnerships should include the franking credit in their assessable income in determining the net income of the trust or partnership. Subject to being a "qualified person", the relevant beneficiary or partner may be entitled to a tax offset equal to the beneficiary's or partner's share of the franking credit received by the trust or partnership.

Shares held at risk

The benefit of franking credits can be denied where an investor is not a "qualified person" in which case the investor will not be able to include an amount for the franking credits in their assessable income and will not be entitled to a tax offset.

Broadly, to be a qualified person, an investor must satisfy the holding period and the related payment rule.

The holding period rule requires an investor to hold the Shares `at risk' for more than 45 days continuously, in the period beginning the day after the day on which the investor acquires the Shares and ending on the 45th day after the day on which the Shares become ex-dividend. The date the Shares are acquired and disposed of are ignored for the purposes of determining the 45 day period. Any day on which an investor has a materially diminished risk or loss of opportunity for gain (through transactions such as granting options or warrants over Shares or entering into a contract to sell the Shares) will not be counted as a day on which the investor held the Shares `at risk". This holding period rule is subject to certain exceptions. Special rules apply to trusts and beneficiaries.

Under the related payment rule, a different testing period applies where the investor has made, or is under an obligation to make, a related payment in relation to a dividend and the investor had not held the Shares `at risk' around the dividend period. A related payment is one where an investor or their associate passes on the benefit of the dividend to another person. The related payment rule requires the investor to have held the Shares at risk for a period commencing on the 45th day before, and ending on the 45th day after the day the Shares become ex-dividend. Practically, this should not impact investors who do not pass the benefit of the dividend to another person. Investors should obtain their own tax advice to determine if these requirements have been satisfied.

Dividend washing rules can apply such that no tax offset is available (nor is an amount required to be included in your assessable income) for a dividend received. Investors should consider the impact of these rules having regard to their own personal circumstances.

12.17.2 Disposal of Shares

The disposal of a Share by an investor should trigger a capital gains tax (CGT) event. A capital gain will arise where the capital proceeds on disposal exceed the cost base of the Share (broadly, the amount paid to acquire the Share plus any transaction costs). In the case of an arm's length on-market sale, the capital proceeds will generally be the cash proceeds from the sale.

A CGT discount may be applied against the capital gain (after reduction of total capital gains by capital losses) where the investor is an individual, complying superannuation entity or trustee, the Shares have been held for more than 12 months and certain other requirements have been met. Where the CGT discount applies, any capital gain arising to individuals and entities acting as trustees (other than a trust that is a complying superannuation entity) may be reduced by one half after offsetting current year or prior year capital losses. For a complying superannuation entity, any capital gain may be reduced by one third, after offsetting current year or prior year capital losses.

Where the investor is the trustee of a trust that has held the Shares for more than 12 months before disposal, the CGT discount may flow through to the beneficiaries of the trust if those beneficiaries are not companies. Investors that are trustees should seek specific advice regarding the tax consequences of distributions to beneficiaries who may qualify for discounted capital gains.

A capital loss will be realised where the reduced cost base of the Share exceeds the capital proceeds from disposal. Capital losses may only be offset against capital gains realised by the investor in the same income year or future income years, subject to certain loss recoupment tests being satisfied. Capital losses cannot be offset against other assessable income.

12.17.3 Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Investors should not be liable for GST in respect of their investment in Shares. Investors may not be entitled to claim full input tax credits in respect of any GST paid on costs incurred in connection with their acquisition of the Shares. Separate GST advice should be sought by investors in this respect.

12.17.4 Stamp duty

Investors should not be liable for stamp duty in respect of their holding of Shares, unless they acquire, either alone or with an associated/related person, an interest of 90% or more in the Company. Under current stamp duty legislation, no stamp duty would ordinarily be payable by investors on any subsequent transfer of Shares.

Applicants should seek their own advice as to the impact of stamp duty in their own particular circumstances.

12.17.5 Tax file numbers (TFN)

Resident investors may, if they choose, notify the Company of their TFN, ABN or a relevant exemption from withholding tax with respect to dividends. In the event the Company is not so notified, tax will automatically be deducted at the highest marginal rate, including, where relevant, the Medicare Levy and Temporary Budget Repair Levy, from unfranked dividends and/or distributions.

Resident investors may be able to claim a tax credit/rebate (as applicable) in respect of any tax withheld on dividends in their income tax returns.

12.18 Restrictions on owning shares in Australian companies

The sale and purchase of Shares in Australia are regulated by a number of laws that restrict the level of ownership or control by any one person (either alone or in combination with others). This Section 12.18 contains a general description of these laws.

12.18.1 Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Act 1975 (Cth) and Commonwealth

Government Foreign Investment Policy

Generally, the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Act 1975 (Cth) applies to acquisitions of shares and voting power in a company of 20% or more by a single foreign person and its associates (Substantial Interest), or 40% or more by two or more unassociated foreign persons and their associates (Aggregate Substantial Interest).

Where a proposed acquisition of a Substantial Interest or Aggregate Substantial Interest meets certain criteria, the acquisition may not occur unless notice of it has been given to the Commonwealth Treasurer and the Commonwealth Treasurer has either stated that there is no objection to the proposed acquisition in terms of Australia's Foreign Investment Policy or a statutory period has expired without the Federal Treasurer objecting. An acquisition of a Substantial Interest or an Aggregate Substantial Interest meeting certain criteria may also lead to divestment orders unless a process of notification, and either a statement of non-objection or expiry of a statutory period without objection, have passed.

In addition, in accordance with Australia's Foreign Investment Policy, proposed acquisitions of a direct investment in an Australian company by foreign government investors and their associates must be notified to the Foreign Investment Review Board for prior approval, irrespective of the value of the investment. According to Australia's Foreign Investment Policy, a direct investment will typically include any investment of 10% or more of the shares (or other securities or equivalent interest or voting power) in an Australian company but may also include investment of less than 10% where the investor is building a strategic stake in the target or obtains potential influence or control over the target.

12.18.2 Corporations Act

The takeover provisions in Chapter 6 of the Corporations Act restrict acquisitions of relevant interests in issued voting shares in listed companies, and unlisted companies with more than 50 members, if, as a result of the acquisition, the acquirer's (or another party's) voting power in that company would increase from 20% or below to more than 20%, or would increase from a starting point that is above 20% and below 90%, unless certain exceptions apply. The Corporations Act also imposes notification requirements on persons having voting power of 5% or more in the Company either themselves or together with their associates.

New Zealand

This offer to New Zealand investors is a regulated offer made under Australian and New Zealand law. In Australia, this is Chapter 8 of the Corporations Act and regulations made under that Act. In New Zealand, this is subpart 6 of Part 9 of the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013 and Part 9 of the Financial Markets Conduct Regulations 2014.

The Offer and the contents of this Prospectus are principally governed by Australian rather than New Zealand Iaw. In the main, the Corporations Act and the regulations made under that Act set out how the Offer must be made.

There are differences in how financial products are regulated under Australian law. For example, the disclosure of fees for managed investment schemes is different under the Australian regime. The rights, remedies, and compensation arrangements available to New Zealand investors in Australian financial products may differ from the rights, remedies, and compensation arrangements for New Zealand financial products.

Both the Australian and New Zealand financial markets regulators have enforcement responsibilities in relation to the Offer. If you need to make a complaint about the Offer, please contact the Financial Markets Authority, New Zealand (http://www.fma.govt.nz). The Australian and New Zealand regulators will work together to settle your complaint.

The taxation treatment of Australian financial products is not the same as for New Zealand financial products. If you are uncertain about whether this investment is appropriate for you, you should seek the advice of an appropriately qualified financial adviser.

The Offer may involve a currency exchange risk. The currency for the financial products is not New Zealand dollars. The value of the financial products will go up or down according to changes in the exchange rate between that currency and New Zealand dollars. These changes may be significant.

If you expect the financial products to pay any amounts in a currency that is not New Zealand dollars, you may incur significant fees in having the funds credited to a bank account in New Zealand in New Zealand dollars.

If the financial products are able to be traded on a financial product market and you wish to trade the financial products through that market, you will have to make arrangements for a participant in that market to sell the financial products on your behalf. If the financial product market does not operate in New Zealand, the way in which the market operates, the regulation of participants in that market, and the information available to you about the financial products and trading may differ from financial product markets that operate in New Zealand.

2 LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Dear Investor,

On behalf of the Board, it is with great pleasure that I invite you to consider becoming a shareholder in DomaCom Limited.

What is DomaCom?

DomaCom is at the forefront of change occurring within global financial services coupled with innovations occurring in technology. We are seeing rapid development in new companies like DomaCom using the power of technology to disrupt the traditional methods of delivering financial services.

The DomaCom Group has pioneered, through a combination of a familiar legal structure, business processes and a technology platform, a fractional investment product (the DomaCom Fund) that allows retail investors to obtain access to investments in asset classes, such as (at present) direct property and (subject to regulatory approvals) corporate bonds, that are relatively difficult for retail investors to access due to their investment size and/or illiquidity or are not available for sale to retail investors.

DomaCom is targeting the growing SMSF market

DomaCom's primary target market for the DomaCom Fund is the Australian Self-Managed Superannuation Fund (SMSF) sector, which has been growing significantly and is now estimated to represent approximately $600 billion in assets (as at 31 December 2015), comprising approximately 29% of total Australian superannuation assets, which have grown to over $2 trillion in assets (as at 31 December 2015 - APRA Quarterly Statistics, 31 December 2015 www.apra.gov.au).

DomaCom believes it is well placed to grow the DomaCom Fund's market share in this sector, as self-managed superannuants wish to have control and direction, transparency, simplicity and competitive fee structures in their superannuation arrangements. DomaCom believes that the DomaCom Fund delivers these features to clients of the DomaCom Fund and their advisers.

What is the Offer?

DomaCom is seeking to raise $10,000,000 with a minimum of $5,000,000. A number of Existing Shareholders and new investors have agreed (severally) to underwrite up to the maximum amount of $5 million to raise the minimum subscription amount of $5 million. Oversubscriptions will be allowed up to a maximum of $23,707,475 (before Offer costs). We will issue a minimum of 6.67 million and up to 24 million new ordinary Shares and facilitate the sale by Existing Shareholders of 7.6 million Sale Shares at $0.75 cents a Share.

The capital raising and ASX listing will allow DomaCom to:

- increase its marketing efforts into both the intermediary and direct consumer channels for its products;
- support the planned development and launch of new products, such as the DomaCom Equity Release and DomaCom Corporate Bond products;
- improve the financial strength of the DomaCom Group;
- provide a liquid market for DomaCom shares and allow new shareholders to invest in DomaCom;
- assist in retaining and attracting employees to DomaCom; and
- subject to receipt of Applications having an aggregate value of $10 million or greater, provide a mechanism for some Existing Shareholders to realise all or part of their investment.

Please read this Prospectus in its entirety

The Prospectus sets out an overview of DomaCom Group's business, the industry in which it operates and market trends impacting that industry. It also sets out financial information about the Group and the key people involved at DomaCom.

The Prospectus also sets out some of the key risks that could impact DomaCom's ability to realise its objectives and achieve financial success. These risks include the potential for it to fail to grow funds under management in the DomaCom Fund, which would result in a reduction in its revenues and have an adverse impact on its financial position. Other risks include the potential for a competitor to duplicate DomaCom's business and technology model, pressure of fees and pricing or the termination of the investment management agreement under which it provides its platform and funds management services to the DomaCom Fund. These risks are summarised in Section 4 in the section entitled "What are the Key Risks" and set out in much more detail in Secton 7. I strongly recommend that you read those sections carefully.

Please take the time to read through this document before making your decision to invest.

On behalf of the Directors, I look forward to welcoming you as a shareholder of DomaCom.

Yours sincerely

Grahame Evans Chairman

3 CEO'S LETTER

Dear Investor,

DomaCom began the journey to create what it believes to be one of the world's most innovative asset securitisation platforms – the DomaCom Fund – nearly 5 years ago. Whilst the DomaCom Fund provides a bespoke platform that has the potential to `fractionalise' any asset, the first asset class we chose to focus on was `direct property' (that is, investments in real property selected by the investor).

It is well known that direct property as an asset class provides some key challenges for the investment adviser community. Given the large transaction size in direct property relative to many investor portfolios, and that it is not a regulated financial product, it is often not included in a financial adviser's advice process. By the same token, if advisers do not provide a direct property solution to their clients, then someone else outside the investment adviser community may do so.

The DomaCom Fund

The DomaCom Fund is structured as a combination of a managed fund and an online crowdfunding platform. The underlying managed fund structure of the Fund can best be described as a segregated property trust, where one sub-fund is created for each property crowdfunded by investors. In order to create this structure, DomaCom obtained necessary regulatory relief and a `make a market' authorisation for the Fund's secondary market functionality.

Our proprietary cloud-based technology platform includes a number of key innovations such as:

- Book Build functions that enable investors to pool together to acquire any asset this is also known as "crowdfunding";
- Secondary trading screens that work much like those of an online stock broker providing our investors with functionality to trade their investment (subject to buyer demand); and
- Intra-day fund registry that underpins the secondary trading platform.

DomaCom Australia, as the investment manager, receives revenues for the provision of management and platform services to the DomaCom Fund.

Key objective and target market

The key objective for us is for the DomaCom Fund to become a preferred solution for independent financial advisers (IFAs) when including direct property within their client's asset allocation strategies. We are particularly targeting the burgeoning SMSF sector within the financial services market for these reasons:

- SMSFs like transparency and control, and the DomaCom Fund through its platform allows SMSFs to choose specific property investments;
- SMSFs like property as evidenced by the growth of limited recourse borrowing arrangements for SMSFs; and
- the SMSF sector is approaching $600 Billion in size.

The DomaCom Fund has received "investment grade" reports by two independent fund research firms. 37 IFA dealer groups, which together represent more than 850 advisers, have included the DomaCom Fund on their approved product list (APL). This is a very pleasing result as this provides DomaCom with access to approximately 5% of the IFA market.

More importantly, over 500 IFAs have also completed or are in the process of completing the DomaCom Fund accreditation course, which is a pre-requisite to IFAs being able to recommend or advise their clients on investment in the DomaCom Fund. These are all great "lead indicators" for the Fund and its opportunities in the year ahead.

The outlook

We believe that the DomaCom Fund is on the cusp of significant growth which should lead to improvement in funds under management. As at the date of this Prospectus, there are 17 sub-funds in the DomaCom Fund (each with an underlying property or deposit for a selected investment) and another 9 Book Builds in progress. We also have another 31 Book Builds for residential properties currently being structured and several $20 million - $100 million development Book Builds being negotiated. At this stage, we have no way of determining the likelihood of success of any of these Book Builds.

Additionally, over the past few months DomaCom has been running a well publicised crowdfunding campaign to acquire the iconic Kidman Station. DomaCom is seeking to raise approximately $210 million to acquire the land assets of Kidman Station and has engaged Lloyds Business Brokers who are seeking to raise the capital to acquire the operating business. This is a very competitive process and there are hurdles to overcome in order to achieve a successful purchase.

In a global context, DomaCom is part of a property crowdfunding phenomenon – a sector showing rapid growth (US$19 million in 2012, US$1 billion in 2014 to an estimated US$2.5 billion of transactions in 2015). To our knowledge, there are now more than 100 property crowdfunding platforms in the UK and US with a number of new entrants now in Australia and DomaCom is the only platform using a registered managed investment scheme legal structure that enables the participation of retail investors to simulate an investment in direct property and (potentially) other asset classes. Additionally, we believe that the DomaCom Fund is the only crowdfunding platform that has a "make a market" authorisation (a prerequisite to offering a secondary market capability to retail investors).

We are now in the process of extending the Fund's legal structure and the platform's functionality to cater for other asset classes, with the next key asset class being corporate bonds. We believe corporate bonds are appropriate for the DomaCom business model as:

- they generally have large minimum transaction size of $500,000; and
- the offer of most corporate bonds is often restricted to sophisticated or institutional investors.

DomaCom's business model, through the fractionalisation of interests, provides opportunity to overcome both these issues. In the current low interest rate environment, there is a demand for higher yielding assets and we believe that the successful development and launch of the DomaCom Corporate Bond product currently under development will accelerate the take up of the DomaCom Fund within the investment community.

I look forward to sharing this journey with you.

Arthur Naoumidis

4 INVESTMENT AND BUSINESS OVERVIEW

TOPIC	SUMMARY	FOR MORE INFORMATION
What is DomaCom?	DomaCom is the parent company of the entities that together make up the DomaCom Group.	Section 6
	DomaCom Australia Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of DomaCom, is the Australian Financial Services Licence holder (AFSL holder) and investment manager of the DomaCom Fund, which is the first fractional online crowdfunding investment platform available to retail investors in Australia.
	DomaCom Australia, as the investment manager of the DomaCom Fund, derives revenues from the management and platform services that it provides to the DomaCom Fund.
	DomaCom Group's core business is the delivery of management and operation of the DomaCom Fund. DomaCom's primary source of competitive advantage is its business model which combines a proprietary online technology platform with a tailored managed investment scheme structure, with benefits for distribution and scalability. DomaCom Australia's AFSL also authorises it to `make a market'. This means that it can provide a secondary trading functionality that (subject to buyer demand) allows holders of fractional property interests to trade their interests.
What Industry does DomaCom operate in?	The DomaCom Group operates in the financial services industry, primarily targeting the Self-Managed Superannuation Fund (SMSF) category.	Section 5.1
What is the market for DomaCom's products?	SMSF is a large and growing sector of the Australian investment market, with total assets of approximately $600 billion in assets and approximately 567,000 individual funds ¹ and represents the largest single component of the Australian superannuation market, which is now in excess of $2 trillion. With estimates of up to $120 Billion ² in property asset class exposure within the Australian SMSF sector alone, DomaCom believes a large addressable market exists for the DomaCom fractional investment platform.	Section 5.2
What geographies do we operate in?	The DomaCom Group has offices in Melbourne, Sydney, Adelaide and Singapore. Currently the DomaCom Fund only invests in properties in Australia and accepts investors from Australia and Singapore.	Section 6.2
	1 Statistics issued by the ATO in February 2016 available from www. superannuation.asn.au/resources/superannuation-statistics 2 Approximately 20% of 600 billion in SMSF as at 31 December 2015, using the 20% Historic Property Asset Allocation to achieve inflation +3% returns (ie conservative investor) as calculated by Mercers for CARM PGS

TOPIC	SUMMARY	FOR MORE INFORMATION
What is the DomaCom Fund?	The DomaCom Fund is a registered managed investment scheme which is designed to simulate investment in direct property. The DomaCom Fund facilitates investment in fractional interests in property, being the underlying property held by a Sub-Fund of the DomaCom Fund. The DomaCom Fund's fractional investment platform breaks down high value, illiquid assets into smaller fractions that are available for retail investment. In this way, it enables SMSFs and other retail investors to access investment opportunities in property (and potentially other asset classes, such as corporate bonds) that otherwise may not be available to them. The DomaCom Fund enables investors and their IFAs entirely online to identify properties, initiate and participate in Book Builds for those properties, deposit and withdraw cash, trade their investments with other investors (subject to buyer demand) and otherwise manage their investments in the DomaCom Fund. Any investor in the DomaCom Fund can select a property listed on the DomaCom Platform and initiate a Book Build for the purchase of that property. Provided that sufficient capital is raised and the property is successfully purchased, each investor who invests in that specific property will be issued units in the Sub-Fund which acquires and holds the underlying property.	Section 6.5
What is DomaCom's strategy for growth?	 DomaCom's strategy for growth is based on increasing the value of funds under management (FUM) in the DomaCom Fund, which in turn will increase DomaCom Australia's revenue base, through the following growth initiatives: growing the number of IFA dealer groups which include the DomaCom Fund on their approved product lists (APLs), thereby increasing the number of financial advisers who are authorised to recommend and advise on investment in the DomaCom Fund's products; increasing DomaCom Australia's sales and marketing efforts both to intermediaries such as IFAs and directly to retail investors to increase their awareness of the DomaCom brand and the DomaCom Fund and in turn increase the number of retail investors (and value of FUM) and accordingly DomaCom Australia's revenues; identifying exciting and interesting opportunities for the crowdfunding model that allows retail investors to obtain access to assets which might otherwise be outside their reach and lead to an increase in FUM (and accordingly revenues), for example the campaign to crowd fund the acquisition of Kidman Station; 	Section 6.4

	 continuing to innovate our product offerings by launching new products designed to cater for the needs of SMSF investors and their advisers; continuing to develop and enhance the DomaCom Platform functionality and provide tools that assist IFAs to provide efficient, transparent and cost effective services to their clients;
	 creating opportunities for IFAs to benefit from the growth of the DomaCom Fund and in particular the public crowdfunding opportunities; and obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals under the laws of Singapore, to enable offering investments in the DomaCom Fund to retail investors in Singapore (currently the DomaCom Fund is only available for investment to Singapore's equivalent of wholesale investors).
What is the key product offered on the DomaCom Fund?	There is currently one product available for investment, the DomaCom Fractional Property Investment – a product designed for the investment market which allows retail investors to select and invest in fractions of specific properties online without having to purchase the whole property themselves.	Section 6.5
What products does DomaCom currently have in	Other products currently under development and, subject to regulatory approval, expected to be launched in the 2017 Financial Year include the DomaCom Corporate Bonds Product and DomaCom Equity Release Product .	Section 6.5.2 and Section 6.5.3
development?	DomaCom expects over time (subject to regulatory approvals) to be able to fractionalise other asset classes in addition to property and bonds, for example collectables, precious metals (gold, platinum etc.) and even crowdfund new business ventures, thereby further expanding the product base and diversifying DomaCom's revenue streams. However, at this time, no such future developments have commenced.
Who are DomaCom's customers?	DomaCom's customers are primarily retail investors, the trustees of SMSFs and the IFAs and accountants who advise them.	Section 6.6

TOPIC	SUMMARY	FOR MORE INFORMATION
Why will investors and their advisers select DomaCom's products?	In DomaCom's experience, investors generally, and SMSF investors in particular, seek to build their investment portfolios around asset classes (targeting specific percentages in a range of classes/sub-classes with a view to achieving diversity and minimising risk). DomaCom believes that property and corporate bonds are key asset classes which provide opportunities for fractional ownership by retail investors utilizing the DomaCom Fund.	INFORMATION Section 6.5 and Section 6.6
How do we generate revenue and what are our key expenses?	 DomaCom Australia is the investment manager of the DomaCom Fund which is operated through the DomaCom Platform developed by the DomaCom Group. For providing the DomaCom Platform and the administrative and management support required to manage the DomaCom Fund, DomaCom Australia receives a management fee based on the value of the Fund's underlying assets. DomaCom Australia's fee on non-cash investments is 80 basis points, plus GST (0.88% p.a.). In addition, DomaCom Australia receives a fee of 0.20% plus GST (0.22% p.a.) on the value of investments held in cash. DomaCom Group's primary costs are employee expenses and costs of product development. Other expenses include office premises, marketing, information technology costs including costs relating to cloud based storage, professional fees and general administration. As at 31 March 2016, DomaCom employed 26 staff and employee related expenses represented 54% of total operating costs. 	Section 6.3
When will I receive dividends?	The Directors intend to use DomaCom's cash reserves and any surplus cash flow to fund the business, rather than distributing these funds as dividends. The Directors can give no assurance as to the amount, timing, franking or payment of any future dividends by DomaCom.	Section 11.2
What are the Key Risks?	 There are risks associated with an investment in DomaCom. Some are specific to DomaCom and others are general risks that are associated with investments generally. The specific risks include risks associated with: failing to attract customers and grow assets under management efficiently enough to become profitable; competition – in particular the risk that competitors duplicate our asset fractionalisation technology and our legal structure, which provide our competitive advantage; 	Section 7 pressure on fees and pricing which could result in reduced margins and profitability;

	 the termination of the investment management agreement which would result in DomaCom Australia being replaced as the investment manager of the DomaCom Fund;
	 the high reliance that DomaCom Australia has on the availability and functionality of the platform technology means that disruptions to the platform services, errors or omissions in the functionality in the platform or force majeure events (for example third party intrusions) could significantly impact the DomaCom Group's ability to scale, deliver services or its reputation and standing;
	 Reliance on third party suppliers, including suppliers of IT services and infrastructure;
	 Failure to innovate or failure for innovative products to receive regulatory approvals or failure to achieve client adoption will negatively impact the DomaCom Group's financial performance and condition;
	 Significant regulatory change that affects the financial services industry generally or managed investment schemes generally could negatively impact DomaCom Group's financial performance and condition;
	 Risks associated with failure to attract or retain key personnel;
	 If only the minimum amount of funding is raised ($5 million) pursuant to this Offer it is likely, that a further capital raising will be required in the medium term, and
	• Other risks associated with the listing of the Company.
	Further detail on each of these and other Key Risks is provided in Section 7, together with information about the mitigation strategies that we have put in place to address and minimise them.
What is the current status of the DomaCom fund?	At 31 March 2016, the DomaCom Fund comprised 16 Sub- Funds with a total valuation of non-cash assets of $1.6 million and cash of $10.7million, representing total FUM of $12.4 million.	Section 10
	There are currently 37 active Book Builds taking place on the platform at various stages. Of those 9 have reached the stage where investors have committed funds to undertaking due diligence. If those 9 are all successful, then the FUM will increase by approximately $2.5 million.

TOPIC	SUMMARY	FOR MORE INFORMATION
	There are currently a number of large crowdfunding campaigns taking place, for example, the campaign to Crowdfund the acquisition of the land assets comprising the Kidman Station (being undertaken in collaboration with another group who are seeking to raise capital to fund the purchase of the operating business). At this stage, the DomaCom Group has no way of determining the likelihood of success of that, or any other, book build or campaign.
Who are the key people and what experience do they have?	 The DomaCom Group executive team has extensive experience within financial services and platform development and implementation. Arthur Naoumidis CEO: DomaCom's founder was the founder and former CEO of a complex investment management and administration platform, Praemium (ASX:PPS), that grew from a start-up in 2001 to a listed company with nearly 500 client firms (accountants, financial planners & stockbrokers), over 45,000 investors and over $40 billion on its platform. Ross Laidlaw CFO/COO: Ross Laidlaw is a seasoned funds management executive who was previously CEO of Skandia in Australia for 8 years. Over time, its platform grew organically to over $5 billion funds under management and with over 200 staff. The team also includes executives with significant profile and experience in funds management, property investment and technology development for financial services. Further information on the key people is provided in the Key People, Interests and Corporate Governance (Section 10). 	Section 10
Why is the Offer being undertaken?	 The Offer is being conducted to: provide a liquid market for shares and an opportunity for others to invest in the Company; raise capital in order to strengthen DomaCom's balance sheet and provide financial stability to pursue its identified growth opportunities; provide the Company with the benefits of an increased profile that arises from being a listed public company; provide the Company with access to capital markets to improve capital management; provide Selling Shareholders with an opportunity to realise all or part of their investment in the Company; and assist in retaining and attracting employees to the Company through the ability to provide shares to them in a publicly listed company. 		If only the minimum amount of the capital raising is achieved (being $5 million), this will curtail the amount of activity DomaCom could undertake in sales and marketing programs to grow FUM and building brand awareness in the direct consumer market. It is likely to lead to the need for a further capital raising in the medium term to meet working capital requirements.
		Increases in the amount of capital raised will allow DomaCom to accelerate their sales and marketing efforts both into the intermediary and direct consumer channels, increase the speed of the development and enhancement of the Platform and commence exploring opportunities for growing the business globally. Increases in capital raised will also improve the financial strength of the Company which will support the accelerated use of the Platform by intermediaries. There is no expectation that any dividends will be paid in the short to medium term.

5 INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

5.1 Trends influencing DomaCom's market entry

The DomaCom Group has identified a number of emerging trends within the financial services industry generally (and the superannuation industry in particular) and the convergence with developments occurring in the technological space. DomaCom has developed the DomaCom Fund in response to those trends.

Each of the following trends are described in more detail below:

- SMSFs are a growing and significant component of the superannuation market and will continue to grow as more Australians look to take responsibility for their own retirement savings (See Section 5.2);
- Financial services disruption and the continued growth of digital technology, including the development of cloud computing and digitalisation of the real estate industry, has allowed DomaCom to deliver its services efficiently, securely and totally online. (See section 5.3);
- There is an increasing appetite for SMSF and other investors to utilise the internet to buy and transact financial services due to its ease of use. (See section 5.3);
- Growth and expansion in crowdfunding and in particular property crowdfunding provides opportunities for innovative offerings. (See section 5.3);
- Innovative products available to the retail market to offer further choice and diversification in the current low interest rate environment. (See Section 5.4);
- Australia's ageing population and their retirement options are issues at front of mind for many Australians and their financial advisers (See section 5.5); and
- Recent regulatory reforms reflect a greater appetite for the use of "fee for service" advisers rather than "commission based" advisers (See Section 5.6).

5.2 Growth in Superannuation market and the dynamics of SMSF market in particular

5.2.1 Size of the market

Funds under management in Australian superannuation funds as at 31 December 2015 represented over $2 trillion in assets. The market has continued to grow since 1992 when compulsory superannuation was first introduced. The government-imposed mandatory contributions as a proportion of each individual's total salary package or wage have progressively increased over time. The mandatory contribution rate at the inception of the system was 3% and it was raised most recently to 9.5% from 9.25% on 1 July 2014. This rate is expected to increase to 12% over the next decade.

As illustrated in Figure 1 the Australian Superannuation Market is large and growing.

5.2.2 Sectors of the superannuation market

The Superannuation market can be further broken down into its various sectors. The SMSF sector is the largest sector of the superannuation market, representing approximately $600 billion as at 31 December 2015. There are now more than one million Australians who have superannuation in SMSF and FUM held in SMSF represents 29% of the total assets held in superannuation as at 30 June 2015. The retail and industry fund sectors represent 26% and 21% respectively, followed by the public, corporate and statutory fund sectors. As at July 2015, the average value of funds invested in SMSF was estimated to be in the order of $1million with the median assets held in SMSF being just over $600,000.

5.2.3 Continued Growth in SMSF

We believe that SMSFs will continue to grow both in number and FUM. Key reasons for our view are as follows.

- Control and direction individuals can control their retirement savings within a SMSF and direct the funds to investments of their choice.
- Transparency individuals are able to see and control all transactions, including the impact of taxation such as franking credits and capital gains tax.
- Fees many individuals believe the fund management costs for externally managed funds are too high.
- Ability to impact and control investment performance many individuals believe that SMSF's give them more control over investment decisions that suit their personal objectives and often at a lower cost.
- Retirement and Estate planning SMSFs allow flexibility for individuals to move from accumulation phase to the pension phase relatively easily and to establish appropriate estate planning mechanisms to transfer wealth to the next generation.

Deloitte Actuaries & Consultants Limited in its research paper "Dynamics of the Australian Superannuation System The next 20 years: 2015-2035" published in November 2015 show in base projections from their superannuation model that total superannuation assets in Australia are expected to increase steadily to $9.5 trillion by 2035 and report that they believe the industry will be dominated by the SMSF, retail and Industry sectors, with the SMSF sector to exceed $2.5 trillion in assets by 2035.

5.3 Financial Services disruption, cloud computing and crowdfunding

5.3.1 Digital disruption / Fin-Tech

Like many industries, the financial services industry is seeing a rapid increase in the numbers of internet savvy investors willing to transact and obtain reports using smart phones, tablets and personal computers.

Within the financial services industry, we are seeing rapid development in new companies using the power of technology looking to disrupt the traditional methods of delivering financial services. This can be seen in the development of 'robo advice', 'peer to peer' lending, cloud computing and crowdfunding. These kinds of advances and disruptive business models are often loosely grouped together and referred to as "Fintech".

5.3.2 Cloud computing

Cloud computing allows individuals and organisations to store their data in offsite data centres supported by multiple redundancy and security systems rather than on their own desktops or servers located in the office environment.

DomaCom has been able to leverage this new technology with the significant growth in availability, reliability and security that cloud based infrastructure provides without the burden and cost of integrating legacy systems.

5.3.3 Crowdfunding

In the real estate industry new and disruptive digital technologies and business models have resulted in the creation of crowdfunding businesses.

ACN: 604384885

Property crowdfunding is the process of multiple investors coming together to buy a property. Investors receive their returns through monthly rental income and movement in property prices. The properties are typically residential but can also be commercial, retail and agricultural.

Property crowdfunding falls within the wider 'Fintech' trend of using technology to simplify and streamline various financial payments and investment activities such as a property investment. Digital technology allows efficient delivery of information, provides scalability by allowing investors all over the world to be connected, and provides convenience as all financial, legal and administrative processes are delivered on a platform that can be accessed across any smart phone, tablet or other digital device.

Global Overview

Over the last few years there has been a growth in crowdfunding globally and in particular property crowdfunding platforms. In the US alone, there are over 100 providers, including companies such as RealtyMogul.com and FundRise.com. According to their websites, RealtyMogul has raised over $196 million in debt and equity funding with over 78,000 investors and FundRise has more than 80,000 investors and has invested in nearly $3 billion worth of real estate.

A similar development has occurred in the UK, where property crowdfunding firms include Property Partner, Property Crowd, Crowd Property, House Crowd and Property Moose.

Australian property crowdfunders

Property crowdfunding has also developed in Australia within the last few years and a number of companies operate in this area in addition to DomaCom. These include Venture Property Crowd (venturepropertycrowd.com.au) which offers wholesale investors a chance to invest in residential properties, CrowdfundUP (crowdfundup.com) which allows investors to invest in a range of commercial properties and projects and BrickX (brickx.com) which is focused on residential investments.

5.4 Appetite for new products in the retail market which offer further choice and diversification in low interest rate environment

Australia, like the rest of the world, has historically low interest rates with the expectation that interest rates will remain low for some time. This has resulted in a search for access to fixed interest products offering a better rate than that available with bank deposits.

Consequently, there has been a shift of interest into corporate bonds so that investors can obtain better returns on their cash. This asset class is still considered a defensive asset class but is well suited for SMSFs who are looking for better yields than cash but without taking on the additional risk of equities. The corporate bonds are independently rated based on the quality of the issuer of the Bond.

The DomaCom Corporate Bond product is currently under development in response to these factors and, subject to regulatory approvals and other factors, is expected to be launched during FY2017.

5.5 Ageing Society and the risk of outliving savings

As with most developed countries, Australia's population is ageing as a result of sustained low fertility and increasing life expectancy. This has resulted in proportionally fewer children under 15 years of age in the population, and a proportionally larger increase in those aged 65 and over and 85 and over respectively.

ABS statistics show that over the 20 years between 1994 and 2014, the proportion of the population aged 65 years and over increased from 11.8% to 14.7%. This proportion is projected to grow over the next decade, as further cohorts of baby boomers turn 65. By 2061, it is predicted that 25% of Australia's population will be aged over 65. Over the same 20 years period, the number of persons aged 85 years and over increased by 153%, compared with a total population growth of 32%. In the year ending 30 June 2014, the number of people aged 85 years and over increased by 19,200 people (4.4%) to reach 456,500.

The ageing of the population and the growth in the size of the cohort over 65 years of age has significant issues for retirement planning, in particular:

- Concerns about the adequacy of housing for the elderly;
- The risk of Australians outliving their retirement savings;
- Concerns about the extent to which financial requirements impact an elderly person's ability to choose whether to remain in the family home or move to aged care; and
- Levels and quality of health and other support services.

DomaCom believes that there is opportunity for it to lead the innovation required in product development for the retiree market to assist retirees to sustain quality of life in their final years. For this reason, DomaCom is in the process of developing the DomaCom Equity Release product, which is designed to enable retirees to draw on the equity in their homes while continuing to live there (for more information refer to section 6.5.3)

5.6 Regulatory reform (FOFA)

The implementation of the Future of Financial Advice reforms (also known as FOFA) in 2012 has resulted in significant changes in the ways in which Australian financial advisers can receive remuneration, in turn leading to an increase in the proportion of "fee for service" advisers. This is expected to drive more investors towards an asset allocation framework (and away from commission based product recommendations). The DomaCom Fund features have been developed from an asset allocation and risk mitigation mindset and DomaCom believes are therefore favourably placed in the new FOFA environment.

6 COMPANY OVERVIEW

6.1 About DomaCom

DomaCom has developed what it believes to be the first registered managed investment scheme in Australia offering a fractional investment product through a bespoke online platform. The DomaCom Fund currently provides fractional property interests in real property. Its objective is to further develop this model so that additional asset classes may be fractionalised and offered to retail and SMSF investors (for more information see Section 6.5).

DomaCom Australia as the investment manager of the DomaCom Fund, derives an investment management fee based on the value of the assets held by the DomaCom Fund. This is the DomaCom Group's primary source of revenue.

6.2 Where does DomaCom operate?

The DomaCom Group has offices in Melbourne, Sydney, Adelaide and Singapore. Currently, the DomaCom Fund only invests in properties in Australia and markets to investors in Australia and Singapore.

The DomaCom Group believes that its platform has potential applications in other jurisdictions where collective investment schemes are available to retail investors and accordingly there is potential for further growth internationally. However, at this time, there are no developed plans for international expansion.

6.3 Our Business model

6.3.1 Revenues

The DomaCom Group's business model derives revenue for the services it provides to the DomaCom Fund. The fee it receives is based on the value of the underlying assets held within the DomaCom Fund. By growing FUM in the DomaCom Fund, DomaCom will grow its revenues. The management fee ranges from 0.80% per annum of the value of the property investments to 0.20% per annum of the daily cash balance (excluding GST).

6.3.2 Structure of the DomaCom Fund provides efficiency and scalability and market leading proposition

We believe that there is currently nothing else available in the Australian market that enables investors to acquire fractional ownership of a specific property interest using a retail managed fund legal framework combined with an online and scalable platform. The current alternatives involve the creation of one-off property syndicates or unregistered trusts which come with a number of practical drawbacks such as high set up costs, no liquidity measures, difficulty in finding syndicate members and inability to access the financial planning distribution channel.

The DomaCom Fund structure is unique, as it combines a well understood legal structure that IFAs are able to advise on, with a proprietary technology platform.

In summary, the DomaCom Fund structure involves:

• Separating the ownership of the asset (real property) and the beneficial rights to ownership of income and capital growth (or losses) attributable to that property (which we refer to as the Property Interests).

- A legal structure that enables efficient fractionalisation of the Property Interests. The structure provides for the income and capital rights in each Property acquired by the Fund to be owned by the investors of a distinct Sub-Fund within the DomaCom Fund. Each investor will hold separate classes of units in one or more Sub-Funds (each separate class of units is unique to a particular Sub-Fund and a particular Property) and the combination of the Sub-Funds and the cash pool together comprise the DomaCom Fund. Investors receive the specific returns from the Sub-Funds (and specific Properties) they have invested in and not a blended return from all Sub-Funds (and all Properties).
- DomaCom Australia has a "make a market" authorisation, allowing for the provision of a secondary trading facility to the DomaCom Fund. This allows investors (subject to buyer demand) to trade their fractional interests.
- DomaCom Australia's online platform supports property listing management, secondary market bid/offer trading, unit registry and Book Build processing for existing properties and proposed developments.
- An unlimited number of Sub-Funds or separate unit classes (each representing a separate Property) can be created within the DomaCom Fund. This, combined with the platform technology, results in the DomaCom Fund being potentially highly scalable.

6.4 Our Business strategy

The DomaCom Group's core strategy is built on developing and implementing innovative products. This strategy is executed through the DomaCom Fund and the activities of DomaCom Australia as the investment manager of the DomaCom Fund.

Our key strategy has been to identify specific problem areas for SMSF investors and their advisers and, using a combination of technology, business processes and legal structures, to provide innovative and useful ways of addressing those problems.

Fundamentally, the DomaCom Fund creates a mechanism whereby a high value asset (currently real property) can be fractionalised and invested in by numerous investors, thereby creating an opportunity for Australian retail investors.

Fractionalisation of assets also provides an opportunity to increase the liquidity of an investment that previously may have been characterised by low liquidity.

6.4.1 Strategies for growth

Our growth strategy is based on the following components:

- growing the number of APLs on which our products are listed, thereby increasing the number of IFAs who are authorised to recommend and advise on those products;
- increasing DomaCom Australia's sales and marketing efforts to increase awareness of the DomaCom brand and the DomaCom Fund and in turn increase number of retail investors (and value of FUM and accordingly revenues) through both intermediated and direct channels;
- continuing to innovate our product offerings by launching products designed to cater for the needs of SMSF investors and their advisers (see below);
- continuing to develop and enhance the Platform functionality and provide tools that assist IFAs to provide efficient, transparent and cost effective services to their clients so that ours is the platform of choice;
- continuing to offer Crowdfunding opportunities. An example of this is the crowdfunding opportunity that we are currently undertaking with the Kidman Station. We are giving investors the opportunity to acquire a fractional interest in one of the largest private agricultural landholdings with 101,411 square km of prime pastoral land across 12 properties, as well as a head office located in North Adelaide. The land is used for 10 cattle stations, a bull breeding stud farm and a feedlot covering regional South Australia, Western Australia, Northern Territory and Queensland. This campaign is being conducted in partnership with Lloyd Business Brokers which is seeking to raise the capital required to acquire the Kidman Station operating business and accordingly provide a yield to investors holding a fractional interest in the land. At this stage, we have no way of determining the likelihood of success of this campaign.
- creating opportunities for IFAs to benefit from the growth of the DomaCom Fund and in particular the public Crowdfunding opportunities;
- obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals under the laws of Singapore to expand our marketing there to include marketing investments in the DomaCom Fund to retail investors in Singapore (as we currently are only able to offer investments in the DomaCom Fund to Singapore's equivalent of wholesale investors); and
- exploring global opportunities to licence the DomaCom Platform in international markets. However, it is likely that this strategy will only be implemented if more than $10 million is raised under the Offer.

6.4.2 Growing intermediary network

In order to grow the number of Platform users and the value of FUM, DomaCom Australia has concentrated its sales and marketing efforts on growing the number of IFAs that can use the product.

This has involved seeking and obtaining independent research reports required by Dealer Groups before products can be listed on Dealer Group APLs, as well as creating a sales and marketing team well connected within the financial planning community.

As at 31 March 2016, 37 financial planning Dealer Groups have included the DomaCom Fund on their APL. Together, these firms represent more than 850 Financial Advisers or approximately 5% of the Australian financial planning market.

Investors who do not wish to seek full service advice from an IFA may also invest directly into the DomaCom Fund.

6.4.3 The business model and product offering have been built in response to FOFA changes

The Corporation Amendment (Future of Financial Advice) Act 2012 ("FOFA") and The Corporations Amendment (Further Future Financial Advice Measures) Act 2012 reforms required all Financial Advisers in Australia to cease accepting product commissions and rebates. These changes are aimed at transforming Australia's Financial Planning industry away from commission based sales to a fee for service based model.

The DomaCom Group believes these changes will drive an increase in the use of asset allocation models by Financial Planners which will in turn further drive a demand into the direct property asset class.

The DomaCom Group's business model, which simulates a direct investment in real property but does so utilising a registered managed investment scheme structure, provides an opportunity for Financial Planners to continue to advise their clients across all asset classes to which they are exposed without requiring the investor to 'give up' the ability to select the underlying investment property.

6.5 Our Products

6.5.1 Current Product -DomaCom Fractional Property Investment

The DomaCom Fund's initial offering allows investors the opportunity to build a property investment portfolio across a diverse range of residential, commercial and agricultural properties by geographic region (suburb, city, region and state), providing both a potential net income yield and possibility for capital growth.

Participating investors are exposed to an income stream and capital growth (or loss) of the underlying properties in direct proportion to the fractional interest purchased. For example, if an investor acquires 10% of the units in a Sub-Fund which is linked to a specific property investment, they will receive 10% of the net income yield and exposure to 10% of the capital value of that property.

6.5.2 Product in development - DomaCom Corporate Bonds

This product is designed to allow investors an opportunity to build a corporate bond investment portfolio that incorporates a diverse range of corporate bonds providing them with access to risk weighted interest rates. In this way, investors can construct a bond portfolio that gives them the more attractive yields whilst still managing their investment risk through diversification. Currently, retail investors are restricted to either ASX listed corporate bonds or to corporate bonds that have a retail prospectus. The majority of corporate bonds are not retail offerings and are not listed on the ASX which means that retail investors do not have access to much of the corporate bond market.

Subject to obtaining necessary regulatory approvals, the DomaCom Fund's structure will enable corporate bonds not otherwise available for investment by retail investors to be fractionalised and invested in by members of the DomaCom Fund. Those fractional interests will also be able to be traded between members of the DomaCom Fund (subject to buyer demand).

The offering is expected to increase the value of assets in the DomaCom Fund and accordingly revenues that will be derived by DomaCom Australia for its services to the DomaCom Fund. It is intended that some of the proceeds of this capital raising will be used to fund the technology and legal development required to modify the DomaCom Platform and Fund to support the offering of corporate bonds in addition to our existing offer of properties.

6.5.3 Product in development - DomaCom Equity Release

It is estimated that $500 billion of home equity is held by Australians over the age of 65, with the total reverse mortgage loan book worth more than $3.66 billion at the end of 2014. This demonstrates that there is a significant market for products that allow older Australians to utilise their property assets, only a very small proportion of which is currently subject to reverse mortgage products.

The DomaCom Group is currently developing the DomaCom Equity Release product that will enable those who are seeking to obtain cash by releasing equity in their homes to be matched with investors who wish to make investments that are underpinned by those properties. If the DomaCom Equity Release product is approved and launched, it will provide an attractive solution to `asset rich/cash poor' retirees who may otherwise have difficulty funding their retirements whilst continuing to live in their own homes.

DomaCom Australia expects to be in a position to launch the DomaCom Equity Release product as an additional feature of the DomaCom Fund prior to the end of FY2017. This is, however, subject to obtaining regulatory approval within that timeframe and completion of additional Platform technology elements that may be required.

6.6 Our Customers

6.6.1 The DomaCom Group

DomaCom Australia derives revenues based on the FUM in the DomaCom Fund. Accordingly, the DomaCom Fund is regarded as DomaCom Australia's 'customer'. DomaCom Australia delivers platform and fund management services to the Fund's responsible entity and custodian.

DomaCom's revenues will increase in direct proportion to the value of FUM in the DomaCom Fund.

6.6.2 The DomaCom Fund

The DomaCom Fund's customers are retail investors who are introduced to the DomaCom Fund via DomaCom Australia's primary distribution channel is through intermediaries - IFAs and accountants.

The DomaCom Fund also offers a range of crowdfunding opportunities to retail investors directly, such as the Kidman Station campaign.

6.7 Our Service Providers

The DomaCom Group has outsourced a number of functions to key service providers in order to ensure an efficient and compliant administration of the DomaCom Fund within a registered scheme environment.

- Perpetual Trust Services Limited ABN 48 000 142 049 and Perpetual Corporate Trust Limited ABN 42 000 001 007 act as the Responsible Entity and Custodian respectively for the DomaCom Fund. Perpetual is one of Australia's largest professional Responsible Entity (RE) and custodian and is an ASX listed company with capitalisation of around $1.95 billion.
- Fund BPO Pty Ltd ABN 81 118 902 891 a wholly owned subsidiary of the ASX listed company MainstreamBPO Limited provides the Fund Accounting and Unity Registry services for the Fund. Mainstream Group has seen exceptional growth over last 10 years providing fund and superannuation administration services for a diverse client base of over 350 funds with in excess of $US50 billion in funds under administration and was listed on the ASX in late 2015.
- Australia and New Zealand Banking Group ABN 11 005 357 522 (ANZ Bank) provides the DomaCom Fund cash account that gives investors an attractive return. ANZ Bank is also the banker for the DomaCom Group.

7 KEY RISKS

This Section describes some of the potential risks associated with the business undertakings of the DomaCom Group, the industries in which it operates and an investment in the Shares. Some risks are specific to DomaCom Group's business activities, while others are more general in nature.

This Section does not purport to list every risk that may be associated with the DomaCom Group or an investment in the Shares. The occurrence or consequence of some of the risks described in this Section is partially or completely outside the control of DomaCom, its Directors and senior management.

Prior to applying for Shares, investors should read the Prospectus carefully and in full and satisfy themselves that they have a sufficient understanding of the risks associated with DomaCom and an investment in the Shares before deciding whether the Shares are a suitable investment for them, having regard to their own investment objectives, financial circumstances and taxation position. If investors are unclear in relation to any matter associated with an investment in DomaCom, they should seek professional advice from their stockbroker, solicitor, accountant, financial adviser or other independent professional adviser before deciding whether to invest in DomaCom.

7.1 Risks specific to investing in DomaCom

7.1.1 Failure to attract customers and grow assets under management

DomaCom is dependent on growing its customer base, increasing the number and value of properties in the DomaCom Fund and in turn the assets under management based on which it derives a management fee in order to more than offset its running expenses. Failure to attract customers and grow funds under management will negatively impact the DomaCom Group's financial position and prospects.

Failure to attract customers to the DomaCom Fund may also impact the secondary market on the Platform, which in turn could impact the ability of investors to trade Fractional Property Interests or the price achieved. The reputational consequences of this could negatively impact DomaCom Fund's growth and accordingly DomaCom Australia's revenues and financial position.

We are working with 37 Dealer Groups, representing more than 850 Financial Advisers. Over 350 Financial Advisers have been accredited by DomaCom in Fractional Property Investing as at 31 March 2016 and at that date Domacom Australia had FUM of $12.4 million. Revenue generated from the FUM is currently small and DomaCom needs to grow its FUM significantly to generate sufficient revenue to cover its cost base.

7.1.2 Competition

While DomaCom Australia believes it is the first to operate a fractional investment platform in the form of a registered managed investment scheme in Australia, there is a risk that existing financial service providers or new players enter this market or duplicate DomaCom's technology and business model.

The key industries in which the DomaCom Group operates are all competitive markets which are expected to remain competitive. Examples of factors that may impact on DomaCom Group's competitive position include:

- level of innovation relative to that of competitors;
- commercial factors, including pricing and liability terms;

- ability to keep up with technological or regulatory change;
- ability to respond to client preferences for products and services; and
- ability to maintain strong relationships with existing clients by upholding the consistency and quality of its services.

In addition, the DomaCom Group needs to respond effectively to any changes in the competitive landscape, which may evolve as a result of a number of factors, including the entry of new competitors into the market and the consolidation of existing market participants.

Increased competition may adversely affect DomaCom's business, financial performance and financial condition. Increased competition may also result in pressure on the management fees charged by DomaCom Australia.

7.1.3 Termination of the Investment Management Agreement

DomaCom Australia is the investment manager appointed by the Responsible Entity of the DomaCom Fund under the investment management agreement dated 4th February 2014. If the Responsible Entity as trustee of the DomaCom Fund terminates the Investment Management Agreement, DomaCom Australia would lose its primary source of income.

7.1.4 Reliance on platform technology

The DomaCom Fund relies on an online technology solution which is delivered by the DomaCom Platform to facilitate the application process, the on boarding of clients and properties and regular reporting.

There is a risk of cyber-attacks which could lead to loss, theft or corruption of data. This could render the Platform unavailable for a period of time and the unauthorised disclosure of client data.

This is a risk of disruption of Platform services due to:

- an inability of the system to handle increase in capacity of clients and transactions or errors or omissions that may occur in performing certain tasks and transactions; and
- a force majeure event that affects the systems and in turn the clients of or suppliers to DomaCom.

7.1.5 Reliance on third party suppliers

IT Suppliers

The DomaCom Group relies on certain contracts with third party suppliers to maintain and support its IT infrastructure and software, which underpins its core business activities. DomaCom's reliance on third parties to provide key services decreases its control over the delivery of these services and the quality and reliability of the services provided. DomaCom is also subject to the risk of any failures in each third party provider's systems or IT infrastructure, which may impact that third party's ability to deliver the services it is contracted to provide. Any delay, disruption or deterioration in the level of service by a third party provider could impair DomaCom's ability to provide services to its clients at all, or to the service levels DomaCom and its clients expect. In addition, if any such contracts are terminated for any reason and an alternative source of technology or systems is not found in a timely manner or on similar commercial terms, DomaCom's operations, earnings and financial condition could be adversely impacted.

Performance of third party infrastructure

DomaCom Australia and the DomaCom Fund are dependent on the effective performance, reliability and availability of DomaCom's Platform, third party data centres and communication systems.

While DomaCom's Platform is designed to appropriately and effectively service the DomaCom Fund, changes and developments in technology, including by its competitors, or the commercial and/or regulatory environment may require DomaCom to develop and maintain new and/or enhanced technology platforms. There is a risk that DomaCom may fail to successfully achieve the required development of its technology and systems, which may, in turn, adversely affect its operations, relationship with clients, financial performance and financial condition.

Further, DomaCom's core technologies may be exposed to damage or interruption from system failures, viruses, cyber-attacks, telecommunication provider failures, disasters from natural or human causes, or other unforeseen events which may cause the systems to be unavailable from time to time. This may affect the ability of DomaCom to deliver consistent, quality services to its clients and lead to reputational damage and may also adversely impact DomaCom's operations, financial performance and financial condition.

Risks associated with Third Party Suppliers

DomaCom Australia utilises a range of third party suppliers.

DomaCom Australia could face business interruption risk, brand and reputational risk if any of the third parties failed to perform and undertake their obligations.

7.1.6 Product Development

DomaCom is required to bring new products to the market and continue to innovate and maintain its existing products.

If these products take longer to develop and/or obtain necessary regulatory approvals, this could result in further investment than anticipated and/or slower progress in development and sales.

7.1.7 Failure to be included on Approved Product Lists

DomaCom Australia's distribution strategy is an intermediated model. By providing features that SMSF investors are looking for, together with opportunities for Financial Planners to advise on and training for those advisers, DomaCom plans to leverage the networks of financial advisers to grow the DomaCom Fund. Most Australian Financial Planners are connected to Dealer Groups who provide the master AFSL through which the advisers are regulated. This means that Financial Planners can only recommend products that have been incorporated onto their Dealer Group's Approved Product List (APL). In order to qualify for inclusion on APLs DomaCom has commissioned independent research reports and will continue to need to commission such reports in the future. In the event that independent research reports are negative, the DomaCom Fund and its products may not be listed on APLs or may be removed from APLs. In such an event DomaCom's financial performance and financial condition may be negatively impacted.

7.1.8 Regulatory changes

DomaCom Australia operates within a registered managed investment scheme environment. Changes to laws, regulations, standards and practices applicable to the industry in which DomaCom Australia operates could adversely impact its business. For instance, there could be changes to legislation surrounding SMSFs that could positively or negatively impact the business.

7.1.9 Key personnel risk

DomaCom relies on a number of key personnel to conduct the business including certain personnel who are named as key persons on the DomaCom AFSL. If such key personnel were to leave the business or for other reasons could not perform their duties, and there was an inability to recruit suitable replacements, this could result in an inability to continue to promote or operate the DomaCom Group's business and the DomaCom Fund in accordance with DomaCom's business plan.

7.1.10 Trading and Liquidity in Shares and Escrowed Shareholders' Interests

There can be no guarantee that an active market for the Shares will develop. There may be relatively few potential buyers or sellers of the Shares on ASX at any given time. This may increase the volatility of the market price of the Shares. It may also impact the prevailing market price at which Shareholders are able to sell their Shares.

Depending on the number of Shares issued on Completion, escrowed shareholders will hold between 23 – 27% of all Shares on issue following listing. The inability of escrowed shareholders to sell any Shares during the two year restriction period may result in, or at least contribute to, limited liquidity in the market for the Shares during this time. This could impact the prevailing market price at which Shareholders are able to sell their Shares. It is important to recognise that, on a disposal, Shareholders may receive a market price for their Shares that is less than the price that they paid under the Offer.

Following release from escrow, Shares held by the escrowed Shareholders will be able to be freely traded on ASX. A significant sale of Shares by the escrowed Shareholders, or the perception that such sales have occurred or might occur, could adversely impact the price of the Shares. The escrowed Shareholders' shareholding may also allow them to, collectively, exert significant influence over the outcome of matters relating to the Company, including the election of Directors and the approval of transactions. The interests of the escrowed Shareholders may be different from the interests of investors who acquire Shares in the Offer. In the event that the amount raised pursuant to this Prospectus is less than $10 million and no Selling Shareholders are able to sell Shares prior to the listing, there may be a greater number of Shares in the market as those Selling Shareholders seek to realise some of their investment in DomaCom. This may have an adverse impact on the market price for Shares.

7.1.11 Significant holding retained by certain Existing Shareholders

Immediately after Completion, assuming that the Existing Shareholders and their associates do not subscribe for any Shares under the Offer and depending on the amount raised pursuant to this Prospectus, the Existing Shareholders will beneficially own between 75% and 94% of the Company's issued Shares.

The Existing Shareholders, if they act together, will be able to exert a significant degree of influence over the Company's management and affairs and over matters requiring Shareholder approval, including the election of Directors and approval of significant corporate transactions.

The interests of these Shareholders may differ from the interests of the Company and the interests of Shareholders who purchase Shares under the Offer. Also, while they hold a large stake in the Company, these Shareholders may be able to determine or influence whether a takeover or similar offer for the Shares is successful.

It should be noted that there are 200 Existing Shareholders, many of whom are sophisticated or professional investors who have had no prior relationship with the Company, its founders or staff prior to making their investments.

7.1.12 Risk of dilution

There is a risk that there will be additional equity raised in the future that could result in dilution for shareholders. While the Company will be subject to the constraints of the ASX Listing Rules regarding the percentage of its capital it is able to issue within a 12-month period (other than where exceptions apply), Shareholders may be diluted as a result of such issues of Shares and fundraising.

If only the minimum amount of funding is raised ($5 million) it is likely within a medium term period, that a further capital raising will be required.

7.1.13 Compliance with regulations

DomaCom Australia operates a registered Managed Investment Scheme that is subject to regulations, laws, standards and practices.

DomaCom Australia holds an AFSL required for the conduct of its regulated activities. Failure to comply with the terms of this licence could have significant consequences for DomaCom Australia, including removal of the AFSL resulting in DomaCom Australia no longer being able to operate or promote the DomaCom Fund. Failure to comply with the regulations could result in an inability of the business to operate, suspension of its licence and reputational damage to its brand.

DomaCom is subject to privacy laws in Australia. These laws regulate the handling of personal information and data collection. Such laws impact the way DomaCom can collect, use, analyse, transfer and share personal and other information. Any actual or perceived failure by DomaCom to comply with relevant laws and regulations may result in the imposition of fines or other penalties, client losses, a reduction in existing services, and limitations on the development of technology and services making use of such data. Any of these events could adversely impact DomaCom's business, financial condition and financial performance.

7.1.14 Impairment of Intangible Assets

DomaCom's balance sheet includes intangible assets. Under Australian Accounting Standards, goodwill and indefinite life intangible assets must be regularly tested for impairment. If impaired, DomaCom would need to write down the value of its intangible assets which would result in an expense in the income statement, thereby potentially materially impacting DomaCom's financial condition and reported earnings.

7.1.15 Reputational damage

DomaCom's brand is important in attracting and retaining clients to the DomaCom Fund. There is a risk that the brand may be tarnished by incidents such as negative publicity, data security breach or one-off unforeseen events that negatively impact DomaCom's operations. Even though the DomaCom Group is not involved in the selection of properties that the DomaCom Fund invests in, the failure of Crowdfunded investments could indirectly have a negative impact on DomaCom's brand and reputation. The occurrence of any such incidents may lead to client loss and the failure to attract new clients and grow FUM, which, in turn, may have an adverse impact on DomaCom's financial performance.

7.1.16 Litigation

DomaCom may in the ordinary course of business become involved in litigation and disputes, for example with its suppliers or clients. Any such litigation or dispute could involve significant economic costs and damage to relationships with suppliers, clients and/or other stakeholders. Any such outcomes may have an adverse impact on DomaCom's business, market reputation and financial condition and financial performance.

7.1.17 Failure to realise benefits from research and development investments

Developing software and technology is expensive and the investment in the development of these product and service offerings often involves an extended period of time to achieve a return on investment. For example, DomaCom estimates that it has invested approximately $3.1 million over the last five years in the development and implementation of its platform. An important element of DomaCom's corporate strategy is to continue to make investments in innovation and related product and service opportunities through internal investments and, potentially, the acquisition of intellectual property or businesses from third parties. DomaCom believes that it must continue to dedicate resources to its innovation efforts to develop its software and technology service offering and embed its competitive position. However, DomaCom may not receive significant revenues from these investments for several years, or may not realise such benefits at all.

7.1.18 Failure to protect IP rights

Third parties may knowingly or unknowingly infringe DomaCom's proprietary rights, and/or may challenge proprietary rights held by the DomaCom Group. In such cases, DomaCom may be required to expend significant time and expense in order to prevent infringement or to enforce its rights. If the protection of its proprietary rights is inadequate to prevent unauthorised use or appropriation by third parties, its competitors may be able to more effectively mimic its products, services, and methods of operation. Any of these events could have an adverse effect on its business, financial condition and financial performance.

7.1.19 Infringement of third party intellectual property rights

DomaCom may receive notices from third parties claiming infringement of their intellectual property rights and/or breach of its agreements with them. DomaCom cannot assure Applicants that such claims may not arise, including from its competitors, or that such claims may not require protracted negotiation, including litigation, to resolve, or the payment of monetary damages or the satisfaction of indemnification obligations in its agreements with suppliers. In addition, such claims may increase as DomaCom continues to grow and enter new markets. In such cases, if a determination was made that DomaCom had infringed such third party rights, DomaCom's business and financial condition may be adversely affected.

7.1.20 Failure to execute the planned growth strategy

DomaCom's growth strategy is focused on growing the number of members of the DomaCom Fund and the value of FUM. To the extent DomaCom is not able to execute its strategy, its business and growth prospects may be adversely impacted. In such cases, DomaCom may not be able to execute its growth strategy which could adversely impact its business and growth prospects.

7.2 General Risks

7.2.1 General Economic conditions

DomaCom business operates in the financial markets and within the general economy. Conditions which affect the economic conditions such as interest rates, inflation, level of unemployment and economic growth all may impact on DomaCom's ability to grow its business and be successful.

7.2.2 Force majeure

This is the occurrence of events which are beyond the Company's control. This could include the outbreak of war or acts of terrorism, or natural disaster events which occur inside or outside Australia which have a significant impact on DomaCom's business and its ability to achieve its goals and objectives.

7.2.3 Share market risks

The share market is subject to a wide range of factors which cause the share prices for company shares to rise and fall. The impact of both domestic and global economic factors, geopolitical factors, interest rates and level of inflation can all impact the local share market. This may cause the share price for DomaCom Shares to fall below their issue price.

7.2.4 Liquidity of shares

There can be no guarantees that there will be an active market in DomaCom Shares and therefore shareholders may have inability to sell their shares at or above the issue price.

7.2.5 Changes to Regulations - accounting standards and taxation

There is always a risk that a change may occur in the applicable laws and regulations, across accounting standards and within the Australian taxation regime. These changes could have an impact on DomaCom's business and in turn impact its share price.

8.4 Revenue

Management fees are charged on average Funds Under Management ("FUM") for Fractional Property Interests at a rate of 0.88% p.a. (inclusive of GST) and Cash at a rate of 0.22% p.a. (inclusive of GST).

At 31 March 2016 the DomaCom Fund comprised 16 sub-funds with a valuation of non-cash assets of $1.6 million and cash of $10.7 million representing total FUM of $12.4m.

The key driver of revenue is FUM in the DomaCom Fund. The growth in the properties on boarded is the key driver of revenue generated by DomaCom Australia.

Other revenue represents the portion of R&D grant monies received not eligible for set off against the capitalised R&D expenditure. See Section 8.6 for further details.

8.5 Expenses

8.5.1 Employee Expenses

Employment costs represent the largest expense of DomaCom and for the 9 months to 31 March 2016 represented 54% of the total expenses. As at 31 March 2016 there were a total of 26 full and part time employees. Since the business commenced there has been a gradual build up in the number of employees with increases being largely in the operational Information Technology and sales areas.

8.5.2 Marketing Expenses

Marketing expense excluding employees represented 11% of the DomaCom Group's total expenditure for the period ended 31 March 2016.

The expenditure relates to the marketing of our brand and the promotion of products to our targeted audience, the attendance at sales conferences of intermediaries (dealer groups and financial planners), and payment for research of the DomaCom Fund by research houses.

8.5.3 Other Expenses

Other key expenses include professional fees (that are paid to external legal firms and accounting and taxation advisers), rental expenses of office premises, and fund administration costs including the services of the Responsible Entity, Custodian and fund administrator.

During the financial years ending 2013, 2014 and 2015 members of the DomaCom Group incurred expenditure that was eligible for the receipt of Research and Development Grants. This has arisen due to the research and development activities related to the DomaCom Platform.

Table 5 Analysis of R&D Claims

RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT	FY 2013	FY2014	FY2015	FY2016*
Amount	1,339,169	2,140,880	1,982,093	653,900
Cash Refund 45% of the claim	602,626	963,396	891,942	294,255

* Subsequent to 31 March 2016 an additional $294,255 has been received as a result of resubmitted R&D tax claims for FY2014 and FY2015. These reclaims have been included as Other Income in the period to 31 March 2016.

The originally submitted Research and Development claims were independently verified by our external R&D consultants. The resubmitted claims for FY2014 and FY2015 were also independently verified.

To the extent members of the DomaCom Group incur eligible expenditure, annual R&D claims will continue to be made. Claims are submitted based on expenditure incurred during the year and independently verified for eligibility. The accounting policy adopted by the DomaCom Group is to recognise the claims once reviewed by an independent expert and submitted to the ATO, therefore, no amount has been recorded for eligible expenditure incurred during the 9 month period ended 31 March 2016. The recognition of the claim for the year ended 30 June 2016 will have the impact of reducing the carrying value of the capitalised development expenditure which includes expenditure capitalised during the period ended 31 March 2016.

8.6.1 Change in accounting policy

The DomaCom Group has made a change to its accounting policy in respect to R&D claims. Under the previous accounting policy any claims submitted to AusIndustry and the ATO would be recognised in full as a tax credit in the period for which the claim was made. Under the revised accounting policy, the claim is offset against eligible capitalised R&D expenditure. To the extent the claim relates to costs that were expensed as they did not meet the capitalisation criteria under AASB 138 Intangible Assets, this amount is recognised as Other Income. The purpose of the change in accounting policy is to match the treatment of the claims with the underlying expenditure. The revised treatment is consistent with best practice and provides a clearer representation of the linked transactions. The change in accounting policy requires the restatement of prior year financial statements as summarised below (See Table 6 Analysis of the impact of change in accounting policy).

Table 6 Analysis of the impact of change in accounting policy

Intangible Assets	FY2014 2,938,908	FY2014 RESTATED 1,636,398	FY2015 3,996,819	FY2015 RESTATED 2,224,141
Deferred tax liability	(868,340)	-	(1,181,785)	-
Accumulated Losses	(1,897,966)	(2,332,136)	(5,737,388)	(6,328,281)
Other Income	-	240,997	-	421,774
Income tax benefit /(expense)	392,112	(89,685)	601,897	23,400

The original accounting treatment of recognising the R&D claim as an immediate credit to income tax benefit caused a difference in the carrying value of the capitalised intangible asset and the tax base that resulted in the creation of a deferred tax liability. The change in accounting policy will have the impact of aligning accounting and tax carrying values.

With the change in accounting policy resulting in a deferred tax liability no longer being recognised, an adjustment has also been made to remove the deferred tax asset of $125,585 at 30 June 2015 from the Statement of Financial Position as it is not considered appropriate to recognise this asset in the absence of a corresponding deferred tax liability due to uncertainty of recoverability.

8.11 Significant accounting policies

8.11.1 Basis of consolidation

The DomaCom Group financial statements consolidate those of the Parent Company and all of its subsidiaries. The Parent Company controls a subsidiary if it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the subsidiary and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the subsidiary. All subsidiaries have a reporting date of 30 June.

All transactions and balances between Group Companies are eliminated on consolidation, including unrealised gains and losses on transactions between Group Companies. Where unrealised losses on intra-group asset sales are reversed on consolidation, the underlying asset is also tested for impairment from a Group perspective. Amounts reported in the financial statements of Subsidiaries have been adjusted where necessary to ensure consistency with the accounting policies adopted by the DomaCom Group.

Profit or loss and other comprehensive income of subsidiaries acquired or disposed of during the period are recognised from the effective date of acquisition, or up to the effective date of disposal, as applicable.

Non-controlling interests, presented as part of equity, represent the portion of a subsidiary's profit or loss and net assets that is not held by the DomaCom Group. The DomaCom Group attributes total comprehensive income or loss of subsidiaries between the owners of the Parent and the non-controlling interests based on their respective ownership interests.

8.11.2 Revenue

Revenue arises from the investment management services provided to the DomaCom Fund and is recognised on an accruals basis. Interest income and expense are reported on an accruals basis. The DomaCom Group may be entitled to claim a refundable tax credit for eligible research and development expenditure (eg the Research and Development Tax Incentive regime in Australia or other investment allowances). The DomaCom Group accounts for a claim as an offset against eligible capitalised R&D expenditure. To the extent the claim relates to costs that were expensed as they did not meet the capitalisation criteria under AASB 138 Intangible Assets, this amount is recognised as Other Income.

8.11.3 Operating expenses

Operating expenses are recognised in profit or loss upon utilisation of the service or at the date of their origin.

8.11.4 Intangible assets

Recognition of Acquired intangible assets

Acquired computer software is capitalised on the basis of the costs incurred to acquire and install the specific software.

Internally developed intangibles

Expenditure on the research phase of projects to develop the software platform is recognised as an expense as incurred.

Costs that are directly attributable to a project's development phase are recognised as intangible assets, provided they meet the following recognition requirements:

- the development costs can be measured reliably
- the project is technically and commercially feasible
- the DomaCom Group intends to and has sufficient resources to complete the project
- the DomaCom Group has the ability to use or sell the asset
- the software will generate probable future economic benefits

Development costs not meeting these criteria for capitalisation are expensed as incurred.

Subsequent measurement

All intangible assets, including the internally developed software platform, are accounted for using the cost model whereby capitalised costs are amortised on a systematic basis over their estimated useful lives, as these assets are considered finite. Residual values and useful lives are reviewed at each reporting date. In addition, they are subject to impairment testing.

Any capitalised internally developed asset that is not yet complete is not amortised but is subject to impairment testing.

The DomaCom Group may be entitled to claim a refundable tax credit for eligible research and development expenditure (eg the Research and Development Tax Incentive regime in Australia or other investment allowances). The DomaCom Group accounts for a claim as an offset against eligible capitalised R&D expenditure to the extent the claim relates to capitalised expenditure. Subsequent expenditures on the maintenance of computer software and the software platform will be expensed as incurred.

When an intangible asset is disposed of, the gain or loss on disposal is determined as the difference between the proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, and is recognised in profit or loss within other income or other expenses.

8.11.5 Income taxes

Tax expense recognised in profit or loss comprises the sum of deferred tax and current tax not recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current income tax assets and/or liabilities comprise those obligations to, or claims from, the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) and other fiscal authorities relating to the current or prior reporting periods, that are unpaid at the reporting date. Current tax is payable on taxable profit, which differs from profit or loss in the financial statements. Calculation of current tax is based on tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred income taxes are calculated using the liability method on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases. However, deferred tax is not provided on the initial recognition of goodwill, or on the initial recognition of an asset or liability unless the related transaction is a business combination or affects tax or accounting profit. Deferred tax on temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and joint ventures is not provided if reversal of these temporary differences can be controlled by the DomaCom Group and it is probable that reversal will not occur in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are calculated, without discounting, at tax rates that are expected to apply to their respective period of realisation, provided they are enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that they will be able to be utilised against future taxable income, based on the DomaCom Group's forecast of future operating results which is adjusted for significant non-taxable income and expenses and specific limits to the use of any unused tax loss or credit. Deferred tax liabilities are always provided for in full.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset only when the DomaCom Group has a right and intention to set off current tax assets and liabilities from the same taxation authority.

Changes in deferred tax assets or liabilities are recognised as a component of tax income or expense in profit or loss, except where they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income (such as the revaluation of land) or directly in equity, in which case the related deferred tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or equity, respectively.

8.11.6 Employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits, including annual leave entitlement, are current liabilities included in employee benefits, measured at the undiscounted amount that the DomaCom Group expects to pay as a result of the unused entitlement.

Share-based payments

Share-based compensation benefits are provided to employees for no cash consideration. The fair value of shares granted is recognised as an employee benefit expense with a corresponding increase in equity. The fair value is measured at grant date and recognised over the period during which the employees become unconditionally entitled to the shares. Performance Rights issued to Directors and Employees are described in Directors' Interest and Remuneration (Section 10.2).

8.11.7 Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provisions for legal disputes, onerous contracts or other claims are recognised when the DomaCom Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of economic resources will be required from the DomaCom Group and amounts can be estimated reliably. Timing or amount of the outflow may still be uncertain.

Provisions are measured at the estimated expenditure required to settle the present obligation, based on the most reliable evidence available at the reporting date, including the risks and uncertainties associated with the present obligation. Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. Provisions are discounted to their present values, where the time value of money is material.

Any reimbursement that the DomaCom Group can be virtually certain to collect from a third party with respect to the obligation is recognised as a separate asset. However, this asset may not exceed the amount of the related provision.

In those cases where the possible outflow of economic resources as a result of present obligations is considered improbable or remote, no liability is recognised.

- The audited consolidated historical statement of cash flows of the Group for FY2014 and FY2015, and the reviewed consolidated historical statement of cash flows for the nine months ending 31 March 2016;
- The audited consolidated historical statement of financial position of the Group as at 30 June 2014 and 30 June 2015, and the reviewed consolidated historical statement of financial position as at 31 March 2016; and
- The pro forma consolidated statement of financial position of the Group as at 31 March 2016, which assumes completion of the transactions outlined in Section 8.10 of the "Financial Information" section (which include the Offer) (the "Pro Forma Transactions") as though they had occurred on that date.

The Historical Financial Information other than the Pro Forma Transactions and the results of the associated adjustments to the consolidated pro forma statement of financial position has been extracted from the audited financial statements for FY2014 and FY2015 which were audited by Grant Thornton Audit Pty Ltd restated for the impact of change in accounting policy detail in Section 8.6.1. Grant Thornton Audit Pty Ltd issued unqualified audit opinions in respect of these periods with an emphasis of matter on going concern.

The stated basis of preparation is the recognition and measurement principles contained under Australian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("AGAAP") and the DomaCom adopted accounting principles applied to the Historical Financial Information.

The Historical Financial Information is presented in an abbreviated form insofar as it does not include all of the presentation and disclosures required and other mandatory professional reporting requirements applicable to general purpose financial reports prepared in Australia in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001.

This report has been prepared for inclusion in the Prospectus. Grant Thornton Corporate Finance disclaim any assumption of responsibility for any reliance on this report or on the Historical Financial Information to which this report relates for any purpose other than the purposes for which it was prepared. This report should be read in conjunction with the Prospectus.

Directors' Responsibility

The Directors of DomaCom are responsible for the preparation and presentation of the Historical Financial Information. The Directors are also responsible for the determination of the Pro Forma Transactions and the basis of preparation of the Historical Financial Information.

This responsibility also includes compliance with applicable laws and regulations and for such internal controls as the Directors determine necessary to enable the preparation of the Historical Financial Information that are free from material misstatement.

Our Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express a limited assurance conclusion on the Historical Financial Information based on the procedures performed and evidence we have obtained. We have conducted our engagement in accordance with the Standard on Assurance Engagements ASAE 3450: "Assurance Engagements involving Corporate Fundraisings and/ or Prospective Historical Financial Information" and ASAE 3420: "Assurance Engagements to Report on the Compilation of Pro Forma Historical Financial Information".

Our procedures consisted of making enquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and review procedures applied to the accounting records in support of the Historical Financial Information.

These procedures are substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards and consequently does not enable us to obtain reasonable assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. We have not performed an audit and, accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion on the Historical Financial Information.

Our engagement did not involve updating or reissuing any previously issued audit reports on any historical financial information used as a source of the Historical Financial Information.

Conclusion

Historical Financial Information

Based on our independent review, which is not an audit, nothing has come to our attention which causes us to believe that:

- The Historical Financial Information as described in the "Financial Information" section of the Prospectus does not present fairly:
 - The audited consolidated historical statement of comprehensive income of the Group for FY2014 and FY2015, and the reviewed consolidated historical statement of comprehensive income for the nine months ended 31 March 2016;
 - The audited consolidated historical statement of cash flows of the Group for FY2014 and FY2015, and the reviewed consolidated historical statement of cash flows for the nine months ended 31 March 2016;
 - The audited consolidated historical statement of financial position of the Group as at 30 June 2014 and 30 June 2015, and the reviewed consolidated historical statement of financial position as at 31 March 2016; or
 - The pro forma consolidated historical statement of financial position of the Group as at 31 March 2016; or

• The pro forma consolidated statement of financial position of the Group as at 31 March 2016 has not been properly prepared on the basis of the Pro Forma Transactions or the Pro Forma Transactions do not set out a reasonable basis for it;

in accordance with the measurement and recognition requirements (but not all of the presentation and disclosure requirements) of applicable Accounting Standards and other mandatory professional reporting requirements under AGAAP.

Restriction on Use

Without modifying our conclusion, we draw attention to the "Financial Information" section of the Propsectus, which describes the purpose of the Historical Financial Information, being for inclusion in the Prospectus. As a result, the Historical Financial Information may not be suitable for use for another purpose.

Consent

Grant Thornton Corporate Finance consents to the inclusion of this Independent Limited Assurance Report in the Prospectus in the form and context in which it is included.

Liability

The liability of Grant Thornton Corporate Finance is limited to the inclusion of this report in the Prospectus. Grant Thornton Corporate Finance makes no representation regarding, and has no liability, for any other statements or other material in, or omissions from the Prospectus.

Independence or Disclosure of Interest

Grant Thornton Corporate Finance does not have any pecuniary interests that could reasonably be regarded as being capable of affecting its ability to give an unbiased conclusion in this matter. Grant Thornton Corporate Finance will receive a professional fee for the preparation of this Independent Limited Assurance Report.

10.2.2 Non-Executive Directors remuneration

Under the Constitution, the Board may decide the remuneration from the Company to which each Director is entitled for his or her services as a Director. However, under the ASX Listing Rules, the total amount of fees payable to all Directors for their services (excluding for these purposes, the remuneration of the Executive Directors) must not exceed in aggregate, in any financial year, the amount fixed by the Company in its general meeting. This amount has been capped by the Company at $180,000 per annum. Any increase to that aggregate annual sum needs to be approved by Shareholders. Directors will seek approval of the Shareholders from time to time, as appropriate.

This aggregate annual sum does not include any special remuneration which the Board may grant to the Directors for special exertions or additional services performed by a Director for, or at the request of the Company, which may be made in addition to, or in substitution for the Directors' fees.

For FY2016, it is expected that the fees payable to the current Non-Executive Directors will not exceed $180,000 in aggregate. The annual Directors' fees currently agreed to be paid by the Company are $60,000 (exclusive of GST) to the Chairman and $40,000 (exclusive of GST) to each of the other Non-Executive Directors.

Superannuation payments are included in Director's fees with the exception of Grahame Evans.

10.2.3 Deeds of access, indemnity and insurance

The Company has entered into a deed of access, indemnity and insurance with each Director which contains the Director's right of access to Board papers and requires the Company to indemnify, to the extent permitted by the Corporations Act, each Director in respect of certain losses and liabilities (including all reasonable legal expenses) which the Director may incur as a result of, or by reason of (whether solely or in part), being or acting as a Director of the Company or of a related body corporate.

Under the deeds of access, indemnity and insurance, the Company must maintain a directors' and officers' insurance policy insuring each Director (amongst others) against liability as a director of the Company and its related bodies corporate for the period that they are directors and for seven years after they cease to act as directors of the Company or a related body corporate (or the date any relevant proceedings commenced during the seven-year period have been finally resolved).

10.2.4 Other entitlements

In 2014 the DomaCom Group's shareholders approved a Director Long Term Incentive Plan and Employee Long Term Incentive Plan (LTIP). The first awards were made under the LTIP in December 2015. The LTIP was established as a retention strategy and an incentive for staff and directors to continue to work hard for the DomaCom Group. Through obtaining equity, staff are motivated to strive to make the DomaCom Group successful as they will ultimately share in the success. All Directors (excluding the CEO) and employees who were employed on 14th of December 2015 have been granted performance rights.

Once vested, each Performance Right that Mr Laidlaw holds can be converted to ordinary shares at any time he chooses to exercise his rights between the date of vesting and 31 December 2018.

10.3 Corporate governance

The Board is responsible for the overall corporate governance of the Company, including establishing and monitoring key performance goals. The Board monitors the operational and financial position and performance of the Company and oversees its business strategy, including approving the strategic goals of the Company and considering and approving an annual business plan (including a budget). The Board is committed to maximising performance, generating appropriate levels of Shareholder value and financial return and sustaining the growth and success of the Company. In conducting the Company's business with these objectives, the Board seeks to ensure that the Company is properly managed to protect and enhance Shareholder interests, and that the Company and its Directors, officers and personnel operate in an appropriate environment of corporate governance. Accordingly, the Board has created a framework for managing the Company, including adopting relevant internal controls, risk management processes and corporate governance policies and practices which it believes are appropriate for the Company's business and which are designed to promote the responsible management and conduct of the Company.

The ASX Corporate Governance Council has developed and released its third edition of the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations for Australian listed entities in order to promote investor confidence and to assist companies in meeting stakeholder expectations. The ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations are not prescriptions, but guidelines. However, under the ASX Listing Rules, the Company will be required to provide a statement in its annual report disclosing the extent to which it has followed the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations in the reporting period. Where the Company does not follow a recommendation, it must identify the recommendation that has not been followed and provide reasons for not following it. Section 10.3 sets out a brief summary of the approach currently adopted by the Company in relation to the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations.

The DomaCom Board meets monthly and is responsible for the overall governance of the DomaCom Group and oversees the management of the DomaCom business. The Board reviews the development of the Company including its operational and financial performance and ensures it is compliant within the various laws, regulations and guidelines within which it operates. The Board reviews, discusses and agrees on DomaCom's strategy with the goal of maximising shareholder value, through the successful performance of the business. The Board, management and employees operate within a strong framework of corporate governance to protect the interests of shareholders, investors, directors and staff.

The Board will continue to ensure that it has the necessary skills and experience to carry out its roles and responsibilities in the operation of the DomaCom business.

The Company's constitution requires that one third of the directors, other than the Managing Director (CEO), must retire by rotation at each AGM.

The Board is responsible for the overall governance of the Company. Issues of substance affecting the Company are considered by the Board, with advice from external advisers as required.

Each Director must bring an independent view and judgement to the Board and must declare all actual or potential conflicts of interest on an ongoing basis. Any issue concerning a Director's ability to properly act as a Director must be discussed at a Board meeting as soon as practicable, and a Director may not participate in discussions or resolutions pertaining to any matter in which the Director has a material personal interest.

In accordance with the Board Charter (see Section 10.3.2), it is intended that the Board will be comprised of a majority of independent directors. The Board considers an independent Director to be a Non-Executive Director who is independent of management and any substantial shareholder.

In approaching the question of independence, the Board has adopted a definition of independence that is based on the definition set out in the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations. Accordingly, in considering independence any business or other relationship that could materially interfere with or reasonably be perceived to interfere with the independent and unfettered exercise of a Director's judgement are also taken into account. The Board will consider the materiality of any given relationship on a case-by-case basis. The Board assesses independence of directors upon appointment and annually through attestation from each director.

10.3.2 Board Charter

A Board Charter prepared having regard to the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations, has been adopted by the Board and covers the independence of directors (as described above), the Board's responsibility for overall governance of the Company, the Board members' roles, powers and responsibilities.

The Committee has no delegated authority from the Board to determine the outcomes of its reviews and investigations and the Board retains its authority over such matters.

The Committee must have at least three members, a majority of whom must be independent non-executive directors.

At least one member of the Committee should have significant expertise in financial reporting, accounting or auditing. The Chairman of the Committee should act independently and must not be the Chairman of the Board.

Once listed on the ASX, the Company will need to comply with the continuous disclosure requirements of the ASX Listing Rules and the Corporations Act to ensure the Company discloses to the ASX any information concerning the Company which is not generally available and which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the Shares. As such, this policy sets out certain procedures and measures which are designed to ensure that the Company complies with its continuous disclosure obligations.

Staff Trading policy

This policy is designed to maintain investor confidence in the integrity of the Company's internal controls and procedures and to provide guidance on avoiding any breach of insider trading laws. It addresses both trading in securities by staff and exercise of vested performance rights.

Risk Management Policy

This policy sets out how the Company evaluates the effectiveness of its risk management framework to ensure that its internal control systems and processes are monitored and updated on an ongoing basis.

10.4.1 ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations

The Board has evaluated the Company's current corporate governance policies and practices in light of the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations. A brief summary of the approach currently adopted by the Company is set out below.

Principle 1 - Lay solid foundations for management and oversight

The respective roles and responsibilities of the Board and executives are defined in the Board Charter, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.domacom.com.au/investor-relations

There is a clear delineation between the Board's responsibility for the Company's strategy and activities, and the day-to-day management of operations conferred upon the Company's officers.

The Company Secretary, Philip Chard, reports directly to the Chairman of the Board in his role as Company Secretary. In his role as Financial Controller he reports directly to the Chief Financial Officer. The role of the Company Secretary is outlined in the Board Charter.

The Chairman is responsible for advising the Board as a whole on the composition of the Board and its committees, reviewing the performance of the Board, its committees and the individual Directors and ensuring the proper succession plans are in place.

The Nominations Committee at present comprises the full Board.

The Company has adopted a Diversity Policy, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.domacom.com.au/investor-relations. The Company's Diversity Policy requires the Board to establish measurable objectives to assist the Company in achieving gender diversity and provides for the Board to review the Company's progress in meeting these objectives.

Principle 2 - Structure the Board to add value

The Board is comprised of two Executive and four Non-Executive Directors (each of whom is an independent non-executive) and the roles of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer are exercised by two separate individuals.

The majority of Directors are considered independent based on the independence requirements in the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations and the Company's Chairman is also considered to be an independent Director based on the independence requirements in the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations.

The Board believes that the size, composition and skills of the Board are appropriate for the Company's business and circumstances and are in the best interests of Shareholders as a whole. The Board is responsible for regularly reviewing its size, composition and skills to ensure that it is able to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively, and to identify any gaps in the skills or experience of the Board. The Company with the assistance of the Board provides continuing education for Directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their roles as Directors effectively.

Principle 3 – Act ethically and responsibly

The Company has adopted a Code of Conduct which applies to all directors, officers, employees, contractors or consultants of the Company as well as a Staff Trading Policy.

Each of these has been prepared having regard to the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations and is available on the Company's website at www.domacom.com.au/investor-relations

Principle 4 – Safeguard integrity in financial reporting

The Company has established an Audit Committee to oversee the management of financial and internal risks. It does not currently comply with all of the best practice recommendations contained in the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations, specifically in that one of its members is an executive director. When the Company is listed it will consider how best to reconstitute its Audit committee and address the differences between the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations and its current practices.

The Audit committee is governed by the Audit Committee Charter, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.domacom.com.au/investor-relations

Principle 5 - Make timely and balanced disclosure

The Company is committed to providing timely and balanced disclosure to the market in accordance with its Continuous Disclosure Policy, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.domacom.com.au/investor-relations

Principle 6 – Respect the rights of security holders

The Company has adopted a Shareholder Communications Policy which promotes two way communication between the Company and its Shareholders. The Company seeks to recognise numerous modes of communication, including electronic communication, to ensure that its communication with Shareholders is frequent, clear and accessible.

The Company will provide investors with comprehensive and timely access to information about itself and its governance website at www.domacom.com.au/investor-relations

All Shareholders will be invited to attend the Company's annual meeting, either in person or by representative. The Board regards the annual meeting as an excellent forum in which to discuss issues relevant to the Company and accordingly encourages full participation by Shareholders. Shareholders have an opportunity to submit questions to the Board and to the Company's independent auditor.

Principle 7 – Recognise and manage risk

In conjunction with the Company's other corporate governance policies, the Company has adopted a Risk Management Policy, which is designed to assist the Company to identify, evaluate and mitigate risks affecting the Company.

The Company's Board is responsible for reviewing whether the Company has any material exposure to any economic, environmental and social sustainability risks, and if so, to develop strategies to manage such risks.

Regular internal communication between the Company's management and Board supplements the Company's quality control system, complaint handling processes, employee policies and standard operating procedures which are all designed to address various forms of risks. The Company regularly evaluates the effectiveness of its risk management framework to ensure that its internal control systems and processes are monitored and updated on an ongoing basis. The Company's Board is responsible for providing an independent and objective assessment regarding the adequacy, effectiveness and efficiency of the Company's risk management and internal control process.

A copy of the Company's Risk Management Policy is available on the Company's website at www.domacom.com.au/investor-relations

Principle 8 – Remunerate fairly and responsibly

The Company's Board oversees the level and composition of remuneration of the Directors and DomaCom Group's executives. The Company will provide disclosure of its Directors' and executives' remuneration in its annual report.

11.1 The Offer

This Prospectus relates to an offer of between 6,666,667 and 31,609,966 ordinary Shares in DomaCom at a price of $0.75 cents per Share. If Applications total more than $10 million but less than or equal to $15,707,475, up to $5,707,475 will be paid to the Selling Shareholders who are selling some or all of their Shares into this Offer. Any Applications received in excess of $15,707,475 and up to $23,707,475 will be applied to the issue of additional Shares.

The percentage of Shares which will be held by successful Applicants on Completion will depend on whether the Offer is closed on achieving the minimum subscription or a greater amount. The following table demonstrates some of the possible outcomes.

The Offer has been underwritten by the Underwriters (severally) up to the maximum number of $5 million to raise the minimum subscription amount of $5 million pursuant to the Underwriting Agreements. A summary of the Underwriting Agreement, including the events which would entitle the Underwriters (severally) to terminate their Underwriting Agreement, is set out in Section 12.5.5.

AGGREGATE VALUE OF APPLICATIONS	NEW SHARES ISSUED	EXISTING SHARES TO BE TRANSFERRED	TOTAL SHARES ON ISSUE ON COMPLETION	PERCENTAGE HELD BY SUCCESSFUL APPLICANTS
$5million	6,666,667	-	107,462,308	6.20%
$10million	13,333,333	-	114,128,974	11.68%
$15.7million*	13,333,333	7,609,966	114,128,974	18.35%
$23.7million	24,000,000	7,609,966	124,795,641	25.33%

Table 15 Indicative numbers of Shares to be issued under the Offer

*In this scenario some, but not all, of the Existing Shares that can be transferred under the Offer will be sold. If less than $15.7 million and more than $10.0 million is raised then the amount allocated to Existing Shareholders selling down will be allocated on a proportional basis.

The Offer is made on the basis of the terms and conditions set out in this Prospectus.

11.2 The Purpose of the Offer and use of proceeds

The purpose of the Offer is to:

- provide further capital for the business to fund further growth of the DomaCom Fund and significantly increase its funds under management, which it in turn generates revenue for DomaCom in the form of management fees;
- allow DomaCom the ability to increase its sales and marketing efforts into both the intermediary and direct consumer channels for its products;
- support the launch and development of the DomaCom Equity Release and Corporate Bond products;
- continuing to develop and enhance the Platform functionality and provide tools that assist intermediaries to provide efficient, transparent and cost effective services to their clients;

- to improve the financial strength of the DomaCom Group, in turn increasing the confidence of intermediaries in DomaCom's products and longevity;
- provide a liquid market for the DomaCom shares and allow new shareholders to invest in DomaCom;
- assist in retaining and attracting employees to the company through the ability to provide shares to them in a publicly listed company; and
- subject to Applications having an aggregate value of $10 million or greater, provide a mechanism for the Selling Shareholders to realise all or a portion of their investment.

If only the minimum amount of the capital raising is achieved (being $5 million), this will curtail the amount of activity DomaCom could undertake in sales and marketing programs to grow FUM and build brand awareness in the direct consumer market. It is likely to lead to the need for a further capital raising in the medium term to meet working capital requirements.

Increases in the amount of capital raised will allow DomaCom to accelerate its sales and marketing efforts both into the intermediated and direct consumer channels, increase the speed of the development and enhancement of the Platform and commence exploring opportunities for growing the DomaCom business globally.

Increases in capital raised will also improve the financial strength of the Company, which will support the accelerated use of the Platform by intermediaries.

The Directors intend to use DomaCom's cash reserves and any surplus cash flow to fund the business, rather than distributing these funds as dividends. The Directors can give no assurance as to the amount, timing, franking or payment of any future dividends by DomaCom.

12.4 Director and Employee Long Term Incentive Plan (LTIP)

12.4.1 Background

In 2014 the Company established a long term equity-based incentive plan for Directors and staff, in order to:

- reward directors and employees of the DomaCom Group;
- assist in the retention and motivation of directors and employees of the DomaCom Group; and
- provide an incentive to directors and employees of the Company to grow shareholder value by providing them with an opportunity to receive an ownership interest in the Company.

The Company's long term incentive plan (LTIP) provides for the award of both Employee Share Options and Employee Performance Rights under which Directors, executives, other employees, contractors and consultants of the DomaCom Group may be offered the opportunity to be granted Options or Performance Rights on terms set by the Board in its discretion.

The Board is of the view that to secure employees and Directors who can best assist the DomaCom Group in achieving its objectives, it is necessary to provide remuneration and incentives to such personnel. Accordingly, the LTIP was designed to provide such incentives and to recognise the contribution of personnel to the DomaCom Group's success. At the time the LTIP was prepared and the first awards were made under it the Board was of the view that Performance Rights were a more cost effective and efficient incentive for the DomaCom Group employees (as opposed to alternative forms of incentives such as increased cash based remuneration). Accordingly, the LTIP and the initial awards made under it were designed to achieve this objective, by encouraging continued improvement in performance over time and by encouraging personnel to acquire and retain shareholdings in the Company.

The Directors have the discretion to invite qualifying employees and consultants to apply for Options or Performance Rights as they consider appropriate. The exercise price of the Options will be the price determined by the Board in its absolute discretion prior to or on grant of the Options. The performance hurdles associated with any Performance Rights issued under the plan will also be determined by the Directors at the time an invitation is made.

When the first awards under the LTIP were made, in order that participants receive the full benefit of their LTIP, additional criteria for performance rights available to current employees including Directors were imposed. These are described in Section 10.2.7. The conditions imposed on the awards of performance rights made to staff are the same as those imposed on the awards made to non-executive Directors and performance rights awarded to staff and non-executive directors will vest (that is, they will be able to be converted into ordinary shares) when the Company is listed. It should be noted that the conditions imposed on Mr Ross Laidlaw's award are different to those imposed on staff and non-executive directors. Further, although eligible to participate, Mr Arthur Naoumidis (the Company's CEO and single largest shareholder) elected not to seek any performance rights in the initial award.

The Directors believe that the terms of the LTIP are consistent with schemes adopted by other Australian companies with similar risk/reward profiles.

12.4.2 Summary of terms of LTIP

Eligibility

The Board may, in its absolute discretion, invite an Eligible Employee to participate in an award of Performance Rights. An Eligible Employee includes a director, senior executive or employee of the Company or an associated body corporate of the Company.

Terms of Performance Rights

- Each Performance Right will be granted to Eligible Employees under the LTIP for nil consideration.
- Each Performance Right will entitle its holder to subscribe for and be issued, one fully paid ordinary share in the capital of the Company (upon vesting (where applicable) and exercise of that Performance Right).

- If the Company is admitted to the official list of the ASX (or another stock exchange) the Performance Rights will not be listed for quotation on that exchange, however, the Company will apply for official quotation of the Shares issued upon the exercise of any vested Performance Rights.
- The grant date and expiry date of a Performance Right shall be as determined by the Board when an invitation to participate in the LTIP is made.
- No payment is required for the exercise of a Performance Right, unless otherwise determined by the Board and advised to Eligible Employee at the time the offer is made.
- A participant is not entitled to participate in or receive any dividend or other Shareholder benefits until its Performance Rights have vested and been exercised and Shares have been allocated to the participant as a result of the exercise of those Performance Rights.
- There are no participating rights or entitlements inherent in the Performance Rights and participants will not be entitled to participate in new issues of securities offered to Shareholders of the Company during the currency of the Performance Rights.
- Following the issue of Shares following exercise of vested Performance Rights, participants will be entitled to exercise all rights of a Shareholder attaching to the Shares, subject to any disposal restrictions advised to the participant at the time of the grant of the Performance Rights.

Performance conditions

When granting Performance Rights, the Board may make their vesting conditional on the satisfaction of a Performance Condition within a specified period. The Board may at any time waive or change a Performance Condition or performance period in accordance with the LTIP rules if the Board (acting reasonably) considers it appropriate to do so.

Vesting

The Performance Rights will vest following satisfaction of the Performance Conditions or such other date as determined by the Board in its discretion.

Subject to the LTIP rules, the Board may declare that all or a specified number of any unvested Performance Rights granted to a participant which have not lapsed immediately vest if, in the opinion of the Board a change of control in relation to the Company has occurred, or is likely to occur, having regard to the participant's pro rata performance in relation to the applicable Performance Conditions up to that date.

Subject to the LTIP rules, the Board may in its absolute discretion, declare the vesting of a Performance Right where the Company is wound up or passes a resolution to dispose of its main undertaking.

If there is any internal reconstruction or acquisition of the Company which does not involve a significant change in the identity of the ultimate Shareholders of the Company, the Board may declare in its sole discretion whether and to what extent Performance Rights, which have not vested by the day the reconstruction takes place, will vest.

Disposal restrictions

A participant may not assign, transfer, novate, or otherwise dispose of a Performance Right granted under the LTIP without the prior consent of the Board, or where such assignment or transfer occurs by force of law upon the death of a participant.

Overriding restrictions

No grant or issue of Performance Rights and/or Shares will be made to the extent that it would contravene the Constitution, any applicable Listing Rules, the Corporations Act or any other applicable law.

Lapse

A Performance Right will immediately lapse upon the first to occur of:

- its expiry date;
- the Performance Condition(s) (if any) not being satisfied prior to the end of the performance period(s);
- the transfer or purported transfer of the Performance Right in breach of the LTIP rules;
- if the Performance Right has not vested, the day that is 30 days following the date the participant voluntarily or for a bona fide reason ceases to be employed or engaged by the Company or an associated body corporate;
- termination of the participant's employment or engagement with the Company or an associated body corporate for cause; or
- unless another expiry date is stipulated in the invitation, 6 months after an event which gives rise to a vesting under the Performance Right rules established by the LTIP.

Where a participant ceases to be employed or engaged by the Company or an associated body corporate by reason of their death, disability, bona fide redundancy, and the Performance Rights have vested, they will remain exercisable by that participant's estate or legal representative until the Performance Rights lapse in accordance with the LTIP rules or if they have not vested, the Board will determine as soon as reasonably practicable after the date the participant ceases to be employed or engaged, how many (if any) of those participant's Performance Rights will be deemed to have vested and will be exercisable by that participant's estate or legal representative.

The Sponsoring Retail Broker disclaims all responsibility, whether to DomaCom or to third parties, for all claims arising out of advice given by it based upon information provided to it by DomaCom or third parties which is materially misleading, inaccurate or incomplete. Where any damage or loss is suffered by DomaCom for which the Sponsoring Retail Broker is liable and for which any third party or third parties are liable to it, the extent to which such loss will be recoverable by DomaCom from the Sponsoring Retail Broker will:

- be limited so as to be in proportion to the Sponsoring Retail Broker's contribution to the overall fault for such damage or loss, as agreed between the parties or, in the absence of agreement, as finally determined by a Court of competent jurisdiction; and
- be no more than it would have been had any limitation not been agreed to by DomaCom.

The Company will not issue certificates to Shareholders. Shareholders who are allotted Shares under this Prospectus will be provided with a transaction confirmation statement that sets out the number of Shares allotted to the Shareholder. Shareholders who elect to hold Shares on the issuer-sponsored sub-register will be provided with a holding statement (similar to a bank account statement), that sets out the number of Shares allotted to the Shareholder to the Shareholder under this Prospectus. For Shareholders who elect to hold their Shares on the CHESS sub-register, the Company will issue an advice that sets out the number of Shares allotted to the Shareholder under this Prospectus. At the end of the month of allotment, CHESS, acting on behalf of the Company, will provide Shareholders with a holding statement that confirms the number of Shares held and any transactions executed by the Shareholder during that month.

12.17 Australian taxation implications

The following comments provide a general summary of Australian tax issues for Applicants who are Australian tax resident investors who acquire Shares under this Prospectus. The categories of investors considered in this summary are limited to individuals, certain companies, trusts, partnerships and complying superannuation funds, each of whom hold their Shares on capital account.

This summary does not consider the consequences for non-Australian tax resident investors, or Australian tax resident investors who are insurance companies, banks, investors that hold their Shares on revenue account or carry on a business of trading in Shares or investors who are exempt from Australian tax. This summary also does not cover the consequences for Australian tax resident investors who are subject to Division 230 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (the Taxation of Financial Arrangements or "TOFA" regime).

This summary is based on the law in Australia in force at the time of issue of this Prospectus. This summary does not take into account the tax law of countries other than Australia. This summary is general in nature and is not intended to be an authoritative or complete statement of the applicable law. The taxation laws of Australia or their interpretation may change. The precise implications of ownership or disposal of the Shares will depend upon each investor's specific circumstances.

Investors should obtain their own advice on the taxation implications of holding or disposing of the Shares, taking into account their specific circumstances.

12.17.1 Dividend on Shares

Individuals and complying superannuation entities

Where a dividend on a Share is distributed, that dividend should constitute assessable income of an Australian tax resident investor. Australian tax resident investors who are individuals or complying superannuation entities should include the dividend in their assessable income in the year they derive the dividend, together with any franking credit attached to that dividend if they are a "qualified person" (refer further comments below). Such investors should be entitled to a tax offset equal to the franking credit attached to the dividend subject to being a "qualified person" or where the investor receives less than $5,000 in franking credits from all sources for the income year. The tax offset exceeds the tax payable on the investor's taxable income. Where the tax offset exceeds the tax payable on the investor's taxable income year, such investors should be entitled to a tax refund.

Where a dividend paid is unfranked, the investor will generally be taxed at their prevailing tax rate on the dividend received with no tax offset.

It is important to note that there is no short term expectation that DomaCom will pay any dividend.

Corporate Investors

Corporate investors are required to include both the dividend and associated franking credit in their assessable income subject to being a "qualified person". A tax offset is then allowed up to the amount of the franking credit on the dividend.

An Australian resident corporate investor should be entitled to a credit in its own franking account to the extent of the franking credit attached to the dividend received. Such corporate investors can then pass on the benefit of the franking credits to their own investor(s) on the payment of dividends.

Excess franking credits received cannot give rise to a refund, but may be able to be converted into carry forward tax losses.

Trusts and partnerships

Investors who are trustees (other than trustees of complying superannuation entities) or partnerships should include the franking credit in their assessable income in determining the net income of the trust or partnership. Subject to being a "qualified person", the relevant beneficiary or partner may be entitled to a tax offset equal to the beneficiary's or partner's share of the franking credit received by the trust or partnership.

Shares held at risk

The benefit of franking credits can be denied where an investor is not a "qualified person" in which case the investor will not be able to include an amount for the franking credits in their assessable income and will not be entitled to a tax offset.

Broadly, to be a qualified person, an investor must satisfy the holding period and the related payment rule.

The holding period rule requires an investor to hold the Shares "at risk" for more than 45 days continuously, in the period beginning the day after the day on which the investor acquires the Shares and ending on the 45th day after the day on which the Shares become ex-dividend. The date the Shares are acquired and disposed of are ignored for the purposes of determining the 45 day period. Any day on which an investor has a materially diminished risk or loss of opportunity for gain (through transactions such as granting options or warrants over Shares or entering into a contract to sell the Shares) will not be counted as a day on which the investor held the Shares "at risk". This holding period rule is subject to certain exceptions. Special rules apply to trusts and beneficiaries.

Under the related payment rule, a different testing period applies where the investor has made, or is under an obligation to make, a related payment in relation to a dividend and the investor had not held the Shares `at risk' around the dividend period. A related payment is one where an investor or their associate passes on the benefit of the dividend to another person. The related payment rule requires the investor to have held the Shares at risk for a period commencing on the 45th day before, and ending on the 45th day after the day the Shares become ex-dividend. Practically, this should not impact investors who do not pass the benefit of the dividend to another person. Investors should obtain their own tax advice to determine if these requirements have been satisfied.

Dividend washing rules can apply such that no tax offset is available (nor is an amount required to be included in your assessable income) for a dividend received. Investors should consider the impact of these rules having regard to their own personal circumstances.

12.17.2 Disposal of Shares

The disposal of a Share by an investor should trigger a capital gains tax (CGT) event. A capital gain will arise where the capital proceeds on disposal exceed the cost base of the Share (broadly, the amount paid to acquire the Share plus any transaction costs). In the case of an arm's length on-market sale, the capital proceeds will generally be the cash proceeds from the sale.

A CGT discount may be applied against the capital gain (after reduction of total capital gains by capital losses) where the investor is an individual, complying superannuation entity or trustee, the Shares have been held for more than 12 months and certain other requirements have been met. Where the CGT discount applies, any capital gain arising to individuals and entities acting as trustees (other than a trust that is a complying superannuation entity) may be reduced by one half after offsetting current year or prior year capital losses. For a complying superannuation entity, any capital gain may be reduced by one third, after offsetting current year or prior year capital losses.

Where the investor is the trustee of a trust that has held the Shares for more than 12 months before disposal, the CGT discount may flow through to the beneficiaries of the trust if those beneficiaries are not companies. Investors that are trustees should seek specific advice regarding the tax consequences of distributions to beneficiaries who may qualify for discounted capital gains. A capital loss will be realised where the reduced cost base of the Share exceeds the capital proceeds from disposal. Capital losses may only be offset against capital gains realised by the investor in the same income year or future income years, subject to certain loss recoupment tests being satisfied. Capital losses cannot be offset against other assessable income.

12.17.3 Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Investors should not be liable for GST in respect of their investment in Shares. Investors may not be entitled to claim full input tax credits in respect of any GST paid on costs incurred in connection with their acquisition of the Shares. Separate GST advice should be sought by investors in this respect.

12.17.4 Stamp duty

Investors should not be liable for stamp duty in respect of their holding of Shares, unless they acquire, either alone or with an associated/related person, an interest of 90% or more in the Company. Under current stamp duty legislation, no stamp duty would ordinarily be payable by investors on any subsequent transfer of Shares.

Applicants should seek their own advice as to the impact of stamp duty in their own particular circumstances.

12.17.5 Tax file numbers (TFN)

Resident investors may, if they choose, notify the Company of their TFN, ABN or a relevant exemption from withholding tax with respect to dividends. In the event the Company is not so notified, tax will automatically be deducted at the highest marginal rate, including, where relevant, the Medicare Levy and Temporary Budget Repair Levy, from unfranked dividends and/or distributions.

Resident investors may be able to claim a tax credit/rebate (as applicable) in respect of any tax withheld on dividends in their income tax returns.

12.18 Restrictions on owning shares in Australian companies

The sale and purchase of Shares in Australia are regulated by a number of laws that restrict the level of ownership or control by any one person (either alone or in combination with others). This Section 12.18 contains a general description of these laws.

Government Foreign Investment Policy

Generally, the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Act 1975 (Cth) applies to acquisitions of shares and voting power in a company of 20% or more by a single foreign person and its associates (Substantial Interest), or 40% or more by two or more unassociated foreign persons and their associates (Aggregate Substantial Interest).

Where a proposed acquisition of a Substantial Interest or Aggregate Substantial Interest meets certain criteria, the acquisition may not occur unless notice of it has been given to the Commonwealth Treasurer and the Commonwealth Treasurer has either stated that there is no objection to the proposed acquisition in terms of Australia's Foreign Investment Policy or a statutory period has expired without the Federal Treasurer objecting. An acquisition of a Substantial Interest or an Aggregate Substantial Interest meeting certain criteria may also lead to divestment orders unless a process of notification, and either a statement of non-objection or expiry of a statutory period without objection, have passed.

In addition, in accordance with Australia's Foreign Investment Policy, proposed acquisitions of a direct investment in an Australian company by foreign government investors and their associates must be notified to the Foreign Investment Review Board for prior approval, irrespective of the value of the investment. According to Australia's Foreign Investment Policy, a direct investment will typically include any investment of 10% or more of the shares (or other securities or equivalent interest or voting power) in an Australian company but may also include investment of less than 10% where the investor is building a strategic stake in the target or obtains potential influence or control over the target.

The takeover provisions in Chapter 6 of the Corporations Act restrict acquisitions of relevant interests in issued voting shares in listed companies, and unlisted companies with more than 50 members, if, as a result of the acquisition, the acquirer's (or another party's) voting power in that company would increase from 20% or below to more than 20%, or would increase from a starting point that is above 20% and below 90%, unless certain exceptions apply. The Corporations Act also imposes notification requirements on persons having voting power of 5% or more in the Company either themselves or together with their associates.

The Shares may not be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, nor may any document or material in connection therewith be distributed in Malaysia, other than to persons listed in both paragraph 10, Part 2 of Schedule 5 and Part 1 of Schedule 6 of the Capital Markets And Services Act 2007.

New Zealand

This offer to New Zealand investors is a regulated offer made under Australian and New Zealand law. In Australia, this is Chapter 8 of the Corporations Act and regulations made under that Act. In New Zealand, this is subpart 6 of Part 9 of the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013 and Part 9 of the Financial Markets Conduct Regulations 2014.

The Offer and the contents of this Prospectus are principally governed by Australian rather than New Zealand Iaw. In the main, the Corporations Act and the regulations made under that Act set out how the Offer must be made.

There are differences in how financial products are regulated under Australian law. For example, the disclosure of fees for managed investment schemes is different under the Australian regime. The rights, remedies, and compensation arrangements available to New Zealand investors in Australian financial products may differ from the rights, remedies, and compensation arrangements for New Zealand financial products.

Both the Australian and New Zealand financial markets regulators have enforcement responsibilities in relation to the Offer. If you need to make a complaint about the Offer, please contact the Financial Markets Authority, New Zealand (http://www.fma.govt.nz). The Australian and New Zealand regulators will work together to settle your complaint.

The taxation treatment of Australian financial products is not the same as for New Zealand financial products. If you are uncertain about whether this investment is appropriate for you, you should seek the advice of an appropriately qualified financial adviser.

The Offer may involve a currency exchange risk. The currency for the financial products is not New Zealand dollars. The value of the financial products will go up or down according to changes in the exchange rate between that currency and New Zealand dollars. These changes may be significant.

If you expect the financial products to pay any amounts in a currency that is not New Zealand dollars, you may incur significant fees in having the funds credited to a bank account in New Zealand in New Zealand dollars.

If the financial products are able to be traded on a financial product market and you wish to trade the financial products through that market, you will have to make arrangements for a participant in that market to sell the financial products on your behalf. If the financial product market does not operate in New Zealand, the way in which the market operates, the regulation of participants in that market, and the information available to you about the financial products and trading may differ from financial product markets that operate in New Zealand.

- it has not issued or had in its possession for the purpose of issue, and will not issue or have in its possession for the purpose of issue, whether in Hong Kong or elsewhere, any advertisement, invitation or document relating to the Shares, which is directed at, or the contents of which are likely to be accessed or read by, the public of Hong Kong (except if permitted to do so under the securities laws of Hong Kong) other than with respect to Shares which are or are intended to be disposed of only to persons outside Hong Kong or only to "professional investors" as defined in the Securities and Futures Ordinance and any rules made under that Ordinance.
